B= Breakfast • L= Lunch • D= Dinner

Sunday, October 6, 2019: Fly to Rome

Monday, October 7: Arrive in Rome | Private transfer to hotel | At leisure

Upon arrival at Rome's Fiumicino Airport (FCO) you are met for a private transfer to our hotel in the city center. The balance of the day is free to relax and perhaps stroll around this centrally located neighborhood. The evening is also at leisure. (Recommendations for dining independently will always be provided.)

Overnight for five nights at the 4-star Kolbe Hotel.

Tuesday, October 8: Palatine Hill | House of Augustus | Imperial Forum | Temple of Antoninus & Faustina | Colosseum | Welcome dinner

Temple of Antoninus and Faustina, Rome

Meet our AIA lecturer Al Leonard, tour manager, and Rome guide at breakfast. We begin with a visit to the Palatine Hill, centermost of the Seven Hills of Rome, standing above the Roman Forum on one side and the Circus Maximus on the other. From the time of Augustus, Rome's first Emperor, imperial palaces were built here. Visit the House of Augustus, which reopened in 2008 after extensive restoration; its colorful wall paintings and mosaic floors are stunning. Continue with a walk through the Roman Forum, the public center of ancient Rome where the popular assembly and senate met. Here we enjoy a private visit to one of the best preserved buildings in the forum—the Temple of Antoninus and Faustina, which is closed to the public. Savor a traditional Italian lunch just a few steps from the Colosseum. Next view the splendid Arch of Constantine and enter the Colosseum, Rome's amphitheater, the largest ever built, which accommodated 50,000 spectators. Enjoy a specially arranged visit to the upper levels. Return to our hotel and gather this evening for a welcome dinner hosted by Professor Leonard. (B,L,D)

- Robert, Texas

Archaeological Institute of America Lecturer and Host

Albert Leonard, Jr. (Ph.D., University of Chicago), Professor Emeritus in both the Departments of Classical Archaeology and Near Eastern Studies at the University of Arizona, is an archaeologist who specializes in the social impact of interregional trade among the ancient cultures of the Mediterranean World. In addition to his work in Italy, Al has directed excavations at a number of sites around the Mediterranean (in Greece, Egypt, Cyprus, Israel, Jordan, and Portugal), and has published the results of his work in six books and more than 150 articles. Throughout his career, he has been very active in educational outreach, lecturing on art and archaeology to a range of audiences from elementary school classes to university Adult Education groups. For over three decades Al lectured nationally for the Archaeological Institute of America, which awarded him its Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching Award by which it “acknowledged and applauded the invaluable service that (he) has given to the archaeological community as an educator.”

As his alter ego, The Time Traveling Gourmet®, Al combines archaeological, historical, and literary material with culinary skills acquired at Le Cordon Bleu and the Culinary Institute of America (where he was partially supported by a Robert Parker Wine Advocate Scholarship) in order to reconstruct (in the classroom or the kitchen) dishes described by ancient authors such as Archestratus, a 4th-century BCE Sicilian cook who has often been called the “Father of Gastronomy.” He writes and lectures regularly on food and wine – both ancient and modern – and presently divides his time between Boston, where he is a Research Associate at Harvard's Semitic Museum, and California's Russian River Valley, where he is a member of the Society of Wine Educators and the Northern Sonoma County convivium of Slow Food International. Al has lectured to excellent reviews on eleven previous AIA-sponsored Mediterranean travel programs, and looks forward to sharing with us his decades of archaeological experience – as well as some excellent pasta – during our travels.

Wednesday, October 9: Capitoline Museums | Borghese Gallery

Ascend the stairs of the Piazza del Campidoglio, designed by Michelangelo, overlooking the extensive ruins of the Roman Forum. Enter the Capitoline Museums, the world's oldest public museums, and view magnificent and iconic Classical sculptures as well as paintings by Caravaggio, Rubens, Titian, Van Dyck, and other masters. After lunch, visit the Borghese Gallery, housed in a splendid, 17th-century villa with an exceptional art collection, including outstanding sculptures by Canova and Bernini plus paintings by Titian, Raphael, and Caravaggio. The evening is at leisure, or join an optional wine tasting with dinner (at additional cost). (B,L) (D with optional wine tasting)

The pool (Canopus) at Hadrian's Villa.

