Archaeological Institute of America Lecturer & Host

Ian Tattersall, American Museum of Natural History curator emeritus, is a renowned expert on biological anthropology and human evolution. He has lectured to acclaim on numerous expeditions to Africa, Europe, and Asia.

Trained in geology as well as in archaeology and anthropology, his field researches on living primates and his fossil studies have taken him to countries around the globe, including to the Caucasus. Dr. Tattersall co-curated the American Museum of Natural History's Spitzer Hall of Human Origins, and is the author of many technical and popular books. Of particular relevance to this itinerary are Becoming Human: Evolution and Human Uniqueness; Masters of the Planet: The Search for Our Human Origins; The Strange Case of the Ricketty Cossack and Other Cautionary Tales from Human Evolution; and (with Rob DeSalle) A Natural History of Wine. Over the last two decades, and including this very AIA tour in 2021, Dr. Tattersall has accompanied several trips to the southern Caucasus, speaking principally about prehistory and the wine cultures of the region.

Join us for an exciting trip back in time to explore early humankind and the 'cradle of wine' in the southern Caucasus. Learn about ancient winemaking techniques and sample the bounty of the region's vineyards. Explore medieval towns and UNESCO World Heritage Sites, including prehistoric through early Christian complexes. Enjoy Georgia's famed hospitality, wherein a 'visitor is considered a gift from God.' This is a region of extraordinary contrasts, deep history, and cultural diversity.

"Dr. Tattersall's lectures and informal comments were wonderful. He was so accessible and easy to interact with."

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Travel and learn with AIA lecturer and host Ian Tattersall, who is both a paleoanthropologist and an oenophile; plus a professional tour manager and local guides
- Visit impressive UNESCO World Heritage Sites: Baku's Old City, Shirvan Shah Palace complex, and 98-foot-tall Maiden Tower, plus the ancient petroglyphs of Gobustan, in Azerbaijan; Georgia's Mtskheta; and Armenia's Echmiadzin, and Zvartnots Cathedral
- Learn about and sample wines at five different wineries: Azerbaijan's ASPI Winery in the Savalan Valley; Georgia's Tibaani Vineyards, cellar of French vigneron Vincent Jullien, and Chateau Mukhrani winery; and Armenia's Areni Winery near the ancient Areni-1 cave complex
- Explore a variety of fascinating prehistoric through early Christian sites, including:
 - Dmanisi, a medieval town under which were found five 1.8-million-year-old Homo erectus skulls
 - The cave complex of Areni-1, where a 6,000-year-old winery was discovered
 - Several of Georgia's oldest churches, including Bolnisi's Sioni Church, Tbilisi's 6th-century Anchiskhati Basilica, and Mtskheta's 11th-century Svetitskhoveli Cathedral
 - Impressive monasteries, including 6th-century Jvari, with one of the country's earliest (and one of its finest) churches
 - Enjoy a large feast, known as a supra, by experiencing a Georgian Table covered with plates of delicacies balanced on top of each other plus countless toasts

ITINERARY

(B)=Breakfast, (L)=Lunch, (R)=Reception, (D)=Dinner

Thursday, October 12, 2023: Depart home on flights to Baku, AZERBAIJAN

Friday, October 13: Arrive Baku | Transfer to hotel

Upon arrival at Baku Heydar Aliyev International Airport (GYD), you will be met and transferred to our hotel. Gather this evening for a welcome reception at the hotel. Overnight at the 5-star Hilton Baku for two nights. (R)

Saturday, October 14: Baku walking tour: Old City, Shirvan Shah Palace, Maiden Tower, National Museum of Azerbaijani Carpets | Welcome dinner

Following an introductory lecture, embark on a walking tour of Azerbaijan's capital, Baku. Explore the Old City (Icheri Sheher), which is completely encircled by old city walls with their medieval gates, in the company of a local architect (schedule permitting) who recounts Baku's history and construction. On a hill above the Old City, the 13th- to 15th-century Shirvan Shah Palace complex encompasses the royal residence, mosques, and tombs, and is a highlight of Azerbaijani architecture. The Old City, Palace complex, and 98-foot-tall Maiden Tower are together a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Next we visit the National Museum of Azerbaijani Carpets, where vivid colors and bold designs of Azeri, Caucasian, and Iranian carpets are on display. In 2010, UNESCO added the traditional art of weaving Azerbaijani carpets to the list of Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity. Return to our hotel or participate in an optional visit to Martyrs' Lane, set on a terraced hill above the harbor, which pays homage to the 137 people killed during the Black January of 1990, which marked the turning point in the country's drive toward independence. Gather for a festive welcome dinner. (B,L,D)

