with Egyptologist Stephen Harvey

plus an optional post-tour extension to Jordan, February 16-23, 2024 (8 days)

Archaeology-focused tours for the curious to the connoisseur

Archaeological Institute of America Lecturer and Host

Since 1993, Stephen Harvey (Ph.D., U. of PA) has been Director of the Ahmose and Tetisheri Project, which centers on excavation of the monumental complex of King

Ahmose at Abydos, under the aegis of the Pennsylvania-Yale-Institute of Fine Arts, NYU Expedition to Abydos. Steve's fieldwork in and around the pyramid complex of Ahmose (ca. 1550-1525 B.C.) has provided important new insight into temple architecture and decoration at the outset of Egypt's New Kingdom. He has been working on archaeological projects in Egypt (including at Giza and Memphis) since 1987, and has also worked on projects in the U.S., Syria, and Turkey. Steve has been consulted on and interviewed for a number of television documentaries for NOVA on PBS, the History Channel, National Geographic, and the Travel Channel (among others). In 2013-14 and 2008-09, he lectured on the Archaeological Institute of America's national circuit. Steve has also been a lecturer on many study tours to Egypt sponsored by major U.S. and UK institutions. Since 2002 he has accompanied 20 AIA tours of Egypt, plus AIA Tours land programs in Jordan and Sudan, and an AIA-sponsored cruise from Jordan to Cyprus via Egypt and Lebanon.

ARCHAEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE OF AMERICA TOURS

Dear traveler,

This itinerary is carefully crafted to provide discerning travelers with the finest Egypt tour available. Our 18-day program is the most in-depth exploration of ancient Egypt's greatest sites, combining all the best attributes of a small-group, all-inclusive, well-paced, luxury trip.

- Learn with a distinguished and engaging American scholar plus a wonderful local Egyptologist and an excellent tour manager. This trio has been receiving accolades for many years.
- Travel with a maximum of just 16 guests plus your trio of leaders.
- Enjoy the best accommodations, including 13 nights at luxurious, 5-star hotels in Giza, Cairo, Luxor, and Aswan; and a three-night Nile cruise aboard a comfortable, eight-cabin dahabiya (traditional Nile sail boat).
- Meet with excavators and conservators, including behind-the-scenes visits, when possible.
- Discover the preeminent sites of the pharaohs from Cairo to Luxor, Aswan, and Abu Simbel:
 - If it is open, spend two full days exploring the Grand Egyptian Museum that is scheduled to open in 2023.
 - See the amazing Giza pyramids and Sphinx as well as Saqqara's Step Pyramid of Djoser and recently discovered, closed-to-the-public, Tomb of Wah Ti.
 - Explore the astounding temple complex of Karnak as well as Luxor Temple, plus spectacular royal mortuary temples and tombs in the Valleys of the Kings and Queens, such as those of Seti I and Nefertari.
 - Visit the remarkable Temple of Hathor at Dendara as well as Abydos, one of the oldest and most important cities in ancient Egypt, where Steve Harvey, your AIA lecturer, has been working since 1993.
 - Cruise the Nile from Esna to Aswan aboard an eight-cabin sail boat, away from the convoys of large riverboats, so that we visit remarkable temples without the typical crowds. From the spacious top deck, observe timeless pastoral scenes of feluccas, farmers, herders, and village life.
 - Fly to Abu Simbel to visit the stunning and enormous rock-cut temples of Ramesses II and Nefertari.

An optional, eight-day, post-tour extension to Jordan is available.

This is the most inclusive and fascinating introduction to Egypt available. It is limited to just 16 guests, so I urge you to reserve your space today.

Sincerely,

Lauren Cummings
Education & Program Manager, AIA Tours

* Nile cruise aboard private, 8-cabin dahabiya sailing vessels

ITINERARY

(B)= Breakfast, (L)= Lunch, (R)= Reception, (D)= Dinner

Tuesday, January 30, 2024: Depart home

Wednesday, January 31: Arrive Cairo, Egypt | Private transfer to hotel in Giza

You will be met upon arrival at Cairo's airport and transferred to Giza's historic Mena House, a palatial hotel set amid forty acres of gardens, with magnificent views of the adjacent Great Pyramid of Khufu (Cheops). Gather for dinner at the hotel. Overnight at the 5-star Marriott Mena House hotel in Pyramid View rooms for five nights. (D)

