Archaeological Institute of America Lecturer and Host

Gerald Schaus (PhD, University of Pennsylvania) is Professor Emeritus, Archaeology and Classical Studies, Wilfrid Laurier University (Waterloo, Ontario) and Past President of the Canadian Institute in Greece. He is a Classical archaeologist specializing in Greek ceramics, art, and iconography of the Archaic period. Gerry's excavation experience over the past 45 years includes sites in Italy, Greece, Libya, and Romania, dating from the Neolithic to Byzantine periods. He is currently Director of Publications for the site of Stymphalos in southern Greece, where he excavated with Prof. Hector Williams (University of British Columbia) from 1995 to 2001. Gerry has published books on Greek pottery and ancient sports, with another monograph in the works on the impressive finds of Laconian and Chian pottery from Miletus in modern Turkey. His work on the late Classical/early Hellenistic sanctuary at Stymphalos appeared in 2014 as Stymphalos: The Acropolis Sanctuary (Volume 1). Gerry's research and excavation have taken him to Italy on many occasions, and lecture duties have included four recent tours of Sicily and southern Italy to add to his experience on tours of Libya, Algeria, and Greece since 2005.

Wednesday, September 23: Palermo: Royal Palace of Palermo & Cappella Palatina, Archaeological Museum | Welcome dinner

Set out on foot for a guided tour of the city of Palermo, a UNESCO World Heritage site since 2015 (together with the Cathedral Churches of Cefalù and Monreale; we will visit the latter tomorrow). Stroll through the Royal Palace of Palermo (Palazzo dei Normanni) and its spectacular, mosaic-filled chapel (Cappella Palatina). After an independent lunch in one of Palermo's many trattorias, we re-group to spend the afternoon exploring the Regional Archaeological Museum Antonio Salinas, hosting one of the largest Italian collections of artifacts from Sicily ranging from prehistory to the Middle Ages. This evening we gather for a welcome reception and dinner at a local restaurant. (B,R,D)

Thursday, September 24: Monreale | Winery lunch | Segesta | Erice | Marsala

This morning we drive to nearby Monreale to visit its famous cathedral, one of the world's greatest extant examples of Norman architecture. Wander through Moorish-style arcades and examine its exquisite, gold mosaics illustrating biblical tales. After lunch at a local winery, visit Segesta's well-preserved 5th-century B.C. Doric Greek temple and 3rd-century B.C. Greek theater, scenically set on Mount Barbaro. Continue to Erice, whose walled, medieval town is perched on a mountain with a striking view over the port of Trapani and sea. After dinner at a local restaurant we take the cable car down to Trapani and then drive to Marsala, where we check-in to our hotel. Overnight at the 5-star Grand Hotel Palace for two nights. (B,L,D)

Friday, September 25: Island of Mozia | Marsala: Archaeological Museum

Board a private boat and set out for the Stagnone Nature Reserve, home to a mini archipelago the centerpiece of which is the small Island of Mozia (ancient Motya). Originally settled by the Phoenicians in the 8th century B.C, it was sacked by Syracuse in the 4th century B.C. Take a leisurely walking tour of the island to see some of the archaeological remains and also visit the Whitaker Museum, which houses a unique collection of Phoenician artifacts and Greek vases found on the island. to Marsala for lunch, and then explore Marsala's Regional Archaeological Museum Baglio Anselmi, which houses artifacts from Motya and ancient Lilybaeum (modern Marsala), including the wreck of a 3rd-century B.C. Punic warship that was found near Marsala in 1969. Dinner is on your own this evening. (B,L)

Saturday, September 26: Selinunte | Agrigento

Depart Marsala this morning for Selinunte (ancient Selinos), perched on a cliff top overlooking the sea. We stop just outside of Selinunte to visit the ancient stone quarries, and then visit Selinunte itself. This was the westernmost Greek colony, established in the 7th century B.C., and today its vast ruins comprise temples, fortifications, and houses. After a casual seaside lunch we drive to Agrigento, founded as a Greek colony in the 6th century B.C., and settle in to our hotel overlooking the ancient Valley of the Temples. Gather for dinner this evening. Overnight at the 5-star Hotel Villa Athena for two nights. (B,L,D)

Sunday, September 27: Agrigento: Archaeological Museum, Valley of the Temples

Spend this morning exploring the Regional Archaeological Museum of Agrigento, which displays over 5,500 artifacts from the prehistoric through the Greco-Roman periods. Particularly noteworthy are the kouros (Archaic Greek statue) known as the "Epebe of Agrigento," and the giant Telamon (load-bearing statue) from the Temple of Olympian Zeus. After an independent lunch we explore the striking Valley of the Temples, a UNESCO World Heritage site, with very well-preserved Doric Greek temples to Concordia, Hera, Herakles, and more. Return to our hotel and gather for dinner this evening. (B,D)

