ARCHAEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE OF AMERICA TOURS

Uxmal

January 30-February 7, 2021
(9 days | 12 guests) with Mayanist Ben Thomas

Archaeology-focused tours for the curious to the connoisseur.

Archaeological Institute of America Lecturer & Host

Ben Thomas is the Director of Programs for the Archaeological Institute of America and an Assistant Professor in Liberal Arts at Berklee College of Music. He was introduced to archaeology and anthropology at Brandeis University (B.A.) and received his graduate degrees in archaeology from Boston University (M.A. and Ph.D.) after several years of fieldwork in the jungles and swamps of Belize and Guatemala. Ben's specialty is Maya archaeology with specific interests in Ancient Maya settlements and architecture. He has travelled extensively throughout Mexico, Guatemala, and Belize. As the Director of Programs for the AIA, Ben is responsible for the Institute's outreach and education activities including International Archaeology Day, ArchaeoCon, the national lecture program, the site preservation program, all grants and fellowships, and the 110 local societies. At Berklee, where he has been teaching for 15 years, he introduces students to Mesoamerican art and archaeology and some of the great archaeological discoveries that have been made in the last 300 years. Ben led this very AIA tour of Yucatan to excellent reviews in 2017, and looks forward to returning with a new group of AIA guests in 2021.

*"Everything was a highlight!
Ben [Thomas] and our local guide were great - both were extremely knowledgeable and able to describe things very clearly."*

Saturday, January 30, 2021: Depart the U.S. on flights to Merida, Mexico

Arrive at Merida International Airport (MID) and transfer to our hotel. Overnight at the 4-star InterContinental Presidente Merida for two nights.

Sunday, January 31: Merida: City tour, The Great Museum of the Maya World | PM at leisure | Welcome dinner

This morning we will take a city tour and then visit Merida's anthropology museum, The Great Museum of the Maya World, housing artifacts from many of the sites we shall visit. After lunch and an introductory lecture, the afternoon is at leisure to shop for handicrafts, visit the marketplace, or relax. Gather tonight for a welcome dinner. (B,L,D)

Monday, February 1: Ek Balam | Chichén Itzá | PM at leisure

Depart Merida for Ek Balam, a small site with spectacular, mythological creatures sculpted in the full round and then hidden 1,200 years ago by the Maya themselves, only to be re-discovered recently by archaeologists. There will be an opportunity to visit the cenote and take a swim. Caves and cenotes (sinkholes with groundwater) were (and are) very important openings to the Maya underworld, the abode of the rain gods and places of worship. After lunch, drive to Chichén Itzá and check-in to our hotel for some time at leisure. Overnight at the 3-star Hotel Villas Arqueologicas Chichén Itzá for two nights. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, February 2: Chichén Itzá | PM at leisure