Thursday, February 1: Giza Plateau | Welcome dinner

Spend the morning exploring the Giza Plateau, including the Great Pyramid of Khufu; Eastern Cemetery, with its vibrantly-decorated mastaba of Meresankh III; mortuary temple of Khufu; timeless Sphinx; and nearby Valley Temple of Khafra. After lunch at a nearby restaurant we return to our hotel. This evening we gather for a welcome reception and dinner with our three expert trip leaders: AIA lecturer/host, Egyptology guide, and tour manager. (B,L,R,D)

Friday, February 2: National Museum of Egyptian Civilization OR Grand Egyptian Museum

We will visit the National Museum of Egyptian Civilization (NMEC), which opened in 2017, housing materials from all periods of Egyptian archaeology, including the Gallery of Royal Mummies. Alternatively, if the Grand Egyptian Museum (GEM) is open, we will visit it instead to see Tutankhamun's funerary collection, colossal statues of Ramesses the Great, and more. (B,L,D)

Saturday, February 3: Saqqara | Ramses Wissa Wassef Art Centre

This morning we visit the Imhotep Museum on our way into the extraordinary necropolis at Saqqara, where we see the Step Pyramid of Djoser; the pyramid and causeway of Unas; the mastaba of the "two brothers," Nyankhkhnum and Khnumhotep; and (pending permission) the recently-discovered, closed-to-the-public, 5th-dynasty Tomb of Wah Ti. After an outdoor lunch at Saqqara Palm Club, we will stop briefly at the Ramses Wissa Wassef Art Centre, a series of vaulted and domed mud-brick structures, containing weaving workshops, showrooms, and a pottery and sculpture museum. We return to the Mena House hotel for time at leisure to relax and enjoy the pool. Gather for dinner at our hotel. (B,L,D)

Sunday, February 4: Egyptian Museum or Grand Egyptian Museum

We will spend a full day visiting the historic and renowned Egyptian Museum (formally known as the Museum of Egyptian Antiquities) to see treasures of the pharaohs, including magnificent artifacts from the royal tombs of Tanis. Alternatively, if the Grand Egyptian Museum (GEM) is open, we will see more of the GEM's collections not seen on Friday, February 2nd. (B,L,D)

"I genuinely appreciated the high level of organization and competence in all aspects of the trip."

- Ron, New York

Above, from top: Temple of Isis at Philae; When possible, we see ongoing excavations and conservation work such as cleaning glyphs in the Temple of Khonsu at Karnak; Passageway at Dendara; Mortuary Temple of Hatshepsut

Monday, February 5: Fly to Luxor | Luxor Museum

Transfer to the airport for our flight to Luxor. Upon arrival we check-in to our historic, luxury resort with a tropical garden located on the banks of the Nile. We stay in the original and more luxurious wing that has hosted royalty and celebrities for over a century. It is located in the city center, near Luxor Temple and the bazaar. After lunch enjoy a lecture by Dr. Harvey and visit the small, but excellent, Luxor Museum. Overnight at the 5-star Sofitel Winter Palace Luxor Hotel (Old Wing) for four nights. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, February 6: Karnak | Luxor Temple

A short drive through town brings us to Karnak, the world's largest temple complex (built over the course of two thousand years), where a generous amount of time is scheduled for exploring this astounding and immense archaeological site. Our visit will include Karnak's Open Air Museum, which has on display many newly reconstructed buildings. We return to our historic hotel on the east bank of the Nile and enjoy lunch and some time at leisure. Before dinner we visit the adjacent Luxor Temple, which is illuminated to striking effect. (B,L,D)

Wednesday, February 7: At leisure in Luxor | OR Full-day trip to Abydos & Dendara

Today is a full day at leisure to enjoy the amenities of our hotel, such as the lovely pool and gardens, and perhaps explore the town and/or shop at the bazaar independently.

