Archaeological Institute of America Lecturer and Host

Gerald Schaus (PhD, University of Pennsylvania) is Professor Emeritus, Archaeology and Classical Studies, Wilfrid Laurier University (Waterloo, Ontario) and former President of the Canadian Institute in Greece. He is a Classical archaeologist specializing in Greek ceramics, art, and iconography of the Archaic period. Gerry's field experience over the past 45 years includes excavation at sites in Italy, Greece, Libya, and Romania, dating from the Neolithic to Byzantine periods. He is currently Director of Publications for the site of Stymphalos in southern Greece, where he excavated with Prof. Hector Williams (University of British Columbia) from 1995 to 2001. Gerry has published books on Greek pottery and ancient sports, with another monograph appearing in 2020 on the impressive finds of Laconian and Chian pottery from Miletus in modern Turkey. His study of the late Classical/early Hellenistic sanctuary at Stymphalos appeared in 2014 as Stymphalos: The Acropolis Sanctuary (Volume 1) with a second volume in the works. Gerry's research and excavation have taken him to Italy on many occasions, and lecture duties have included five recent tours of Sicily and southern Italy, adding to his experience on tours of Libya, Algeria, and Greece since 2005.

Thursday, September 15: Palermo: Monreale | Royal Palace of Palermo & Cappella Palatina, Archaeological Museum | Welcome dinner

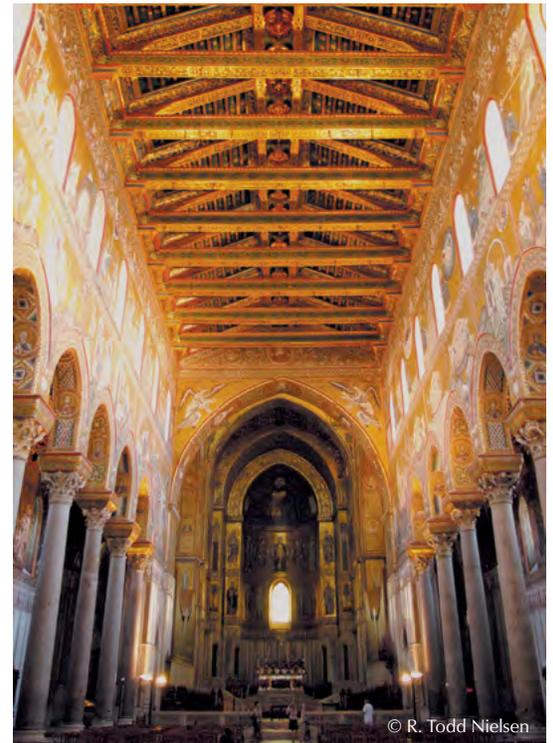

This morning we drive to nearby Monreale to visit its famous cathedral, one of the world's greatest extant examples of Norman architecture. Wander through Moorish-style arcades and examine its exquisite, gold mosaics illustrating biblical tales. We return to Palermo, a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 2015 (together with the Cathedral Churches of Cefalù and Monreale). After an independent lunch in one of Palermo's many trattorias, we stroll through the Royal Palace of Palermo (Palazzo dei Normanni) and its spectacular, mosaic-filled chapel (Cappella Palatina). We then explore the Regional Archaeological Museum Antonio Salinas, hosting one of the largest Italian collections of artifacts from Sicily ranging from prehistory to the Middle Ages. This evening we gather for a welcome reception and dinner at a local restaurant. (B,R,D)

Friday, September 16: Segesta | Erice | Marsala

Visit Segesta's well-preserved 5th-century B.C. Doric Greek temple and 3rd-century B.C. Greek theater, scenically set on Mount Barbaro. Enjoy lunch at a local restaurant and continue to Erice, whose walled, medieval town is perched on a mountain with a striking view over the port of Trapani and sea. We take the cable car down to Trapani and then drive to Marsala, where we check-in to our hotel. Overnight at the 4-star Grand Hotel Palace for two nights. (B,L,D)

Saturday, September 17: Island of Mozia | Marsala: Archaeological Museum

sacked by Syracuse in the 4th century B.C. Take a leisurely walking tour of the island to see some of the archaeological remains and also visit the Whitaker Museum, which houses a unique collection of Phoenician artifacts and Greek vases found on the island. Return to Marsala for lunch, and then explore Marsala's Regional Archaeological Museum Baglio Anselmi, which houses artifacts from Motya and ancient Lilybaeum (modern Marsala), including the wreck of a 3rd-century B.C. Punic warship that was found near Marsala in 1969. Dinner is on your own this evening. (B,L)

