2019 South Diamond Creek Pueblo Project Application

Date: _____

You are applying to join a research project which is operating in a remote location under conditions which differ substantially from "home." This project will involve camping in the field. The project involves physical labor and the ability to work and cooperate in close quarters with others. This questionnaire helps to ensure that the project operates smoothly and that we have some ideas as to your skill, interests, strengths, and weaknesses prior to the beginning of the field season. Please try to answer as accurately and completely as possible. Prior experience is not required. Thank you
