CRUISING THE MEKONG RIVER

Vietnam & Cambodia
with seven nights aboard the 12-suite Mekong Princess

December 2-15, 2019

With JOYCE C. WHITE, Executive Director,
Institute for Southeast Asian Archaeology

Dear Traveler,

NEXT WINTER, explore the wonders of tropical Indochina on our luxurious tour of Vietnam, Cambodia, and the Mekong River. Begin with two days in Ho Chi Minh City (still known by many as Saigon), a busy and dynamic metropolis that exudes energy and buzzes with activity. Then embark on a seven-night Mekong River cruise aboard the beautiful Mekong Princess, an exclusive riverboat with only 12 suites, elegant French colonial appointments, an ultra-shallow draft that allows us to access the nooks and crannies of the river, and all the modern comforts.

As you cruise from Ho Chi Minh City to Siem Reap, visit magnificent Buddhist and Hindu temples, observe floating markets bursting with colorful produce, and delve into the everyday lives of those who call the Mekong River home. Enjoy an enriching series of presentations and discussions by accompanying AIA lecturer and host Joyce White, who has worked in Southeast Asian archaeology since the mid-1970s and currently directs a field-based archaeological research program that focuses on the history and prehistory of the Mekong Basin. Conclude with two glorious days to explore Angkor's world-famous Khmer temples, the largest religious monument in the world.

Don't miss this opportunity to cruise aboard a beautiful, luxurious new riverboat as you explore two remarkable Southeast Asian countries and the mighty river that connects them. If you would like to start your Southeast Asia experience a little earlier, we also offer an optional pre-tour extension to Hanoi and exquisitely beautiful Ha Long Bay.

We will be sharing this adventure with National Trust for Historic Preservation travelers. With a total guest capacity of only 22, the Mekong Princess will surely fill quickly, so I encourage you to reserve your suite today by contacting AIA Tours at 800-748-6262 or aia@studytours.org.

Sincerely,

R. Todd Nielsen
Director, AIA Tours

THE ARCHAEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE OF AMERICA & THE AIA TOURS PROGRAM

The Archaeological Institute of America (AIA) is the oldest and largest archaeological organization in North America. The AIA seeks to educate people of all ages about the significance of archaeological discovery. For more than a century the AIA has been dedicated to the encouragement and support of archaeological research and publication, and to the protection of the world's archaeological resources and cultural heritage. By traveling on an AIA Tour you directly support the AIA while personally gaining the benefit of the AIA's network of scholars and worldwide contacts.

Study Leader

Archaeological Institute of America lecturer and host JOYCE C. WHITE will share insights with you throughout this journey. Dr. White has worked in Southeast Asian archaeology since the mid-1970s and currently directs a field-based archaeological research program in Laos that focuses on the history and prehistory of the Mekong Basin. She is co-director of the Middle Mekong Archaeological Project (MMAP) and Director of the University of Pennsylvania Museum's Ban Chiang Project. Since 1987 Dr. White has been a researcher and associate curator at the Penn Museum, and she is now adjunct Professor of Anthropology at the University of Pennsylvania. In 2013 she founded the Institute for Southeast Asian Archaeology (ISEAA), where she is currently its Executive Director. Dr. White has been a lecturer on five previous tours to Laos, Vietnam, Cambodia, Thailand, and Myanmar, including this very AIA-sponsored program aboard the Mekong Princess in 2016 and 2018. During our trip, she will discuss the culture, history, and prehistory of the Mekong River Basin, the world's twelfth longest river, and the main artery for mainland Southeast Asia for communication, trade, and population movements for thousands of years. She will also discuss the ancient and historic trade networks that linked Southeast Asia to the rest of the Old World, and the origins of Southeast Asian civilizations, with a particular focus on the Khmer Empire. Her most popular lectures are about current archaeological research at Angkor, and about her experience as an expert witness for a US Justice Department case on smuggling of Asian antiquities.

(COVER) Explore the Royal Palace complex in Phnom Penh, including the Silver Pagoda. (THIS PAGE, MAIN IMAGE) Visit Ta Prohm, a World Heritage–designated temple at Angkor that has been left to merge with nature, wrapped in the embrace of enormous tree roots from the surrounding jungle. (BACK COVER) Marvel at the vibrancy of daily life on the waterways of the Mekong River, where colorful produce is sold in floating villages.

They are often compared to angels, or to the ancient Greek muses.