Monday, September 28: Morgantina | Archaeological Museum of Aidone | Piazza Armerina | Syracuse

Venture into the heart of Sicily and explore the archaeological site of Morgantina. Then visit the nearby Archaeological Museum of Aidone, in a former Capuchin monastery, which houses artifacts from Morgantina including the beautiful, 5th-century B.C. "Venus of Morgantina" statue. After an independent lunch in the charming village of Aidone, drive to the nearby UNESCO World Heritage site of the Villa Romana del Casale, near the town of Piazza Armerina. The villa's exquisite mosaics—some of the best preserved in the Roman world—were buried in mud for centuries until they were rediscovered in the late 19th century. Continue on to Syracuse, a city that once rivaled ancient Athens in terms of culture and economic strength, where we check-in to our hotel and gather for dinner. Time-permitting, en route to Syracuse we will stop just outside the city at the impressive Euryalus Fortress (also known as Castello Eurialo), a 3rd/4th century B.C. defensive structure overlooking the city that was at least partly designed by the famous Greek engineer/mathematician Archimedes. Overnight at the 4-star Hotel One Siracusa for three nights. (B,D)

Temple of Apollo, which served as a church, mosque, and military barracks at various points throughout its history. Meet a local artisan who makes by hand pupi (marionettes), and learn about opera dei pupi, a theatrical marionette representation of Frankish romantic poems that is one of Sicily’s characteristic cultural traditions. Lunch and the balance of the day are at leisure to relax or pursue individual interests. (B)

Wednesday, September 30: Syracuse: Neapolis Archaeological Park, Archaeological Museum | PM at leisure | Farewell dinner

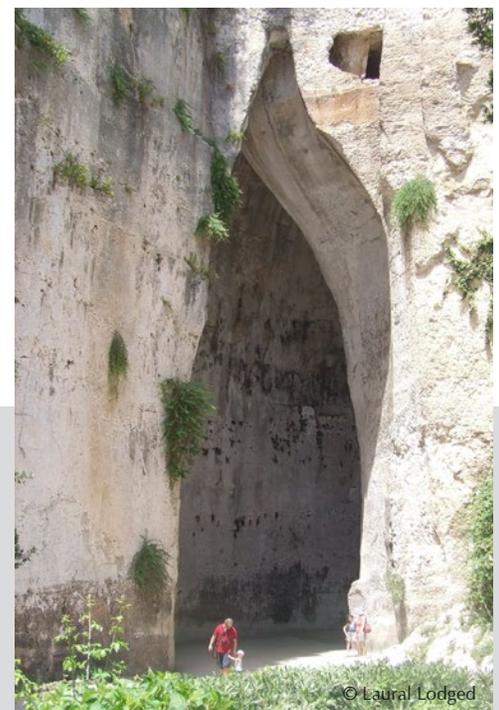

Spend the morning exploring the Parco Archeologico della Neapolis (Neapolis Archaeological Park), which includes the well-preserved, 5th-century B.C. Greek theater, with a 16,000-person capacity; and the Orecchio di Dionisio (Ear of Dionysius), a limestone cave that was named after its similarity in shape to the human ear (not to mention the impressive acoustic effects of the cave) and the tyrant Dionysius, who kept prisoners in the adjacent quarry. End the morning with a visit to the modern Paolo Orsi Regional Archaeological Museum, with one of Sicily’s largest and most interesting archaeological collections, documenting the island from prehistory to the late Roman period.

Enjoy lunch on your own and the afternoon at leisure to relax, pack, or perhaps do some last-minute shopping. We gather this evening for a festive farewell dinner overlooking the Mediterranean. (B,D)

Thursday, October 1: Fly home OR Continue on the optional Malta extension

Travelers who are not continuing on the optional extension to Malta will be transferred privately this morning to Catania-Fontanarossa Airport (CTA) for their flights homeward. (B)

OPTIONAL, POST-TOUR EXTENSION

Malta

October 1-4, 2020 (4 days) with archaeologist Gerry Schaus

Thursday, October 1, 2020: Syracuse, Sicily | Ferry to Valletta, Malta | Mdina | Haġar Qim & Mnajdra Temples | San Ġiljan

