SUMMER STUDY ABROAD

JOIN UMSL'S ARCHAEOLOGICAL FIELD SCHOOL IN GREECE

Travel to Greece and experience the fascinating world of archaeology and the beauty and culture of the country that became the cradle of western civilization!

UMSL's archaeological field school includes excavation at Iklaina (an ancient Greek palace from the time of the Trojan War), museum and lab work, travel to archaeological sites and museums, and lectures on Greek history, archaeology, art, and mythology. Students receive 6 credits through History. Open also to members of the community as a non-credit course.

Dates: June 16- July 7, 2024

Costs: $1950 (Program Fees) + $2300 (Tuition fees for 6 credits OR non-credit fees) + Airfare (N.B. These are approximate costs – final costs will be set by December 2023)

Scholarships: ALL UMSL students accepted into the program are guaranteed scholarships from the Greek Professorship

Instructor: Prof. Michael Cosmopoulos
