- Dennis, New Mexico

JUNGLE KINGDOMS of the Ancient Maya

February 18 - March 3, 2027 (14 days | 16 guests)
with Mayanist Ben Thomas

This tour is co-sponsored by the Society of Architectural Historians.

Archaeological Institute of America Lecturer & Host

Ben Thomas is the Executive Director of the Society of Architectural Historians (SAH) and Associate Professor in Liberal Arts at Berklee College of Music. Prior to joining SAH he was Director of Programs for the Archaeological Institute of America for 18 years. Ben was introduced to archaeology at Brandeis University (B.A.) and received his graduate degrees in Mesoamerican archaeology from Boston University (M.A. and Ph.D.) after several years of fieldwork in the jungles and swamps of Belize and Guatemala. He is a Mayanist with specific interests in ancient Maya architecture, settlements, and built environments. Ben has travelled extensively throughout Mexico, Guatemala, Belize, and Honduras, and has excavated and studied everything from modest Maya houses in rural settlements to elegant palaces in larger urban centers.

As the Executive Director of SAH, Ben works closely with scholars of the built environment. SAH supports research and scholarship through publications, conferences and programs, advocacy, and outreach. In his former role as Director of Programs for the AIA, Ben was responsible for the Institute's outreach and education activities, including International Archaeology Day, ArchaeoCon, the national lecture program, the site preservation program, all grants and fellowships, and the 105 local societies. At Berklee, where he has been teaching for over 18 years, he introduces students to Mesoamerican art and archaeology and some of the great archaeological discoveries that have been made in the last 300 years.

Currently, Ben is working with archaeologists, tour operators, and archaeological site managers on issues of sustainable archaeological tourism, presenting sites to the public, and public outreach and engagement. Since 2017, Ben has led the AIA's Yucatán tour and, for the last several years, this very tour in Mexico, Guatemala, and Honduras to excellent reviews.

Dear Traveler,

I invite you to join me on this tropical adventure that offers the most comprehensive and best-paced exploration of the ancient Maya world amid the verdant jungles and awe-inspiring ruins of Mexico, Guatemala, and Honduras.

This immersive experience, co-sponsored by the Archaeological Institute of America (AIA) and the Society of Architectural Historians (SAH), brings together two renowned organizations that are committed to the study and preservation of our shared cultural and architectural heritage. I will be leading this tour as both the former Director of Programs for the AIA and the current Executive Director of SAH.

As part of a small group of no more than 16 guests, join me on this winter getaway to delve deep into the legacy of the ancient Maya. Marvel at stucco friezes, towering pyramids, and painted frescoes as we visit some of the most significant and visually stunning archaeological sites in the region, including Palenque, Bonampak, Yaxchilán, Tikal, Yaxhá, Copán, and Quiriguá—four of which are UNESCO World Heritage Sites. You will also enjoy time to reflect, relax, or go bird watching in serene natural settings from our comfortable hotels and remote jungle lodges.

This is a rare opportunity to experience and imagine Maya civilization while engaging with the still-standing walls of its culture. As space is limited and this tour is available on a first-come, first-served basis, I encourage you to contact AIA Tours soon to reserve your space.

I look forward to welcoming you on this unforgettable adventure.

Sincerely,

Ben Thomas

“Dr. Thomas was fantastic! His field experience, insights, subject matter expertise, and personable nature were a tremendous asset. His formal lectures, combined with his willingness to readily engage in informal topical discussions, helped make this tour one of the most educational I’ve had.” - Daniel, Idaho

Itinerary

(B)= Breakfast, (L)= Lunch, (D)= Dinner

Thursday, February 18, 2027: Depart home | Arrive Villahermosa, MEXICO

Depart home for Villahermosa International Airport (VSA) where you will be met upon arrival at the airport and transferred as a group to our hotel. For those arriving independently, a taxi can be hired for the short drive into town. Two nights at the 4-star Hyatt Regency Villahermosa.

Friday, February 19: Comalcalco | Introductory lecture | Welcome dinner

Set out for Comalcalco, the westernmost known Maya site, and the only Maya city built with bricks of baked clay instead of stone. The site comprises the North Square, Great Acropolis, and Acropolis of the East, and it thrived as an agricultural center specializing in cacao (the seeds from which cocoa, cocoa butter, and chocolate are made). After lunch we return to our hotel and have some time at leisure before gathering for an introductory lecture and our welcome dinner. (B,L,D)