Alternatively, you may join a long day trip to see two magnificent ancient sites, Abydos and Dendara. AIA lecturer Stephen Harvey has worked since 1993 at Abydos, one of the oldest and most important ancient cities in Egypt. See one of the oldest standing massive brick structures in the world, an early Temple of Osiris with hundreds of stelae, the spectacular Temple of Seti I with seven chapels with exquisite reliefs and where was discovered the "Abydos King List"—the long, invaluable list of pharaohs. After lunch we begin our return drive to Luxor, stopping en route at the Temple of Hathor at Dendara, which has recently been extensively restored, revealing its startlingly well-preserved painted astronomical ceiling and reliefs. Dinner is at our hotel this evening. (B,L,D)

Thursday, February 8: Valley of the Kings | Deir el Bahari

In the Valley of the Kings, our morning exploration includes several royal tombs, including the legendary Tomb of Tutankhamen and the spectacular Tomb of Seti I. Continue on to the stunning mortuary temple of Hatshepsut at Deir el Bahari, including the Third Terrace Sanctuary of Amun with its beautifully preserved painted decoration and two newly opened sanctuaries featuring representations of Senenmut, Hatshepsut's architect. Return to our hotel and then gather for dinner. (B,L,D)

Friday, February 9: Valley of the Queens | Deir el Medina | Esna | Embarkation

Spend the morning in the Valley of the Queens, where we gain access to the touching Tomb of Khaemwaset, a young son of Ramesses III; and the Tomb of Nefertari, often called the most beautiful tomb in Egypt. Continue on to Deir el Medina, the ancient village of the workers who built the pharaohs' tombs, where we visit the beautifully preserved and decorated tombs of Sennedjem and Inherkhau. Our last visit on the west bank is the tomb of Ramose—the highest official (vizier) to serve the pharaohs Amenhotep III and Akhenaten.

Drive to Esna and visit the recently restored temple of Khnum, with its wonderful astronomical ceiling with previously unknown names of ancient Egyptian constellations. Afterward, we embark our sailing vessel, a traditional Nile sail boat called a dahabiya, which will be our home-away-from-home for the next three nights. Our group will sail aboard two of these smaller-sized vessels that will travel together and avoid the crowds cruising in a convoy of large Nile riverboats. We enjoy a late lunch as we sail up the Nile. The afternoon is at leisure until we gather for dinner onboard. Overnight aboard an eight-cabin dahabiya for three nights. (B,L,D)

Abydos

Saturday, February 10: El Kab | Edfu | Sailing the Nile

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast onboard before visiting El Kab, one of the oldest settlements of Upper Egypt and now a famous necropolis with remarkable tombs of nobles and army generals. Continue to the city of Edfu for a tour of the Ptolemaic Temple of Horus, Egypt's most complete and best-preserved temple. Return to our dahabiyas and relax as we sail up the Nile. This evening, enjoy an onboard dinner of Egyptian specialties presented with a performance of local music and dancing. (B,L,D)

Sunday, February 11: Gebel el-Silsila | Kom Ombo | Sailing the Nile

Set out this morning to visit Gebel el-Silsila, located at the narrowest point along the entire length of the Nile. It was the location of a major New Kingdom sandstone quarry and workshop, where artifacts and tombs have been discovered. Sail onward to the twin Temples of Sobek and Horus at Kom Ombo, including a visit to the magnificent (though small), new Crocodile Museum. Continue cruising to Aswan, and partake in a final gala dinner onboard. (B,L,D)

Monday, February 12: Aswan: Disembarkation, Philae, Nubia Museum

Disembark this morning at Aswan and visit an ancient granite quarry with an unfinished obelisk. Set out on a short boat ride to the island of Philae for a visit of its Temple of Isis, which has been called Egypt's most beautiful temple. After lunch we check-in to our recently renovated hotel on the Nile and then visit Aswan's elegant Nubia Museum, which exhibits many of the more than 3,000 artifacts recovered during the excavations of Nubian sites that were threatened by the construction of the High Dam. We return to the hotel and gather for dinner. Overnight in the Nile wing of the 5-star Sofitel Legend Old Cataract Aswan hotel for three nights. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, February 13: Elephantine Island | Aswan

Embark feluccas (small, traditional sailing vessels) to visit the archaeological site on Elephantine Island. Then we take a motor boat ride through the Nile cataract for lunch at a Nubian restaurant. This afternoon, enjoy a walk through Aswan's suq, the most charming and traditional of the markets in Egypt, where one can find interesting Nubian ethnographic items such as baskets, pottery, and scarves that are unique to the Aswan area. We return to the hotel and gather for dinner. (B,L,D)

