

Rosetta Stone Project: Grading Rubric

Suzanne Hertzberg

THE ARCHER SCHOOL FOR GIRLS
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

TOTAL POINTS 100

Key Terms: _____/10 points

Definitions are clear, succinct, neatly written; key contributions of individuals are noted

Clay Tablet: _____/40 points

Message appropriately reflects perspective of ancient Mesopotamia or Egypt

Message is transliterated accurately in cuneiform, hieroglyphs, and English

Tablet is neatly executed

Two-Dimensional Tablet: _____/15 points

Message is transliterated accurately in cuneiform, hieroglyphs, and English

Two-dimensional tablet is neatly executed

Message is written in Sharpie or black pen with the pencil markings erased

Written Reflection: _____/25 points

Thoughtful, thorough response to prompt

Strong writing craft: essay and paragraph organization, diction, grammar, spelling, punctuation

Follows length and format guidelines

Prewriting and message transliteration is turned in with reflection

Overall Project Work Habits: _____/10 points

Student completed work on time and used class time

Student treated materials with respect and cleaned up consistently

OVERALL GRADE _____/100 points

Comments: