

The ARCHAEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE of AMERICA Presents An Archaeology Festival in Santa Fe!

When: Saturday, November 1, 2008
12:00 - 5:00

Where: La Fonda Hotel Ballroom
Santa Fe, New Mexico

Admission is free!

Experience the excitement of archaeological discovery with your family!

Archaeologists, museum educators, and historical reenactors will lead hands-on activities and give exciting demonstrations. Talk to the experts about archaeology, history, and cultural heritage. The Archaeology Festival is fun for all generations, and is especially kid-friendly! Teachers and home-schoolers will get great ideas for projects.

Presenters will include representatives from:

Boston's Museum of Science
Cibola National Forest
Maxwell Museum of Anthropology
Milwaukee Public Museum
Museum of Indian Arts & Culture
Museum of NM Treasure Trunks Program
NM Historic Preservation Division
NM Office of Archaeological Studies

Roman Legion XIV
Santa Fe Society of the AIA
School for Advanced Research
Southwest Archaeological Consultants
SRI's Passport in Time Clearinghouse
St. Louis Community College
Texas A&M's Nautical Archaeology
University of New Mexico

For more information, visit:
www.archaeological.org/education