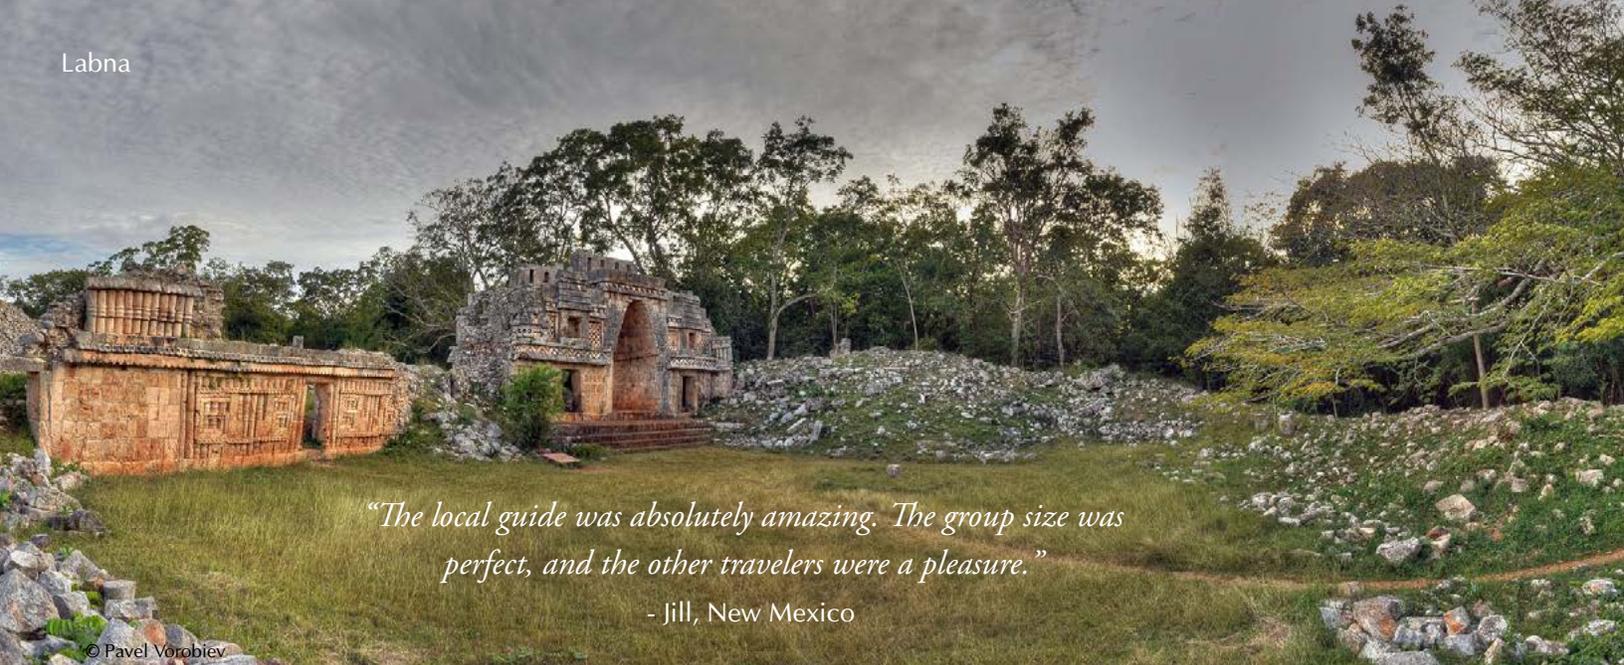

A short walk to the site of Chichén Itzá from our hotel takes us back 1,000 years as we gaze at spectacular 9th-century temples and pyramids. We will see all the site's highlights, including the Sacred Well, Ballcourt, Castillo, Observatory, High Priest's Grave, and Nunnery. After lunch you may choose to join us to visit out-of-the-way parts of the site, or enjoy time on your own to visit the bookstores and gift shops or spend a relaxing afternoon on the hotel grounds. (B,L,D)

Wednesday, February 3: Izamal Convent | Kinich Kakmo | Uxmal

Drive to Uxmal, stopping along the way for lunch and to visit Izamal and its Convent. In Izamal, the Spanish conquistadors built their church atop a Maya pyramid. This was the home of the infamous Diego de Landa, who burned all the Maya books that he could gather. Climb to the top of Kinich Kakmo, the largest pyramid (in volume) in all Maya land. Continue on to Uxmal and check-in to our hotel. Overnight at the 5-star Hacienda Uxmal for three nights. (B,L,D)

Thursday, February 4: Uxmal

Uxmal is the capital of the Puuc region, on the western side of the Peninsula—a unique sub-area within the greater Maya zone with its own brand of architecture and mosaic-stone decoration. Uxmal's "Governor's Palace" was one of Frank Lloyd Wright's favorite buildings. Spend a full day exploring the site, and there will be an optional light and sound show after dark. (B,L,D)

“The local guide was absolutely amazing. The group size was perfect, and the other travelers were a pleasure.”

- Jill, New Mexico

Friday, February 5: Labna | Kaxil Kiuic | Uxmal

We spend today in the Puuc region, visiting two sites that are remote and little-visited: Labna, with its famous arch; and Kaxil Kiuic, which was a Maya city of 5,000-8,000 people whose ruins comprise the oldest known settlement in the region. The Puuc area was first settled by the Maya in approximately 500 B.C. and became home to a series of impressive city-states. The Labna-Kiuic Regional Archaeological Project is a joint Mexican-U.S. research program being carried out in the Puuc region under the co-direction of Millsaps College, Mexico’s National Institute of Archaeology and History, and Davidson College. In 2013, the AIA bestowed its Best Practices in Site Preservation Award upon project co-director George Bey for his work at Kaxil Kiuic. Return to our hotel in Uxmal for a relaxing evening and dinner. (B,L,D)

Saturday, February 6: Dzibilchaltun | Progreso | Merida | PM at leisure | Farewell dinner

Depart Uxmal for a visit to Dzibilchaltun, a 2,000-year-old site with a famous astronomical alignment. Highlights include the Temple of the Seven Dolls and a cenote. Enjoy a seafood lunch on the beach in the port city of Progreso, with the sea breeze blowing through the open-air restaurant. Return to Merida, where we will have some free time to explore independently, do some last-minute shopping, or relax before our farewell dinner. Overnight at the 4-star InterContinental Presidente Merida. (B,L,D)

Sunday, February 7: Fly home

Transfer to Merida International Airport (MID) for flights home. (B)

What to Expect

You must be able to make long walks, unassisted, over uneven terrain and up and down steps that may be steep and without handrails. Participants who are not able to walk or stand unassisted for extended periods are kindly advised not to join this tour. All participants are expected to be physically active and not be an impediment to others on excursions, to enjoy traveling as part of a group, and to be ready to experience cultural differences. Some sites require strenuous and/or brisk walking or climbing, sometimes with difficult footing. If the tour manager decides that a participant cannot visit a site safely or in a timely manner, their judgment will be final. Where possible, an alternate activity may be suggested; additional costs may apply. If you have any questions about your ability to participate, we suggest that you visit your personal physician with this brochure in hand and discuss whether or not this program is appropriate for you. Hotels have been chosen for their excellent locations and generous comfort. At the time of year that we visit this region the weather is generally sunny and dry, with temperatures in the mid- to high 80s during the day and in the mid-60s at night. There is always a chance of light to moderate rain showers. Complete pre-departure details and what to pack will be sent to participants.

They can presently be found at: <https://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/notices> and <https://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/alertswarnings.html>. MISCELLANEOUS: Participants should not purchase airline tickets prior to receiving their final payment invoice so as to avoid airline cancellation penalties if a tour is canceled or otherwise modified subsequent to the participant's purchase of those tickets. Baggage and personal effects are at all times the sole responsibility of the participant. If, due to weather, flight schedules, or other uncontrollable factors, you are required to spend (an) additional night(s), you will be responsible for your own hotel, transfers, and meal costs.