Wednesday, February 14: At leisure in Aswan | Farewell dinner

Today is at leisure, to relax at our luxurious hotel overlooking the famous cataracts of Aswan. Enjoy a final lecture with generous time for Q&A with both Stephen Harvey and our local Egyptology guide. This evening we gather for a farewell reception and dinner at our hotel hosted by our trio of leaders. (B,L,R,D)

Thursday, February 15: Fly to Abu Simbel | Fly to Cairo

Transfer to the airport early this morning for a short flight to Abu Simbel, where we visit the two world famous and fantastic rock-cut temples of Ramesses II (built to honor himself and his queen, Nefertari). Moved when the Aswan High Dam was built, they are a marvel of ancient and modern engineering. Transfer to the airport for a short flight to Aswan and our connecting flight to Cairo, where we check-in to our luxurious airport hotel featuring fully soundproofed rooms. Dinner is at our hotel. Overnight at the 5-star Le Méridien Cairo Airport hotel. (B,L,D)

Friday, February 16: Fly home OR continue on to the extension

Check out this morning and enter the airport (our hotel has direct access to Terminal 3 via footbridge, as well as a free shuttle to Terminal 2) to catch flights homeward or for your flight to Amman, Jordan, for the optional, post-tour extension. (B)

"Our 'Absolute Egypt' tour was outstanding! The tour team...brought ancient Egypt to life. Their knowledge, enthusiasm, hard work and fun spirit brought the joy of learning each day of the trip."

JORDAN

February 16-23, 2024 (8 days) with Egyptologist Stephen Harvey

The Dead Sea

Treasury at Petra

- # = Overnight stays
- = Itinerary stops
- ✈ = Flights

Jordan is home to great cultural wonders, warm and hospitable people, and stunning desert and mountain landscapes. You will explore superb ancient and early Christian sites, as well as the modern Arab city of Amman. Enjoy 5-star accommodations and meals, plus travel and learn with AIA lecturer/host Stephen Harvey, a local guide, and a tour manager, making this an exceptional opportunity to witness some of Jordan's greatest highlights.

ITINERARY

(B)= Breakfast, (L)= Lunch, (D)= Dinner

Friday, February 16, 2024: Depart Cairo on group flight to Amman, Jordan | Amman: Jordan Museum, walking tour, American Center of Research (ACOR)

Upon arrival in Amman, Jordan, we explore the Jordan Museum, which houses a collection of artifacts from all periods and sites throughout the country. Then we set out on a walking tour of the city, starting at the Citadel, visiting the 8th-century Omayyad Palace; the Temple of Hercules, which was dedicated to the Roman Emperor Marcus Aurelius in the 2nd century; a small Byzantine church; and the old Roman city's restored odeon and its theater, which seated 6,000 people. After lunch we visit ACOR, a private, not-for-profit academic institution and consortium, research library, and hostel. Gather this evening for dinner at our hotel. Overnight at the 5-star InterContinental Jordan Hotel for three nights. (B,L,D)

Saturday, February 17: Qasr al-Kharanah | Qasr Amra | Qasr al-Azraq | Amman

Today's full-day tour takes us east of Amman, along the ancient paved road that linked Baghdad with Amman and Damascus, to explore several spectacular Omayyad castle/palaces: Qasr al-Kharanah, the most complete of the Omayyad castles; Qasr Amra, a UNESCO World Heritage Site whose ceilings and walls are covered with vividly-painted frescoes; and Qasr al-Azraq, crafted of the area's black basalt and the winter shelter of T.E. Lawrence (Lawrence of Arabia) during the early 20th-century Arab Revolt against the Turks. Return to our hotel in Amman in the late afternoon and then gather for dinner. (B,L,D)

Sunday, February 18: Umm Qais | Jerash | Amman

Drive north to Umm Qais, the most dramatically-located ancient city in Jordan, perched on a high plain overlooking the Jordan Valley and the Sea of Galilee. Explore its fascinating ruins, including the stunning black basalt theater, colonnaded main street, and city gate; as well as its charming archaeological museum in a restored, late Ottoman house. Continue on to the impressive Roman city of Jerash. Stroll along the city's colonnaded streets and through ancient marketplaces, and visit imposing theaters sitting beside Roman, Christian, and Muslim houses of worship. Late in the afternoon we return to our hotel in Amman and then gather for dinner. (B,L,D)

Monday, February 19: Madaba | Mt. Nebo | Umm ar-Rasas | Petra

After breakfast we depart for Madaba, which contains the most impressive work of art to survive from the mid-6th century: a mosaic map of the ancient Holy Land, the oldest one in existence, located in St. George's Greek Orthodox Church. Visit the site's ruins of the 6th-century basilica, the Chapel of the Virgin Mary, and the monastery; as well as the Church of Saints Lot and Procopius, Martyrs, which contains a masterpiece of the Madaba School of mosaics. Continue on to Mt. Nebo, from where we will have a clear view of the surrounding terrain, including the mountains of Moab, Jerusalem, and Judea. After lunch we set out for Petra, stopping along the way to visit the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Umm ar-Rasas, a walled site with several well-preserved churches and mosaics. Its Church of St. Stephen features a detailed mosaic floor depicting major cities of the region in ancient times, presented under a protective shelter with suspended pathways. Arrive in Petra, check-in to our hotel, and then gather for dinner. Overnight at the 5-star Mövenpick Resort Petra for two nights. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, February 20: Petra

Early this morning we will walk about a mile through the siq (gorge) that takes us into (and, later, out of) the splendid Nabataean capital city of Petra, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Our first view of the rose-red city of Petra, carved almost 2,500 years ago, is the dazzling Al-Khasneh Farun (Treasury). From there we walk along the Streets of Façades and view the magnificent tombs, theater, markets, Petra Church (with its glorious mosaics), and Great Temple. Gather this evening for dinner at the hotel. (B,L,D)

Wednesday, February 21: Little Petra | Beidah | Wadi Rum Jeep excursion | Aqaba

Take a short drive to Petra's northern suburb, Siq al-Barid (often called "Little Petra"), a Nabataean site densely populated with rock-cut houses, temples, and stairs. At nearby Beidah, we walk through an 8,000-year-old, excavated, Neolithic village. Continue on to the Wadi Rum Protected Area, which is a mixed natural and cultural UNESCO World Heritage Site. Its desert landscape varies from narrow gorges to natural arches and towering cliffs, and 12,000 years of human occupation are evidenced by petroglyphs and archaeological ruins. Jeeps will take us on a two-hour tour through the landscape, including a lunch of simple, traditional food at a local camp. Late in the afternoon we continue our drive to Aqaba, Jordan's only port on the Red Sea, where we check-in to our hotel and gather for dinner. Overnight at the 5-star Mövenpick Resort Aqaba. (B,L,D)

Thursday, February 22: The Lowest Place on Earth—the Dead Sea

This morning we drive north, along the Wadi Araba road to our luxurious hotel set on the northern shores of the Dead Sea, at the lowest point on Earth. The balance of the afternoon is at leisure to enjoy this oasis of tranquility—the Dead Sea beach, pools, and award-winning spa. Overnight at the 5-star Mövenpick Resort Dead Sea. (B,L,D)

Friday, February 23: Fly home

Check out this morning and transfer to Amman's Queen Alia International Airport (AMM) to catch flights homeward. (B)

"I enjoyed everything. Best tour I have ever taken. Accommodations and food were all excellent. The scheduling was excellent and worked perfect for me. I like to be kept busy and see as much as possible, which we did. I have no criticism."

Information will be provided with confirmation of receipt of your deposit.*

Note: Prices are based on tariffs and exchange rates in effect at the time of publication and are subject to change prior to departure. Substantial changes in tariffs, exchange rates, the price of fuel, services, and labor may increase the cost of arrangements significantly, and we reserve the right to alter our prices.

Prices, itinerary, accommodations, and leader are subject to change. Prices quoted are based on group participation and no refunds will be made for any part of the program in which you choose not to participate. It is understood that refunds cannot be made to participants who do not complete the tour for whatever reason.

The AIA & the AIA Tours Program

The Archaeological Institute of America (AIA) is the oldest and largest archaeological organization in North America. The AIA seeks to educate people of all ages about the significance of archaeological discovery. For more than a century the AIA has been dedicated to the encouragement and support of archaeological research and publication, and to the protection of the world's archaeological resources and cultural heritage. By traveling on an AIA Tour you directly support the AIA while personally gaining the benefit of the AIA's network of scholars and worldwide contacts.

What to Expect

MODERATE: Must be able to walk one to three miles per day on mostly flat, but often uneven, terrain.

You must be able to make long walks, unassisted, over uneven terrain and up and down steps. Participants who are not able to walk or stand unassisted for extended periods are kindly advised not to join this tour. All participants are expected to be physically active and not be an impediment to others on excursions, to enjoy traveling as part of a group, and to be ready to experience cultural differences. Some sites require strenuous and/or brisk walking or climbing, sometimes with difficult footing. All participants will be required to follow safety/sanitization protocols set forth by Sponsors/Operator, local staff, and host country laws. If the tour manager decides that a participant cannot visit a site safely or in a timely manner, their judgment will be final. Where possible, an alternate activity may be suggested; additional costs may apply. If you have any questions about your ability to participate, we suggest that you visit your personal physician with this brochure in hand and discuss whether or not this program is appropriate for you. Hotels have been chosen for their excellent locations and generous comfort. At the time of year that we visit Egypt the weather is sunny and dry. Average daytime temperatures may range from the mid-60s to mid-70s F, and nighttime temperatures may dip into the high 40s F. Complete pre-departure details will be sent to participants.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS, RELEASE OF LIABILITY, ASSUMPTION OF RISK, AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION AGREEMENT

RESPONSIBILITY: The Archaeological Institute of America and its agent, Eos Study Tours, and its and their employees, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors or trustees, successors, and assigns (hereinafter "Sponsors"), and the tour operator and/or its agents (collectively "Sponsors/Operator") do not own or operate any entity which is to or does provide goods or services for your trip including, for example, lodging facilities; airline, vessel, or other transportation companies; guides or guide services; local ground operators; providers or organizers of optional excursions; food service or entertainment providers; etc. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, Sponsors/Operator are not liable for any negligent or willful act or failure to act of any such person or of any other third party. In addition and without limitation, Sponsors/Operator are not responsible for any injury, loss, death, inconvenience, delay, or damage to person or property in connection with the provision of any goods or services whether resulting from, but not limited to, acts of force majeure; acts of God; acts of government; acts of war or civil unrest, insurrection, or revolt; bites from or attacks by animals, insects, or pests; strikes or other labor activities; criminal or terrorist activities of any kind or the threat thereof; sickness, illness, epidemics, pandemics, or the threat thereof; the lack of availability of or access to medical attention or the quality thereof; overbooking or downgrading of accommodations; mechanical or other failure of airplanes, vessels, or other means of transportation; or for any failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart timely or safely. In addition, Sponsors/Operator are not liable for their own negligence, and participant assumes all risk thereof. CHANGES IN ITINERARY OR FEATURES: Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to change the itinerary or trip features at any time and for any reason, with or without notice, and Sponsors/Operator shall not be liable for any loss of any kind as a result of any such changes. Sponsors/Operator are not required to cancel any trip for any reason including, without limitation, United States Department of State, World Health Organization, or other Warnings or Advisories of any kind. Sponsors/Operator are not responsible for penalties assessed by air carriers resulting from operational and/or itinerary changes, even if Sponsors/Operator make the flight arrangements or cancel the trip. Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to substitute hotels or attractions of a similar category for those listed in this brochure. LUGGAGE: Luggage allowance policies are set by the airlines and may change without prior notice. PHYSICAL ACCESSIBILITY: All programs require physical independence and mobility. Any physical or mental condition that may require special medical attention or physical assistance must be reported in writing when you make your reservation. Participants must be able to embark or disembark transportation vehicles, stand for extended periods, climb stairs, and step over raised thresholds all without assistance. All participants will be required to follow safety/sanitization protocols set forth by Sponsors/Operator, local staff, and host country laws, and any participant who refuses to follow protocols may be asked to leave the program with no refunds provided. REFUNDS: Prices quoted are based on group participation. No refunds will be made for any part of the program in which a participant chooses not to participate. Refunds cannot be made to participants who do not complete the tour for any reason, nor to participants whose entry into any country or aboard any transportation vehicle, including airplanes and cruise ships, is delayed or denied. TOUR CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS: Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to cancel this tour prior to departure, in which case payment will be refunded without