Saturday, February 20: La Venta Park | Palenque

Visit La Venta Park to see a magnificent outdoor collection of stone sculpture that originally came from the Olmec site of La Venta. The Olmec were one of the earliest cultures in Mesoamerica, preceding the Maya by centuries. Their monumental stone carvings and strange mythological beings puzzle archaeologists to this day. After lunch, drive to Palenque, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the great western capitals of classic Maya civilization that some have called “the Paris of the Maya.” We will check-in to our charming hotel and have time for relaxation, exploring the surrounding lush forest, and swimming in the unusual pool. Two nights at the 3-star Chan-Kah Resort Village. (B,L,D)

Sunday, February 21: Palenque | Jungle trail walk | Palenque site museum

Explore Palenque’s many exquisite examples of 7th- and 8th-century Maya architecture, including the Temple of the Inscriptions, Palace, Temples of the Cross Group, Temples XIX and XXI, and much more. We finish the morning walking a beautiful downhill jungle trail,

Top, a view of Tikal through the treetops;

“A superb tour.

The itinerary could accurately be described as ‘the greatest hits of the Maya’. Ben Thomas was the ideal tour leader, a true expert about Maya history, culture, archaeology, and language.”

The AIA & the AIA Tours Program

The Archaeological Institute of America (AIA) is the oldest and largest archaeological organization in North America. The AIA seeks to educate people of all ages about the significance of archaeological discovery. For more than a century the AIA has been dedicated to the encouragement and support of archaeological research and publication, and to the protection of the world's archaeological resources and cultural heritage. By traveling on an AIA Tour you directly support the AIA while personally gaining the benefit of the AIA's network of scholars and worldwide contacts.

across waterfalls and hidden ruins, to get a true sense of the rainforest and all its beauty. After lunch at an outdoor, palm thatch restaurant, visit the Palenque site museum (pending reopening), with many world-famous pieces of Maya ceramics, jades, and stone carving. (B,L,D)

Monday, February 22: AM at leisure | Bonampak | Frontera Corozal

Enjoy some time at leisure, perhaps to stroll around the resort grounds, do some hiking, take a swim, or relax on our bungalows' individual verandas, before departing for Bonampak. Lunch today will be in a rustic jungle restaurant. The discovery of the painted murals at Bonampak in the 1950s changed the way the world saw the Maya. Although the murals are faded and difficult to view, they remain a sight to see. The site is run by Lacandon Maya, and we may get a chance to interact with them during our visit. Continue on to Frontera Corozal, a Chol Maya community on the banks of the Usumacinta River, the famous "river of ruins." Along its banks, classic Maya civilization built some of its grandest cities. We are now traveling deep into the heart of Maya country, where we will stay in a remote, rustic jungle lodge. Two nights at Escudo Jaguar Lodge. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, February 23: Yaxchilán

After breakfast, travel by small boat down the Usumacinta River to the great classic Maya site of Yaxchilán, whose high-crested temples and palaces climb the steep hills above a large plaza upon a terrace by the river. We will spend all day at this fantastic site, enjoying a picnic lunch under the forest canopy. Beautiful monolithic stelae (standing stone monuments) and lintels spanning the temple doorways display intricate reliefs. Howler and spider monkeys and many tropical birds may accompany us as we explore the steep jungle trails, climbing to the higher elevations overlooking the ancient Maya landscape. We return by boat to our lodge late this afternoon. (B,L,D)

Wednesday, February 24: Tikal, GUATEMALA

Journey upriver and cross over into the heart of Guatemala, to the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Tikal. As with most Maya sites, Classic Period constructions cover those from earlier times, and ancient structures are scattered for miles in every direction from its center. Check-in to our home base for the next three nights in the heart of Tikal National Park, providing basic, but comfortable, services. Three nights at the Jungle Lodge Hotel. (B,L,D)

Thursday, February 25: Tikal

Spend a full day at Tikal, which contains thousands of ancient structures, the majority of which remain unexcavated. This vast site has spectacular pyramids, numerous plazas, a sprawling main palace and several lesser royal residences, multiple ball courts, causeways, dozens of stelae, and much more. It is estimated that more than 50,000 people lived at Tikal in its heyday, and the story of the city and its rise and fall mirrors the larger story of Maya civilization itself. Following the glories of the Classic Period, the site was largely abandoned by A.D. 900. (B,L,D)

Friday, February 26: Optional pre-dawn hike | Tikal site museums | PM at leisure OR Optional excursion to Yaxhá

Today is a day to relax and re-charge after eight busy days. However, for the energetic (and, weather permitting), there will be an optional, pre-dawn hike up the steep steps of Tikal's Temple IV—the site's tallest pyramid at 230 feet, and the largest Maya shrine built in the 8th century. Being a dense rainforest there could be fog but, if not, we may enjoy breathtaking sunrise views from the top. After breakfast, we will visit two small Tikal site museums and then enjoy the rest of day at leisure, until we gather for dinner. Instead of this time at leisure, you have the option to join our leaders on a 1.5-hour drive to Yaxhá, a large and important ancient Maya site that is infrequently visited. Located in dense jungle on a ridge overlooking turquoise Lake Yaxhá, the vast site includes numerous altars and stelae, nine temple pyramids, and two ball courts. Boxed lunches will be enjoyed at the site. (B,L,D)