Sunday, October 15: Gobustan | ASPI Winery | Sheki

This morning we check out of our hotel and drive to Gobustan, an important UNESCO World Heritage Site of ancient petroglyphs. The carvings, depicting men, women, animals, and artifacts, give insight into details of daily life such as hunting, recreation, culture, and economy. An excellent site museum adds to the experience. Continue on to the Savalan Valley for a wine tasting at ASPI Winery, which began in 2007 with the goal of reviving the art of winemaking in a region of the southern Caucasus known for wine since ancient times. Drive onward to Sheki, where we check-in to our hotel and then gather for dinner. Overnight at the 5-star Marxal Resort & Spa. (B,L,D)

Monday, October 16: Sheki walking tour | Alaverdi Monastery and Cathedral, GEORGIA | Tsinandali

After an early breakfast, check out of our hotel and enjoy a brief walk around Sheki, one of the oldest towns in Azerbaijan, founded some 2,700 years ago. The town is renowned for its carpets and its special type of sweet halvah. See the exterior of the mosaic-covered khan's summer palace with its brilliant stained glass work, called shebeke, and the fortress that surrounds the palace. Explore some of Sheki's small gems, including the local crafts market and a bakery where we can sample baklava or halvah. Drive across the Lagodekhi border into the Kakheti region of Georgia. Proceed through customs formalities, change over to a Georgian motor coach and, en route to Tsinandali, visit the Alaverdi Monastery complex and Alaverdi Cathedral, one of the tallest churches in Georgia and one of the most striking in its simplicity. Arrive in Tsinandali and check-in to our hotel. The balance of the day is at leisure, to enjoy on your own the hotel dining options, spa, and/or lounge areas. Overnight at the 4-star The Tsinandali Estate, a Radisson Collection Hotel for two nights. (B,L)

Tuesday, October 17: Signagi | Tibaani Vineyards | Niko Pirosmeni House-Museum | Lost Ridge Brewery | Tsinandali

The Kakheti region is Georgia’s most important wine-growing area. Set out for a visit to the hill town of Signagi, around which King Erekle II constructed a defensive wall in the 18th century. Wander the narrow streets and admire the richly-carved balconies and the green valleys below. Continue on to Tibaani Vineyards, owned by the Pheasant’s Tears Winery, and enjoy a walk through the vineyards to see where the grapes are grown and to visit the cellars where the grapes are macerated and aged in huge ceramic vessels lined with beeswax. These vessels are called qvevri, and have been used for winemaking in this part of the world for more than 8,000 years. Also learn more about the production of organic wines from varietal grapes that grow well in the Kakhetian micro-region, and sample the region’s wines. For lunch, enjoy a meal of traditional Georgian favorites at the on-site restaurant headed by chef Ketavan Mindorashvili, one of the country’s rising female culinary stars, who is also a professional polyphonic singer! Visit the modest Niko Pirosmeni House-Museum in Mirzaani, just outside of Signagi. Pirosmeni was (posthumously) the most famous Georgian artist of the 20th century. Our last visit of the day is to Lost Ridge Brewery, Georgia’s first country craft brewery, where we enjoy a tasting of craft beers with snacks. Return to our hotel in Tsinandali for the evening at leisure. (B,L)

Wednesday, October 18: Tsinandali: Alexander Chavchavadze Museum | Vincent Jullien’s wine cellar | Tbilisi

Check out of our hotel and take a walk through the park to the House Museum of Alexander Chavchavadze, a 19th-century Georgian aristocrat and poet. Here, he and his father founded the first and foremost winery in Georgia, which still produces the dry white Tsinandali wine. On our drive to Tbilisi we stop to visit the cellar of French vigneron Vincent Jullien, who uses endemic Georgian grapes to make spectacular, natural, sparkling wines using qvevri (ceramic vessels) for natural fermentation. Enjoy lunch and a Pét-Nat (pétillant naturel, or naturally sparkling) tasting while sitting on the terrace and soaking in the bucolic views. Arriving in Tbilisi, we check-in to our hotel and enjoy the evening at leisure. Overnight at the 5-star Tbilisi Marriott Hotel for five nights. (B,L)