Sunday, September 18: Selinunte | Agrigento

Depart Marsala this morning for Selinunte (ancient Selinos), perched on a cliff top overlooking the sea. We stop just outside of Selinunte to visit the ancient stone quarries (schedule permitting), and then visit Selinunte itself. This was the westernmost Greek colony, established in the 7th century B.C., and today its vast ruins comprise temples, fortifications, and houses. After a casual seaside lunch we drive to Agrigento, founded as a Greek colony in the 6th century B.C., and settle in to our hotel. Gather for dinner this evening. Overnight at the 4-star Hotel Foresteria Baglio della Luna for two nights. (B,L,D)

Monday, September 19: Agrigento: Archaeological Museum, Valley of the Temples

Spend this morning exploring the Regional Archaeological Museum of Agrigento, which displays over 5,500 artifacts from the prehistoric through the Greco-Roman periods. Particularly noteworthy are the kouros (Archaic Greek statue) known as the “Ephebe of Agrigento,” and the giant Telamon (load-bearing statue) from the Temple of Olympian Zeus. After an independent lunch we explore the striking Valley of the Temples, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, with very well-preserved Doric Greek temples to Concordia, Hera, Herakles, and more. Return to our hotel and gather for dinner this evening. (B,D)

Tuesday, September 20: Piazza Armerina | Aidone

After a leisurely breakfast we drive to the town of Piazza Armerina, a charming Sicilian hamlet located halfway between Agrigento and Catania. After strolling its lovely city center and having lunch at leisure, we visit the nearby UNESCO World Heritage Site of the Villa Romana del Casale. The villa's exquisite mosaics—some of the best preserved in the Roman world—were buried in mud for centuries until they were rediscovered in the late 19th century. Our accommodations tonight are at a lovely, family-run farming estate on nearly 500 acres in Aidone. Overnight at the 4-star Agriturismo Il Drago for two nights. (B,D)

Top to bottom: Temple at Segesta; Agrigento; a Greek theater at Morgantina

Wednesday, September 21: Morgantina | Archaeological Museum of Aidone | PM at leisure

We explore this morning the nearby archaeological site of Morgantina, a large ancient Greek settlement. Excavations since the 1950s have revealed what remains of a street grid, private homes, and public spaces—especially the agora (gathering place) with its theater and a sanctuary dedicated to Demeter and Persephone. We reach Aidone to visit its Archaeological Museum, housed in a former Capuchin monastery, which displays artifacts from Morgantina including the beautiful, 5th-century B.C. “Venus of Morgantina” statue. After an independent lunch in the charming village of Aidone, we enjoy an afternoon at leisure. (B,D)

Thursday, September 22: Catania walking tour | Ortygia, Syracuse

Today we drive eastward to the ancient port city of Catania, where we take a leisurely orientation tour and appreciate the beauty of its Baroque architecture. Catania is one of the eight towns included in the UNESCO World Heritage listing “Late Baroque Towns of the Val di Noto (South-Eastern Sicily),” rebuilt after the devastating earthquake of 1693. After a visit to its Archaeological Museum and Roman amphitheater, we stroll through the colorful fish market for an independent lunch of street food. Continue driving southward to Syracuse, a city that once rivaled ancient Athens in terms of culture and economic strength. Check-in to our hotel on the island of Ortygia, Syracuse’s historical center, and gather this evening for dinner at a local restaurant. Overnight at the 5-star Ortea Palace Luxury Hotel for three nights. (B,D)

Friday, September 23: Syracuse: AM walking tour of Ortygia | PM at leisure | Farewell dinner

This morning we set out on a walking tour of Ortygia, which was colonized by Greeks from Corinth in 734 B.C. This is part of the UNESCO World Heritage Site “Syracuse and the Rocky Necropolis of Pantalica.” Call at the massive Cathedral with a Baroque façade, built in the local white stone over a 5th-century B.C. Temple of Athena. See the 6th-century B.C. Temple of Apollo, which served as a church, mosque, and military barracks at various points throughout its history. Meet a local artisan who makes by hand pupi (marionettes), and learn about opera dei pupi, a theatrical marionette representation of Frankish romantic poems that is one of Sicily’s characteristic cultural traditions. Lunch and the afternoon are at leisure to relax or pursue individual interests. We gather this evening for a festive farewell dinner overlooking the Mediterranean. (B,D)

