Start Planning

We take care of all the details while you relax, enjoy, and learn.

Choose from more than 30 AIA land tours. Most have a maximum of just 12 or 16 guests, plus your AIA lecturer, tour manager, and local guide(s), who provide the utmost attention to your enjoyment.

Our tours are highly educational, led by scholars and expert local guides who are congenial, accessible, and understandable! Gain insights to all the sites and museums, as well as cultural traditions and culinary specialties. Your guide and trip manager will recommend dining choices or independent activities during your free time.

Each itinerary is exquisitely planned and inclusive, focusing primarily on archaeology, ancient art and history, the evolution of humankind, and related themes.

AIA Tours provides comprehensive safety protocols and flexible cancellation policies.

AIA Tours now also offers Private Departures to Italy and Greece for as few as two guests. Choose your dates and travel companions! Contact us for more information on our scheduled and private departures.

“We are so fortunate to have booked our trip with AIA. We will for sure use AIA for our trips in the future. Your association is very reputable, which we appreciate.”

Hiking Scotland’s Orkney & Shetland Isles
July 10-20, 2021 or July 18-28, 2022 (11 days | 15 guests)
with archaeologist Val Turner

Explore all that Scotland’s Northern Isles have to offer: prehistoric stone circles, burial chambers, and settlements; quaint villages; huge seabird colonies; and remarkable plant life—all amidst dramatic landscapes. This will be Scotland seen slowly, with time for in-depth exploration at each site. The Orkney and Shetland islands have an amazing wealth of archaeological sites dating back 5,000 years.

Hiking Scotland’s North Highlands & Isle of Lewis
July 20-30, 2021 or July 8-18, 2022 (11 days | 15 guests)
with archaeologist Mary MacLeod Rivett

Join us on this exploration of Scotland’s remote north Highlands and the Isle of Lewis in the Outer Hebrides. Explore off the well-beaten Highland trail, and along the way we will be treated to an abundance of archaeological and historical sites, striking scenery – including high cliffs, sea lochs, sandy and rocky bays, mountains, and glens – and, of course, excellent hiking.

Ghana & Benin: Exploring West Africa
August 3-19, 2021 or August 2022 -TBA (17 days | 16 guests)
with anthropologist/architectural historian Trevor Marchand

Learn about the effects of the former Atlantic slave trade on West Africa and the resilience of the people, towns, and cultures. Explore the dramatic landscapes that helped shape the different tribes and kingdoms, from the rugged coastlines to the southern forests of Ghana. Rich in culture and history, the people are enthusiastic about sharing their histories, cultures, and traditions.

Ireland’s Ancient East
August 31-September 13, 2021 (14 days | 12 guests)
with geoarchaeologist Stephen Mandal
(June 2022 "Ireland’s Wild Atlantic Way" - TBA)

Journey through the archaeology, history, and landscapes along the east coast of Ireland, from Dublin to Northern Ireland and then as far south as Wexford and Waterford. See the medieval town of Carrickfergus, the UNESCO World Heritage Sites at the Giant’s Causeway and Brú na Bóinne (Newgrange), the medieval city of Kilkenny, and visit your host’s ongoing excavation project.

Sicily: Archaeology, Art & Cuisine
September 14-25, 2021 or September 2022 -TBA (12 days | 16 guests)
with archaeologist Gerry Schaus

Discover and learn about many of the most impressive archaeological monuments found anywhere in the Mediterranean, such as Agrigento, Selinunte, Segesta, and Syracuse. Admire spectacular landscapes, and see two of the finest examples of Norman architecture: Monreale Cathedral and the Royal Palace of Palermo. View extensive archaeological collections at several excellent museums. Savor fine cuisine and local wines.

Native America: Archaeology & Anthropology in the West
September 18-29, 2021 or September 2022 - TBA (12 days | 12 guests)
with anthropologist Maria Nieves Zedeño

Join us on an American adventure, from the plains of North Dakota to the pueblos of New Mexico, as we explore Native American archaeological and historical sites as well as spectacular National Parks. Experience this part of the country in a different way, gaining new perspectives and learning about the histories of indigenous peoples, in the company of a North American archaeologist.

Like-Minded Travelers
AIA travelers enjoy learning firsthand about cultural history by viewing splendid archaeological sites, art, and architecture, and by exploring museums, private collections, and craft shops.

“I’ve never traveled with such a congenial group of people.”
