Archaeology-focused tours for the curious to the connoisseur.

Archaeological Institute of America Study Leader

Jodi Magness is the immediate past President of the Archaeological Institute of America and a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. Since 2002, she has been the Kenan Distinguished Professor for Teaching Excellence in Early Judaism in the Department of Religious Studies at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She received her B.A. in Archaeology and History from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, and her Ph.D. in Classical Archaeology from the University of Pennsylvania. For her engaging teaching, Professor Magness won the Archaeological Institute of America's Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching. Her other honors include a Fulbright Lecturing Award from the United States-Israel Educational Foundation, and fellowships from institutions including the American Council of Learned Societies and the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Professor Magness is the author of numerous scholarly books on the archaeology of the Holy Land. Among them are The Archaeology of Qumran and the Dead Sea Scrolls, which won the 2003 Biblical Archaeology Society's Award for Best Popular Book in Archaeology, and The Archaeology of the Early Islamic Settlement in Palestine, which won the Irene Levi-Sala Book Prize. Her most recent book, Masada: From Jewish Revolt to Modern Myth (Princeton University Press, 2019) was selected as a finalist for the 2019 National Jewish Book Award. Professor Magness' research focuses on the archaeology of Palestine in the Roman, Byzantine, and early Islamic periods, and Diaspora Judaism in the Roman world. She has participated on over 20 excavations in Israel and Greece, including co-directing the 1995 excavations in the Roman siege works at Masada. Since 2011, Professor Magness' excavations at Huqoq in Galilee have been bringing to light a Late Roman synagogue paved with stunning mosaics (www.huqoq.org). She has accompanied four previous AIA Tours of Israel since 2016.

"The best thing about the trip was Jodi Magness. Her in depth knowledge is extraordinary."

Griffon Vulture, Gamla Nature Reserve

Join acclaimed AIA lecturer and archaeologist Jodi Magness and revisit Israel on this active, small-group adventure to explore ancient and natural sites, many of which are off the beaten path. This is a more strenuous itinerary than our other Israel tour, Treasures of the Holy Land, as it includes several hikes in nature reserves to see wildlife and geological wonders in addition to visiting a variety of archaeological and cultural sites. Estimated distances and difficulty of the hikes are indicated in red in the itinerary's daily headings, but every day with group activities will involve walking, whether around archaeological sites or through towns and cities. End each day at a 5-star hotel/resort, where you can rest your weary but fulfilled traveler's head and perhaps refresh yourself in their luxury pools or spas.

Highlights include:

- Three UNESCO World Heritage Sites:
 - The Old City of Acre, a walled port city with the well-preserved remains of the 12th-century Crusader town, capital of the medieval kingdom of Jerusalem
 - Tel Hazor National Park with the ancient city of Hazor which, twice in its history, was the largest fortified city in the area
 - Ein Avdat, a vast canyon with caves where monks once resided, part of the "Incense Route - Desert Cities in the Negev"
- Walks and hikes in several nature reserves and national parks:
 - Tel Dan Nature Reserve, with the ruins of a 5,000-year-old city and the world's oldest-known gated archway
 - Gamla Nature Reserve, home to Israel's highest cascade (the 170-foot Gamla Waterfall), the remains of the ancient city of Gamla, and a Bronze Age field with 716 dolmens (megalithic structures of smaller vertical stones with one or more capstones)
 - Banias Nature Reserve, where we find Israel's largest waterfall and the ruins of a palace complex built by Agrippa II
 - A walk on Mount Scopus, where we will visit the burial cave of Nicanor and then peruse the Hebrew University Institute of Archaeology's collection
 - The lush oasis of Ein Gedi National Park, with a hike along sparkling David's Stream and the ruins of an excavated ancient synagogue with a perfectly preserved mosaic floor
- Wadi Qelt's monastery of St. George of Choziba, a breathtaking complex perched on the side of the valley's walls
- A well-paced itinerary with four nights at our hotel on Tze'elon Beach, on the eastern shore of the Sea of Galilee, including a boat ride; and four nights in Jerusalem, with visits to the Rockefeller Archaeological Museum, the excavations on the southwest side of Temple Mount, and the Southern Wall Museum
- The desert town of Nitzana, with ancient petroglyphs and the remains of a Byzantine church, plus a chance to enjoy the hospitality of the Negev Bedouins.