OR Ferry to Malta for Post-Tour Extension

Spend the morning exploring the Parco Archeologico della Neapolis (Neapolis Archaeological Park), which includes the well-preserved, 5th-century B.C. Greek theater, with a 16,000-person capacity; and the Orecchio di Dionisio (Ear of Dionysius), a limestone cave that was named after its similarity in shape to the human ear (not to mention the impressive acoustic effects of the cave) and the tyrant Dionysius, who kept prisoners in the adjacent quarry. End the morning with a visit to the modern Paolo Orsi Regional Archaeological Museum, with one of Sicily's largest and most interesting archaeological collections, documenting the island from prehistory to the late Roman period. Enjoy lunch and the balance of the day at leisure to relax, pack, or perhaps do some last-minute shopping. This evening, travelers who are continuing on the optional extension to Malta will be transferred from Syracuse to Pozzallo, and board a ferry to the island nation of Malta. (The trip takes just under two hours and the ferry has comfortable lounge chairs and a nice cafeteria.) Upon arrival in Valletta, Malta's capital city, a little after 11pm, transfer to our hotel in the heart of Valletta and overnight. (B)

Sunday, September 25: Fly home

Travelers who are not continuing on the optional extension to Malta will be transferred privately this morning to Catania-Fontanarossa Airport (CTA) for their flights homeward. (B)

Take a private evening transfer from Syracuse to Pozzallo, and board a ferry to the island nation of Malta. (The trip takes just under two hours and the ferry has comfortable lounge chairs and a nice cafeteria.) Upon arrival in Valletta, Malta's capital city, a little after 11pm, transfer to our hotel. Overnight at the at the 4-star Gomerino Hotel for four nights.

Sunday, September 25: Mdina, Malta | Ħaġar Qim & Mnajdra Temples | Valletta

Malta's strategic location in the center of the Mediterranean has endowed it with a myriad of cultural influences and a long, fascinating history. This morning we drive to the hilltop, walled city of Mdina, whose ancient streets, built to protect residents from high temperatures and approaching enemies, are a succession of curves and crossroads. Walk to St. Paul's Cathedral, one of Malta's most important examples of Baroque architecture, and to St. Paul's Catacombs, a complex of underground rock-cut tombs and passages that represent the earliest evidence of Christianity on Malta. After lunch at a local restaurant we drive to the UNESCO World Heritage Sites of Ħaġar Qim and Mnajdra (part of the "Megalithic Temples of Malta"). Ħaġar Qim stands on a hilltop overlooking the sea and the islet of Fifla, and at the bottom of the hill is Mnajdra. First excavated in 1839, the remains date to between 3600-3200 B.C., a period known as the Ġgantija phase in Maltese prehistory. Return to our hotel and then gather for dinner at a local restaurant. (B,L,D)

Mdina

Monday, September 26: Valletta walking tour, National Museum of Archaeology | Ħal Saffieni Hypogeum | Tarxien

This morning we explore Valletta, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, during a guided walking tour. Enjoy a wonderful panoramic view of the city from the Upper Barakka Gardens, and then visit St. John's Co-Cathedral, featuring impressive Baroque architecture and precious works of art. Continue to the National Museum of Archaeology, which exhibits a spectacular range of artifacts from Malta's Neolithic (5000 B.C.) to Phoenician (400 B.C.) periods. After an independent lunch we visit (permission pending) the Ħal Saffieni Hypogeum, a UNESCO World Heritage Site that was discovered in 1902. In the interest of the site's conservation, only 80 visitors are allowed per day, and we hope to be among them. The Hypogeum is a prehistoric burial complex made up of interconnecting, rock-cut chambers on three levels, and was in use from about 4000-2500 B.C. End our fascinating day at Tarxien, part of the "Megalithic Temples of Malta" UNESCO World Heritage Site, which dates from 3600-2500 B.C. and is renowned for its detailed carvings. Return to our hotel and enjoy dinner at leisure. (B)

Ggantija Temples

Tuesday, September 27: Gozo: Ggantija, Cittadella, Museum of Archaeology | Farewell dinner

Set out early today to visit Malta's sister island of Gozo, barely 20 minutes from the mainland by ferry. Our explorations begin at the two temples at Ggantija, part of the "Megalithic Temples of Malta" UNESCO World Heritage Site, which date from about 3600 to 3200 B.C. Stroll through the Cittadella (Citadel), a small, fortified town in the island's center that was first settled in the Bronze Age; take some time for an independent lunch; and re-group to visit the Gozo Museum of Archaeology, which illustrates the cultural history of Gozo from prehistory to the early modern period. Return by ferry to Malta and drive to our hotel. This evening we gather for a farewell dinner at a local restaurant. (B,D)