further obligation on our part unless trip cancellation, itinerary changes, and/or delays are mandated by causes beyond our control, in which case the participant shall have the option of accepting in lieu of the original tour such rescheduled tour or other substituted tour(s) as may be offered by Sponsors/Operator, or else receiving a refund of as much of such advance tour expenditures as Sponsors/Operator are able to recover on the participant's behalf from carriers, third-party tour vendors, etc. Sponsors/Operator, however, shall not have any obligation or liability to the participant beyond the foregoing. TRIP INSURANCE: Sponsors/Operator strongly recommend that participants purchase trip cancellation insurance. In the event that you must cancel your participation, trip cancellation insurance may be the only source of reimbursement. Trip cancellation insurance is available through Sponsors/Operator and others and covers certain expenses in conjunction with cancellation due to illness or accident and damaged or lost luggage. Sponsors/Operator will send participants an application upon receipt of their reservation. PRICES: Prices quoted are based on fares in effect at the time of publication and are subject to changes at any time. On all programs, even after full payment, Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to increase the tour price in the event of cost increases due to changes in supplier costs, tax increases, currency fluctuations, or fuel and energy surcharges, and all such increases are to be paid to Sponsors/Operator upon notice to the participant. FORUM AND METHODOLOGY FOR DISPUTE RESOLUTION: Any dispute or claim which refers or relates to this contract, any literature related to the trip, or the trip itself shall be litigated solely and exclusively in and for courts in Keene, New Hampshire, subject to substantive and procedural New Hampshire law, and for this limited purpose, the parties agree to exclusive venue and personal jurisdiction therein. At the participant's option, however, in lieu of litigation, Sponsors/Operator will agree to binding arbitration in Keene, New Hampshire, subject to substantive, but not procedural, New Hampshire law, pursuant to the then existing commercial rules of the American Arbitration Association. In any such arbitration, the arbitrator, and not any federal, state, or local court or agency, shall have exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the interpretation, applicability, enforceability, conscionability, or formation of this contract, including but not limited to any claim that all or any part of this contract is void or voidable. U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT & CENTERS FOR DISEASE CONTROL: Both the Centers for Disease Control and U.S. State Department publish and update important country-specific information for travelers. We strongly recommend that you review them. They can presently be found at: <https://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/notices> and <https://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/alertswarnings.html>. ASSUMPTION OF RISK: Participants agree to fully accept all known and unknown risks, including the potential risk of exposure to respiratory illnesses or other illnesses, viruses, diseases, or conditions. Participants understand and agree to hold Sponsors/Operator, their officers, vendors and suppliers harmless and not liable for any real or perceived symptoms of any disease, virus, illness, or condition, nor for exacerbating any existing symptoms of any illness, virus, disease or condition, quarantine requirements, disability, and other short-term and long-term health effects, including death. MISCELLANEOUS: Participants should not purchase airline tickets prior to receiving their final payment invoice so as to avoid airline cancellation penalties if a tour is canceled or otherwise modified subsequent to the participant's purchase of those tickets. Baggage and personal effects are at all times the sole responsibility of the participant. If, due to weather, flight schedules, or other uncontrollable factors, you are required to spend (an) additional night(s), you will be responsible for your own hotel, transfers, and meal costs. Baggage is entirely at owner's risk. Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to decline to accept or retain any participant at any time. The right is reserved to decline to accept as a participant, or remove from a trip, without refund, any person it judges to be incapable of meeting the rigors and requirements of participating in the activities, or who is abusive to other trip participants, leaders, or third parties, or who is determined to detract from the enjoyment of the trip by others. Specific room assignments are within the sole discretion of the hotel. APPEARING IN PHOTOS: Photos from AIA Tours' trips may be posted on photo-sharing web sites or on social networking sites. Your likeness may appear in some photos or videos, posted either by other travelers or tour lecturers/guides, and the circulation of the materials could be worldwide. Trip photos may also be selected to appear in future AIA Tours promotions; no compensation is available for appearing in a trip photo used for promotional purposes. ACCEPTANCE OF CONTRACT: By forwarding of deposit, the participant certifies that he/she agrees with these terms and conditions, and accepts the terms contained in these Terms and Conditions, Release of Liability, Assumption of Risk and Dispute Resolution Agreement. The participant affirms that he/she has not received or relied upon any oral representation of Sponsors/Operator as a basis for executing this Release.