Saturday, February 27: Southeastern Petén Regional Museum, Dolores | Rio Dulce

Depart Tikal for Rio Dulce, stopping along the way to visit the Southeastern Petén Regional Museum, in the town of Dolores, with a significant collection of Classic Maya artifacts. Arrive in Rio Dulce where we enjoy a late lunch and get an overview of the area, including viewing a 17th-century Spanish fortress, the Castle of San Felipe de Lara, located where the river meets Lake Izabal. Late this afternoon we check-in to our waterside hotel. Accommodations here are simple, grouped bungalows spread throughout the property. Overnight at the 3-star Hotel Catamaran. (B,L,D)

Sunday, February 28: Quiriguá | Motagua Valley | Estanzuela: Paleontology and Archaeology Museum | Copán, HONDURAS

After a short boat ride, continue to Quiriguá, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and home to the tallest Maya stelae—one weighs 65 tons and is 35 feet above ground and eight feet underground. Sculpture here is like no other place, with spectacular cosmograms in the likeness of divine crocodiles and jaguars carved in the round from huge boulders. Here we also find a rare description of mythical events which took place at the origin of the calendar Great Cycle that ended in 2012. After leaving Quiriguá, we have lunch in the Motagua Valley, the primary jade source for all of Mesoamerica; and stop in Estanzuela to visit the small Roberto Wookfolk Saravia Paleontology and Archaeology Museum. Continue on, crossing the border into Honduras, and check-in to our hotel. Two nights at the 4-star Hotel Marina Copán. (B,L,D)

Monday, March 1: Copán

A short drive brings us to the archaeological site of Copán, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, known as Hux Wintik (translation uncertain). If Palenque was the “Paris of the Maya,” then Copán was the “Athens of the Maya.” The magnificent acropolis, plazas, courtyards, and standing sculptures are the hallmarks of this southernmost Maya capital. Enjoy a splendid picnic lunch at the site and then visit the excellent site museum, which has a full-scale replica of the funeral shrine of the founder of the Copán dynasty and many fabulous pieces of Maya sculpture. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, March 2: Sepultras Group | San Pedro Sula | Farewell dinner

Tour the Sepultras Group, located a few miles from the site of Copán, which also housed a residential area for non-Maya (perhaps foreign merchants) around A.D. 800. We have now traveled from the western capital of Palenque, through the heartland at Tikal, and on to the southern capital of Copán, giving us a sense of the enormity of ancient Maya civilization in its heyday. After lunch at a local restaurant, drive to San Pedro Sula, where we check-in to our hotel, get settled, and then gather for a farewell dinner. Overnight at the 5-star Hilton Princess San Pedro Sula. (B,L,D)

Wednesday, March 3: Fly home

Transfer to the airport in San Pedro Sula (SAP), Honduras, for flights home. (B)

What to Expect

ACTIVE: Must be able to walk three or more miles per day on mostly uneven terrain, and up and down inclines and steps.

You must be able to make long walks, unassisted, over uneven terrain and up and down steps that may be steep and without handrails. Some sites require strenuous and/or brisk walking or climbing, sometimes with difficult footing. Participants who are not able to walk or stand unassisted for extended periods are kindly advised not to join this tour. All participants are expected to be physically active and not be an impediment to others on excursions, to enjoy traveling as part of a group, and to be ready to experience cultural differences. All participants will be required to follow safety/sanitization protocols set forth by Sponsors/Operator, local staff, and host country laws. Any participant showing signs of illness will be asked to wear a mask when in close proximity to others. If the tour manager decides that a participant cannot visit a site safely or in a timely manner, their judgment will be final. Where possible, an alternate activity may be suggested; additional costs may apply. If you have any questions about your ability to participate, we suggest that you visit your personal physician with this brochure in hand and discuss whether or not this program is appropriate for you.

Please be advised that occasionally, for reasons beyond our control, some sites might be closed or otherwise inaccessible. Accommodations have been chosen for their excellent locations and are the best available in proximity to the sites. Several remote accommodations are basic and may not be up to the standards some of our travelers have come to expect. Interruptions in electricity, the use of generators, and spotty WiFi should be expected. Travelers should pack their patience and sense of adventure to fully appreciate the program. At the time of year that we visit this region the weather is generally sunny and dry, with temperatures in the mid-70s to mid-80s F during the day and in the 60s F at night. There is always a chance of light to moderate rain showers. Complete pre-departure details will be sent to participants.