What to Expect

This tour of Sicily and the post-tour extension to Malta feature a second-to-none educational experience, 4- and 5-star accommodations, and delicious local cuisine. You must be able to make long walks, unassisted, over uneven terrain and up and down steps. Participants who are not able to walk or stand unassisted for extended periods are kindly advised not to join this tour. All participants are expected to be physically active and not be an impediment to others on excursions, to enjoy traveling as part of a group, and to be ready to experience cultural differences. Some sites require strenuous and/or brisk walking or climbing, sometimes with difficult footing. All participants will be required to follow safety/sanitization protocols set forth by Sponsors/Operator, local staff, and host country laws. If the tour manager decides that a participant cannot visit a site safely or in a timely manner, their judgment will be final. Where possible, an alternate activity may be suggested; additional costs may apply. If you have any questions about your ability to participate, we suggest that you visit your personal physician with this brochure in hand and discuss whether or not this program is appropriate for you. Up-to-date COVID-related protocols will be communicated in pre-trip documents.

In late September, the weather is usually warm, however it is the beginning of autumn so temperatures begin to cool down and there will be chances of rain. Average daytime temperatures in Sicily can range from the high 60s (F) to the mid 80s (F) and nighttime temperatures can dip to the mid 50s (F). In Malta you can expect temperatures to range from the high 60s to the mid 70s. Complete pre-departure details and what to pack will be sent to participants.

On all programs, even after full payment, Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to increase the tour price in the event of cost increases due to changes in supplier costs, tax increases, currency fluctuations, or fuel and energy surcharges, and all such increases are to be paid to Sponsors/Operator upon notice to the participant. FORUM AND METHODOLOGY FOR DISPUTE RESOLUTION: Any dispute or claim which refers or relates to this contract, any literature related to the trip, or the trip itself shall be litigated solely and exclusively in and for courts in Keene, New Hampshire, subject to substantive and procedural New Hampshire law, and for this limited purpose, the parties agree to exclusive venue and personal jurisdiction therein. At the participant's option, however, in lieu of litigation, Sponsors/Operator will agree to binding arbitration in Keene, New Hampshire, subject to substantive, but not procedural, New Hampshire law, pursuant to the then existing commercial rules of the American Arbitration Association. In any such arbitration, the arbitrator, and not any federal, state, or local court or agency, shall have exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the interpretation, applicability, enforceability, conscionability, or formation of this contract, including but not limited to any claim that all or any part of this contract is void or voidable. U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT & CENTERS FOR DISEASE CONTROL: Both the Centers for Disease Control and U.S. State Department publish and update important country-specific information for travelers. We strongly recommend that you review them. They can presently be found at: <https://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/notices> and <https://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/alertswarnings.html>. ASSUMPTION OF RISK: Participants agree to fully accept all known and unknown risks, including the potential risk of exposure to respiratory illnesses or other illnesses, viruses, diseases, or conditions. Participants understand and agree to hold Sponsors/Operator, their officers, vendors and suppliers harmless and not liable for any real or perceived symptoms of any disease, virus, illness, or condition, nor for exacerbating any existing symptoms of any illness, virus, disease or condition, quarantine requirements, disability, and other short-term and long-term health effects, including death. MISCELLANEOUS: Participants should not purchase airline tickets prior to receiving their final payment invoice so as to avoid airline cancellation penalties if a tour is canceled or otherwise modified subsequent to the participant's purchase of those tickets. Baggage and personal effects are at all times the sole responsibility of the participant. If, due to weather, flight schedules, or other uncontrollable factors, you are required to spend (an) additional night(s), you will be responsible for your own hotel, transfers, and meal costs. Baggage is entirely at owner's risk. Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to decline to accept or retain any participant at any time. The right is reserved to decline to accept as a participant, or remove from a trip, without refund, any person it judges to be incapable of meeting the rigors and requirements of participating in the activities, or who is abusive to other trip participants, leaders, or third parties, or who is determined to detract from the enjoyment of the trip by others. Specific room assignments are within the sole discretion of the hotel. APPEARING IN PHOTOS: Photos from AIA Tours' trips may be posted on photo-sharing web sites or on social networking sites. Trip photos may also be selected to appear in future AIA Tours promotions; no compensation is available for appearing in a trip photo used for promotional purposes. ACCEPTANCE OF CONTRACT: By forwarding of deposit, the participant certifies that he/she agrees with these terms and conditions, and accepts the terms contained in these Terms and Conditions, Release of Liability, Assumption of Risk and Dispute Resolution Agreement. The participant affirms that he/she has not received or relied upon any oral representation of Sponsors/Operator as a basis for executing this Release.
