

THE NIVIN ARCHAEOLOGICAL RESEARCH PROJECT

Casma, Ancash, Peru

2019 Seasons:

Season 1: June 2nd - June 29th

Season 2: July 7th - August 3rd

Participants will receive intensive training in:

Archaeology

- Survey and surface collection
- Excavation and Mapping
- Artifact analysis

Ethnography

- Community Outreach
- Oral History Project
- Art and Education Collaboration

Museum Studies

- Collection management
- 3D Scanning
- Exhibit Projects

Fees include:

- Accommodation and travel in country.
- Three meals daily for six days a week for four weeks.
- Visits of neighboring archaeological sites during the weekends.
- Entrance fees and transportation to museums in Lima and Casma.
- Archaeological supplies, hardcover field notebook and printouts of assigned readings.

Fees do not include:

- Tuition is not included.
- Airfare to Lima, Peru, health/travel insurance, vaccinations, airport taxes.
- Personal medicines, vitamins, sunscreen or other necessities.

For more information, please contact
Project Director:

Elizabeth Cruzado Carranza

Ph.D. Student at Louisiana State University
ecruza1@lsu.edu