

The Monteverdi Field School in Archaeology

A STUDY ABROAD PROGRAM IN ARCHAEOLOGY BY THE UNIVERSITY AT BUFFALO

MAY 27, 2018 - JUNE 23, 2018

The field school excavations focus on two archaeological sites: a late Etruscan-Republican sanctuary and vicus and a deserted medieval village, in Tuscany (Italy). Courses are aimed at students, early career scholars and those passionate about archaeology, classics, art history, anthropology and cultural heritage management. No prior experience is required.

The excavations are carried out by the Department of Classics of the University at Buffalo – SUNY in collaboration with Michigan State University Department of Anthropology and The Cooper Union for Advancement of the Science and Arts of New York.

Apply Now!

Deadline for application: March 15, 2018

<https://goo.gl/sNxhsu>

Dr. Alessandro Sebastiani

Phone: 716-645-0462

E-mail: as424@buffalo.edu

More info at: www.imperoproject.com

Department of Classics
University at Buffalo
The State University of New York