This morning we depart Syracuse for Pozzallo, where we catch a ferry to the island nation of Malta. (The trip takes about two hours.) Malta's strategic location in the center of the Mediterranean has endowed it with a myriad of cultural influences and a long, fascinating history. Upon arrival in Valletta, Malta's capital city, we drive to the hilltop, walled city of Mdina, whose ancient streets, built to protect residents from high temperatures and approaching enemies, are a succession of curves and crossroads. Walk to St. Paul's Cathedral, one of Malta's most important examples of Baroque architecture, and to St. Paul's Catacombs, a complex of underground rock-cut tombs and passages that represent the earliest evidence of Christianity on Malta. After lunch at a local restaurant we drive to the UNESCO World Heritage sites of Haġar Qim and Mnajdra (part of the "Megalithic Temples of Malta"). Haġar Qim stands on a hilltop overlooking the sea and the islet of Fifta, and at the bottom of the hill is Mnajdra. First excavated in 1839, the remains date to between 3600-3200 B.C., a period known as the Ġgantija phase in Maltese prehistory. Transfer to our seaside hotel in San Ġiljan (St. Julian's) and gather for dinner at a local restaurant. Overnight at the 4-star Hotel Golden Tulip Vivaldi for three nights. (B,L,D)

Friday, October 2: Valletta walking tour, National Museum of Archaeology | Hal Saffieni Hypogeum | Tarxien

This morning we explore Valletta, a UNESCO World Heritage site, during a guided walking tour. Enjoy a wonderful panoramic view of the city from the Upper Barakka Gardens, and then visit St. John's Co-Cathedral, featuring impressive Baroque architecture and precious works of art. Continue to the National Museum of Archaeology, which exhibits a spectacular range of artifacts from Malta's Neolithic (5000 B.C.) to Phoenician (400 B.C.) periods. After an independent lunch we visit the Hal Saffieni Hypogeum (permission pending), a UNESCO World Heritage site that was discovered in 1902. In the interest of the site's conservation, only 80 visitors are allowed per day, and we hope to be among them. The Hypogeum is a prehistoric burial complex made up of interconnecting, rock-cut chambers on three levels, and was in use from about 4000-2500 B.C. End our fascinating day at Tarxien, part of the "Megalithic Temples of Malta" UNESCO World Heritage site, which dates from 3600-2500 B.C. and is renowned for its detailed carvings. Return to our hotel in San Ġiljan and enjoy dinner at leisure. (B)

Saturday, October 3: Gozo: Ġgantija, Cittadella, Museum of Archaeology | Farewell dinner

Set out early today to visit Malta's sister island of Gozo, barely 20 minutes from the mainland by ferry. Our explorations begin at the two temples at Ġgantija, part of the "Megalithic Temples of Malta" UNESCO World Heritage site, which date from about 3600 to 3200 B.C. Stroll through the Cittadella (Citadel), a small, fortified town in the island's center that was first settled in the Bronze Age; take some time for an independent lunch; and re-group to visit the Gozo Museum of Archaeology, which illustrates the cultural history of Gozo from prehistory to the early modern period. Return by ferry to Malta and drive to our hotel in San Ġiljan. This evening we gather for a farewell dinner at a local restaurant. (B,D)

Sunday, October 4: Fly home

This morning you are transferred privately to Malta International Airport (MLA) for flights homeward. (B)

WHAT TO EXPECT

This tour of Sicily and extension to Malta feature a second-to-none educational experience, 4- and 5-star accommodations, and delicious local cuisine. You must be able to make long walks, unassisted, over uneven terrain and up and down steps. Participants who are not able to walk or stand unassisted for extended periods are kindly advised not to join this tour. All participants are expected to be physically active and not be an impediment to others on excursions, to enjoy traveling as part of a group, and to be ready to experience cultural differences. Some sites require strenuous and/or brisk walking or climbing, sometimes with difficult footing. If the tour manager decides that a participant cannot visit a site safely or in a timely manner, their judgment will be final. Where possible, an alternate activity may be suggested; additional costs may apply. If you have any questions about your ability to participate, we suggest that you visit your personal physician with this brochure in hand and discuss whether or not this program is appropriate for you. In late September, the weather is usually warm, however it is the beginning of autumn so temperatures begin to cool down and there will be chances of rain. Average daytime temperatures in Sicily can range from the high 60s (F) to the mid 80s (F) and nighttime temperatures can dip to the mid 50s (F). In Malta you can expect temperatures to range from the high 60s to the mid 70s. Complete pre-departure details and what to pack will be sent to participants.