World Heritage site of Hadrian's Villa, a 2nd-century A.D. complex of buildings featuring marvelous pools, baths, fountains, gardens, theaters, and the Imperial Palace. After an included lunch in Tivoli's charming town center, continue on to another World Heritage site, the magnificent Villa d'Este, a superb Renaissance palace with an elaborate garden and dozens of fountains. Return to Rome for an evening at leisure. (B) (L with optional excursion)

Saturday, October 12: Janiculum | Sperlonga | Capua | Naples

Before departing Rome stop at Garibaldi Park on the Janiculum Hill for panoramic views of Rome's domes and bell towers. Drive south to the cave of Emperor Tiberius at Sperlonga and the local museum with magnificent sculptures recounting the deeds of Odysseus that were carved by the same sculptors who produced the Laocoön and His Sons, which we saw in the Vatican Museums. Next stop is Capua to see the Flavian amphitheater, second largest in the world, and renowned because the gladiator and slave rebel Spartacus trained here. Visit briefly the adjacent, two-room Gladiator Museum. Continue to our lovely hotel right on the Bay of Naples and enjoy an evening at leisure. Overnight for two nights at the 4-star Grand Hotel Santa Lucia. (B,L)

Sunday, October 13: Pompeii | Naples Archaeological Museum

Explore Pompeii, one the world's most fascinating archaeological sites. In A.D. 79, the catastrophic eruption of Mount Vesuvius buried and thus preserved the ancient city under tons of ash, pumice, and lapilli. Excavations have revealed life in this prosperous ancient Roman city beneath lofty Mount Vesuvius. Highlights may include the House of the Faun, Villa of the Mysteries, the brothel, Garden of Fugitives, and more. Enjoy acclaimed Napoli pizza for lunch. Then visit the Naples Archaeological Museum with one of the world's finest collections of Greco-Roman art and artifacts. The Farnese Collection includes celebrated bronze and marble statues, as well as ancient paintings and important artifacts from Pompeii and Herculaneum. Highlights include the marble statue called the Farnese Hercules and the exquisite mosaic of Alexander the Great confronting the Persian King Darius III, which measures 8 ft. 11 in. × 16 ft. 10 in. Return to our hotel, freshen up, and then gather for a sumptuous dinner at a luxurious private villa on the Bay of Naples. (B,L,D)

Monday, October 14: Herculaneum | Oplontis | Winery lunch | Amalfi

Discover Herculaneum, where excavations reveal the customs, habits, and art of an ancient holiday resort for wealthy Romans. Among the most important buildings are the theater, the basilica adorned with marble and paintings, the spa with gym, and the House of Argos. Next visit Villa Poppea (Oplontis), an ancient villa with superb wall paintings that was probably owned by Emperor Nero. For lunch we drive to Mastroberardino Winery, which is known for replanting the vineyards at Herculaneum and Pompeii. Afterward, continue driving to the celebrated seaside town of Amalfi, where we check-in to our hotel, freshen up, and gather for dinner. Overnight for three nights at the 4-star Hotel Marina Riviera. (B,L,D)

Paestum

Founded in the 7th century B.C., Paestum has three magnificent and massive Doric Greek temples. Also visit the onsite museum with artifacts and frescoes from nearby tombs such as the famous Tomb of the Diver. After lunch, return to our hotel. Enjoy the balance of the day at leisure in Amalfi. (B,L)

Wednesday, October 16: Capri & Villa Jovis | Farewell dinner

This morning take a ferry ride to the fabled island of Capri, the favorite place of Emperor Tiberius. Explore the largest and most opulent of Tiberius' twelve villas, Villa Jovis, a secluded spot of legendary debauchery. Completed in A.D. 27, the entire complex rises on many terraces atop Capri's second highest peak, commanding lovely vistas. Villa Jovis is an astounding achievement of ancient Roman architecture and engineering. After lunch, return to our hotel and relax before our farewell dinner. (B,L,D)
