Archaeological Institute of America Lecturer and Host

Award-winning archaeologist, author, and National Geographic Explorer and grantee

Patrick Hunt earned his Ph.D. in Archaeology from the Institute of Archaeology, University College London, and has taught at Stanford University for more than 30 years. Patrick directed the Stanford Alpine Archaeology Project from 1994-2012, and has continued project-related fieldwork in the region in the years since. His Alps research has been sponsored by the National Geographic Society's Expeditions Council. Patrick frequently lectures for National Geographic and others on Hannibal and the European mummy nicknamed Ötzi the Iceman. He is a National Lecturer for the Archaeological Institute of America (AIA), including the prestigious AIA Norton Lectureship in 2022-23; an elected Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society; and an elected National Fellow of The Explorers Club.

Patrick is the author of 26 published books, including the best-seller Hannibal (Simon & Schuster, 2017), the Penguin best-seller Ten Discoveries That Rewrote History, and Alpine Archaeology. He is currently writing a book on Ötzi the Iceman. Patrick has published more than 100 articles, including more than a dozen for Encyclopedia Britannica, mostly on Hannibal. He has been featured in many National Geographic and NOVA documentaries, and has consulted for BBC and been featured in BBC radio interviews. Patrick has a lifelong love of the Alps, having lived annually for several months in the Alps since 1994 when not in the classroom or on the lecture circuit. He is Immediate Past President of the Stanford Chapter of the AIA and has been a member of the AIA since graduate school in 1984. A regular study leader on educational tours since the early 1990s, Patrick has led five prior tours in southern France and at least twelve prior tours in northern Italy, including three for the AIA since 2017.

Traverse northern Italy, with the grand Italian Alps as your backdrop, enjoying the depths of its history and the great diversity of architecture, traditions, and gastronomy found in three distinct regions: Lombardy, Veneto, and Friuli Venezia Giulia. On this west-east journey from Milan to Trieste you will explore classic old towns and discover off-the-beaten-track sites, including a stop at the site of Hannibal's first major victory in Italy; and visits to Roman villas and temples at Sirmione, Desenzano, and Brescia.

See the remarkably preserved, 5,300-year-old Copper Age mummy called Ötzi the Iceman, housed at the South Tyrol Museum of Archaeology, a subject of Patrick Hunt's research and writing for years. Visit five UNESCO World Heritage Sites: Valcamonica's famous prehistoric petroglyphs, Roman and early Christian Aquileia, the well-preserved city of Verona, landmarks of Lombard Italy in Cividale del Friuli, and an example of prehistoric pile dwellings at Lucone di Polpenazze. Along the way, you will be treated to insightful discussions with your AIA lecturer/host and a variety of striking vistas: plains, lakes, mountains, and the Adriatic Sea; plus enjoy delicious cuisine and an ideal touring pace (including two hotel nights in Milan, five on Lake Garda, and three in Trieste).

“Overall, a wonderful experience! So much to learn and it was great to travel with people who are also archaeology enthusiasts. Seeing Ötzi was truly a gift! I will look forward to my next adventure with AIA. Thank you for all you do!”

ITINERARY

(B)= Breakfast, (L)= Lunch, (D)= Dinner

Sunday, September 6, 2026: Depart home for Milan, ITALY

Monday, September 7: Arrive in Milan | Transfer to hotel | Welcome dinner

Upon arrival at Milan Malpensa Airport (MXP), you will be met and transferred as a group to our hotel in the heart of Milan's historic district. The afternoon is free to relax and perhaps have a stroll to admire the Gothic Cathedral (Duomo). Gather for a welcome aperitivo and dinner. Two nights at the 4-star UNA Hotels Cusani Milano. (D)

Tuesday, September 8: Milan: AM at leisure; PM Imperial Palace, Archaeological Museum, San Maurizio al Monastero Maggiore

Enjoy a leisurely morning to relax or explore local sites on your own. After lunch, meet your expert local guide and enjoy a special tour of the hidden archaeological treasures of Milan, such as the Imperial Palace, symbol of Mediolanum (ancient Milan); the Archaeological Museum, which incorporates substantial remains of the ancient city wall and houses excellent Roman and medieval collections; and the medieval church of San Maurizio al Monastero Maggiore, with its well-preserved frescoes. Dinner is on your own. (B,L)

Wednesday, September 9: Hannibal battle site | Piacenza | Cremona's Museo del Violino | Desenzano del Garda

This morning we drive to the approximate location of Hannibal's Battle of the Trebbia River (December 218 B.C.), southwest of Piacenza (ancient Placentia) in the shallow hills around Rivergaro, just before the Trebbia River flows into the Po River. After a look at the landscape and a discussion with our lecturer about the battle, Hannibal's first major victory in Italy, we will visit (time-permitting) Piacenza's Museo Civico di Palazzo Farnese. After lunch at leisure in Piacenza, continue to nearby Cremona, the 16th- to 18th-century center of violin-making, and visit the Museo del Violino. Continue on to Desenzano del Garda, on the southern shore of Lake Garda, and check-in to our hotel. Gather for dinner this evening. Five nights at the 4-star Villa Rosa Hotel. (B,D)

Thursday, September 10: Sirmione | Grotte di Catullo | Gorgi's Roman furnaces | Desenzano del Garda