Thursday, May 11: Acre (Akko) | Haifa | Welcome dinner

Today we visit the UNESCO World Heritage Site of the Old City of Acre with the capital of the medieval Crusader Kingdom of Jerusalem. For more than 200 years, this port city stood as a Christian stronghold against the Muslim armies, as well as a stop along the pilgrimage route from Europe to Jerusalem. The present-day city presents an exceptional example of an Ottoman walled town. Continue on to the Mediterranean city of Haifa. Check-in to our hotel and gather this evening for a welcome dinner. Overnight at the 5-star Dan Carmel Haifa hotel (deluxe bay view rooms). (B,L,D)

Friday, May 12: Kfar Bar'am | Tel Hazor National Park | Tze'elon Beach

Today we visit the ancient village of Kfar Bar'am, home to a partially-restored synagogue dating to approximately the 5th-6th century A.D. We then continue to Tel Hazor National Park to tour the ancient city and the tell, or mound, of the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Hazor. During the Middle Bronze Age (circa. 1750 B.C.) and the Israelite period (9th century B.C.), Hazor was the largest fortified city in the area. Enjoy a guided tour of the site, including Solomon's gate, the Canaanite palace from the 13th century B.C., and the water system. View ancient relics recovered from excavations of the city at the museum in the nearby Kibbutz Ayelet HaShahar. Continue on to our hotel on Tze'elon Beach, on the eastern shore of the Sea of Galilee. Gather for dinner at our hotel. Overnight at the 5-star Setai Sea of Galilee Hotel \(Hot Tub Villa\) for four nights. (B,L,D)

Saturday, May 13: Tel Dan Nature Reserve | Banias Nature Reserve | Tze'elon Beach

Moderate walk for 2 hours in Tel Dan and 2 hours in Banias Nature Reserve

Today we explore the Tel Dan Nature Reserve, which contains the remains of a 5,000-year-old city. Among the ancient treasures found at Tel Dan are the only surviving monumental temple complex, the world's oldest-known gated archway, and a stone with an inscription about the House of David—the oldest inscription to mention King David. The original inscription is on display at the Israel Museum in Jerusalem. We stop for an independent lunch, then continue on to the Banias

The UNESCO World Heritage Site of Hazor, which was home to the area's largest fortified settlement in both the 18th and 9th centuries B.C.

The ancient synagogue at Umm el-Kanatir, also known as Ein Keshatot, which was destroyed by an earthquake in the 8th century and restored in the 21st.

Nature Reserve located at the foot of Mount Hermon, north of Golan Heights. We will enjoy a moderate hike to the largest waterfall in Israel, and see the remains of a palace complex built by Agrippa II, Herod's grandson. Return to Tze'elon Beach and gather for dinner at a local restaurant this evening. (B,D)

Sunday, May 14: Umm el-Kanatir | Qazrin | Tze'elon Beach

Walk for 1.5 hours with a moderate ascent/descent in Umm el-Kanatir

After breakfast, we drive to Umm el-Kanatir in the Golan Heights. Originally a Roman town, it later became one of the three dozen Jewish villages founded in the Golan Heights after Jews were banned from Jerusalem following their unsuccessful rebellion against the Romans in the 2nd century A.D. The residents built a magnificent synagogue in the 6th century A.D., which was destroyed along with the entire village during an earthquake in A.D. 749. Enjoy a walking tour to the village spring and the reconstructed synagogue. We next drive to the open-air museum at Qazrin, another of the Jewish villages founded in the Golan Heights. After an independent lunch we re-group for a tour through the restored village, with original ruins of the synagogue and its arched entrance, as well as restorations of several buildings with replicas of household tools, including a functioning wine press. Return to Tze'elon Beach and gather this evening for dinner at our hotel. (B,D)

Monday, May 15: Gamla Nature Reserve | Sea of Galilee boat ride | Tze'elon Beach

Hike for 3 to 4 hours in Gamla (one section of sharp ascent/descent)

This morning we hike in the Gamla Nature Reserve, home to numerous natural and archaeological wonders. Start out with the most challenging part of the hike, to visit the remains of the ancient city of Gamla as well as a Bronze Age field that contains 716 dolmens. Keep a lookout for griffon vultures, though with their ten-foot wingspan these birds should not be hard to spot. Linger in the cooling spray of Israel's highest cascade, the 170-foot Gamla Waterfall. Enjoy a restful lunch, and then return to Tze'elon Beach for a boat ride on the Sea of Galilee (Lake Kinneret). Dinner is at a local restaurant this evening. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, May 16: Wadi Qelt | Museum of the Good Samaritan | Jerusalem

Walk for 1 hour with sharp ascent/descent in Wadi Qelt; modest attire

Today we head to Jerusalem. On the way, we spend some time exploring the Monastery of St. George of Choziba in Wadi Qelt, a valley in the eastern West Bank thought by some to be referenced in Psalm 23, "valley of the shadow of death." The breathtaking monastery complex hangs from the side of one of the valley's walls, and we cross a pedestrian bridge to reach it. Established during the Byzantine period, it has been destroyed and rebuilt several times, most recently by Greek monks at the end of the 19th century. Thursday, May 18: Jerusalem walking tour: St. Anne's Church, Church of the Redeemer, Tower of David, Rockefeller Archaeological Museum

Walk approx. 2 miles in the Old City; modest attire

Today we visit three sites that reflect the multiple religions that call Jerusalem home. First, we take in St. Anne's Church, currently a Roman Catholic church. Next, we explore the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, which features an archaeological exhibition below its nave, and climb its tower for a splendid view of the Old City. Finally, we tour the Tower of David. Originally constructed during the Mamluk and Ottoman periods, it was repeatedly damaged during the Crusades. Take some time to explore the museum housed in the original citadel to learn about Jerusalem's history from its beginnings to the current day. After an independent lunch we re-group to explore the Rockefeller Archaeological Museum, which houses thousands of artifacts arranged in chronological order. Dinner is on your own this evening. (B)

Friday, May 19: Jerusalem: Southern Wall Excavations, PM at leisure

After breakfast we tour the excavations on the southwest side of Temple Mount. View the ongoing work itself, then learn more about the finds in the Southern Wall Museum. After lunch, the rest of the day is yours to explore the city on your own. (B,L)

Saturday, May 20: Ein Gedi National Park | Ein Boqueq

Hike for 2 to 3 hours with a sharp slope in Ein Gedi

This morning, we leave the city behind and head to the lush oasis of Ein Gedi. We hike through this national park, seeking the resident ibex and birds of prey. Walk along the sparkling Nahal David, or David's stream; visit the Chalcolithic temple overlooking the oasis; and see an excavated ancient synagogue with a perfectly preserved mosaic floor featuring a central square of exotic birds surrounded by a precise pattern of intersecting circles. After the hike we continue on to our hotel in Ein Boqueq, on the Dead Sea, where we have a late check in (due to Shabbat) and then gather for dinner. Overnight at the 5-star Isrotel Dead Sea Resort & Spa. (B,L,D)

What to Expect

This unique tour is more active than our usual land tours, featuring several hikes that are easy to moderate in difficulty with moderate to steep ascents/descents, and several days with lengthy walks, some at archaeological sites that require navigating uneven terrain. To fully enjoy and visit all the sites on this itinerary one should be in good walking condition. Some sites require strenuous and/or brisk walking or climbing, and you may need to walk up and down stairs that may be steep and/or without handrails. Participants who are not able to walk or stand unassisted for extended periods are kindly advised not to join this tour. All participants are expected to be physically active and not be an impediment to others on excursions, to enjoy traveling as part of a group, and to be ready to experience cultural differences. All participants will be required to follow safety/sanitization protocols set forth by Sponsors/Operator, local staff, and host country laws. If the tour manager decides that a participant cannot visit a site safely or in a timely manner, their judgment will be final. Where possible, an alternate activity may be suggested; additional costs may apply. If you have any questions about your ability to participate, we suggest that you visit your personal physician with this brochure in hand and discuss whether or not this program is appropriate for you. Daytime temperatures can range from the low 70s to high 90s Fahrenheit, while overnight temperatures can dip to the low 60s. In May, rain (other than a quick shower) is rare. For visits to religious sites, such as the Monastery of St. George of Choziba in Wadi Qelt and sites on our walking tour of Old Jerusalem, modest attire (e.g., no shorts or sleeveless shirts) is required. Complete pre-departure details, including up-to-date COVID-related protocols, will be sent to participants.

Hike in Ein Avdat National Park, a vast canyon with a spring-fed oasis on the valley floor. Gaze up at the sheer walls to see caves where monks once resided. Continue on to our hotel in Mitzpe Ramon, where we gather for dinner tonight. Overnight at the 5-star Beresheet Hotel (Desert View with pool or Crater Top with balcony) for two nights. (B,L,D)

Monday, May 22: Nitzana

We spend the day in the desert town of Nitzana (formerly Nessana). Explore what remains of the various peoples who have lived here, from the Byzantine church to ancient petroglyphs. Spend the afternoon enjoying the hospitality of the Negev Bedouins. Return to our hotel in Mitzpe Ramon, where we gather for dinner tonight. (B,L,D)