Start the day with a walk in Sirmione, at the northern tip of Lake Garda's narrow peninsula, where we find the remains of a large, 1st-century A.D. Roman villa and baths. Known for centuries as the Grotte di Catullo, this is the largest domestic villa in northern Italy. After a visit of the small site museum and lunch at a local restaurant, drive to nearby Lonato del Garda to see the Gorgi's Roman furnaces - six restored brickworks dating back to the 2nd century A.D. Then, return to Desenzano and visit a well-conserved example of a Roman villa which, although built more than 2,000 years ago, was renovated and completed between the 2nd and 4th centuries A.D. Wooden walkways take us through the villa, over a variety of colorful floor mosaics. Dinner this evening is at leisure. (B,L)

Friday, September 11: Valcamonica: Naquane Rock Engravings National Park, National Museum of Prehistory | Desenzano del Garda

Today we head towards the heart of the Alps for Valcamonica (Valle Camonica), the first Italian site to be included on UNESCO's World Heritage List. This valley is home to more than 140,000 prehistoric rock engravings (petroglyphs) that span approximately 56 miles and 8,000 years. Our morning will be spent at the Naquane Rock Engravings National Park, which is home to an extraordinary collection of prehistoric rock carvings. Depending on physical fitness, we will split into two groups in order to explore the area at our own paces. Not to be missed is the Minerva Sanctuary, a Roman building with mosaics and painted walls located in a place of stunning natural beauty on the Oglio River. After lunch at a local restaurant, visit the National Museum of Prehistory of Val Camonica (MUPRE), home to one of Europe's most important collections of rock art. Return to Desenzano for a lecture and the balance of the day and dinner at leisure. (B,L)

Saturday, September 12: Brescia | Lucone di Polpenazze | Desenzano del Garda

This morning, we reach the city of Brescia (ancient Brixia), whose old town was radically restored and re-opened in 2015. Our visit will take us on a journey through time, from the pre-Roman era to the Renaissance. The town's Roman ruins include Emperor Vespasian's impressive 1st-century A.D. temple (Tempio Capitolino), plus a 15,000-seat theater, forum, and a stretch of the paved decumanus (east-west oriented road). Later monuments include the 11th-century Duomo Vecchio (built over a 6th-century church); and the Monastero di Santa Giulia and Basilica di San Salvatore, which house the Museo della Città with its range of collections from prehistory to the Venetian era. After an independent lunch, we drive to Lucone di Polpenazze, one of the 19 Italian sites (among the 111 total sites) comprising the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Prehistoric Pile Dwellings (stilt houses) around the Alps. Return to Desenzano and enjoy dinner at a local restaurant. (B,D)

Sunday, September 13: Bolzano: South Tyrol Museum of Archaeology | Desenzano del Garda

This morning we head to Bolzano, a charming town where German and Mediterranean traditions meet. Begin with a visit to the South Tyrol Museum of Archaeology – guided by Prof. Patrick Hunt – to retrace the origins of human history. Three quarters of its permanent exhibition are dedicated to Ötzi the Iceman—a 5,300-year-old Copper Age mummy, remarkably preserved thanks to extraordinary conditions and continuing to reveal invaluable insights into the past. Through artifacts, educational texts, video stations, and multimedia installations, you will uncover the story of this true time traveler. Afterward, enjoy lunch at a traditional restaurant. Return to our hotel in Desenzano, where the balance of the day and dinner are at leisure. (B,L)

Monday, September 14: Verona | Trieste

Today we check out of our hotel and take a motorcoach to Trieste, our home base for the balance of our journey. On the way, stop in Verona to visit the 1st-century A.D. Roman arena, possibly the best-preserved ancient amphitheater, and for a walking tour of the hidden gems of Verona (the city is a UNESCO World Heritage Site). Our lunch today is a typical Veronese meal at Ristorante Maffei, which was built on the site of the 1st-century B.C. Roman Capitol, part of which is visible in its wine cellar and, pending confirmation, we will be able to see. Continuing on to Trieste, we check-in to our hotel and gather for dinner at a local restaurant. Three nights at the 4-star Starhotels Savoia Excelsior Palace. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, September 15: Cividale del Friuli | Trieste

Seven groups of important Lombardic buildings throughout Italy comprise a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Today we learn how the Lombards influenced Italian history, visiting Cividale del Friuli—the region’s most outstanding Lombard capital, established as a duchy in A.D. 569, and still today one of the region’s most picturesque towns. Our city tour includes the Tempietto Longobardo (a “little temple” with superb artwork) and the Archaeological Museum. After lunch at a local restaurant, return to our hotel and enjoy an evening and dinner at leisure. (B,L)

Wednesday, September 16: Aquileia | Trieste | Farewell dinner

Drive this morning to Aquileia, founded by the Romans in 181 B.C., which (as a major trading link to the East) became one of the Roman Empire’s most important cities. The archaeological area and Patriarchal Basilica are a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Most of ancient Aquileia remains unexcavated, and the basilica’s 4th-century mosaics (approx. 7,000 square feet) are extraordinary. Visit the National Archaeological Museum of Aquileia, and then enjoy some time at leisure for an independent lunch. We return to Trieste and enjoy one last afternoon at leisure, before gathering for a farewell dinner at a local restaurant. (B,D)

Thursday, September 17: Transfer to Venice airport | Fly home

Transfer (about two hours) this morning to Venice Marco Polo Airport (VCE) for independent flights homeward. (B)