Thursday, October 19: Tbilisi walking tour: Anchiskhati Basilica, sulfur baths, Simon Janashia Museum of Georgia, Sololaki District, Kebzari Jewelry Workshop & Educational Center

Enjoy a full-day tour of Tbilisi, beginning in the red-roofed Old Town. Visit the 6th-century Anchiskhati Basilica, the city’s oldest church, and then walk to see the sulfur baths. Hot springs lie just under the surface in the Old Town. The earliest sulfur baths were probably built during Arab rule in the 7th or 8th centuries, but most of the baths in use today were built in the 17th century. Continue on to the Simon Janashia Museum

THE AIA & AIA TOURS

The Archaeological Institute of America (AIA) is the oldest and largest archaeological organization in North America. The AIA seeks to educate people of all ages about the significance of archaeological discovery. For more than a century the AIA has been dedicated to the encouragement and support of archaeological research and publication, and to the protection of the world’s archaeological resources and cultural heritage. By traveling on an AIA Tour you directly support the AIA while personally gaining the benefit of the AIA’s network of scholars and worldwide contacts.

of Georgia, part of Georgia's National Museum, for a look at some of the country's most significant archaeological finds. The most famous exhibit may be the 1.8-million-year-old Homo erectus skulls unearthed at Dmanisi, a site that we will visit tomorrow. Explore the art nouveau Sololaki District, built in the 19th and early 20th centuries by Georgian and European architects. In recent years, many of Sololaki's beautifully-decorated façades have been renovated, and a growing number of hip cafés and restaurants has transformed it into the city's up-and-coming restaurant district. Our last stop of the afternoon is at designer Nino Mamulashvili's Kebzari Jewelry Workshop and Educational Center. Nino's designs feature beautiful pieces of jewelry that combine traditional aesthetics with modern touches and are inspired by the historical artifacts found in the Caucasus. Learn firsthand how they are manufactured in the workshop and enjoy an opportunity to meet with Nino and hear about the research, design, and history behind the jewelry. Dinner and the evening are at leisure to explore Tbilisi on your own. (B,L)

Friday, October 20: Bolnisi | Dmanisi | Tbilisi

Spend a day in the countryside, stopping first at Bolnisi to visit what is probably the oldest Christian church in Georgia. Called Sioni (Zion), the square stone church shelters what may be the oldest example of Georgian script in the country. After lunch at a local restaurant in Bolnisi we visit the archaeological site of Dmanisi, a 9th-century town overlooking the confluence of two rivers where Silk Road caravans used to pass. In the Middle Ages, townspeople dug cellars and storage pits through layers of strange bones and stone tools that in the 20th century were determined to belong to some of the earliest hominids found outside of Africa. The discovery here of five 1.8-million-year-old Homo erectus skulls has made Dmanisi crucial to the study of human evolution. Meet with a local archaeologist (schedule permitting) who will provide additional insights. Return to our hotel and gather this evening for dinner. (B,L,D)

Saturday, October 21: Mtskheta: Svetitskhoveli Cathedral, Jvari Monastery, Chateau Mukhrani winery | Dzalisi | Tbilisi

This morning we visit Mtskheta, a UNESCO World Heritage Site that was the capital of the eastern Georgian kingdom of Iberia from the 3rd century B.C. until the 5th century A.D. Georgia's conversion to Christianity took place here in A.D. 337, and the Orthodox churches built during this period are considered among the finest in the country. Also visit the 11th-century Svetitskhoveli Cathedral, considered a sacred pilgrimage destination, whose interior is decorated with frescoes and murals; and the 6th-century Jvari Monastery, with one of Georgia's first Christian churches. Stop for lunch at Chateau Mukhrani winery, where we stroll through the vineyards and enjoy a sampling of the traditional European-style wines produced here. We continue on to Dzalisi, a remarkably complex archaeological site from the period between the 5th and 8th centuries A.D., when it served as the capital of the Kartli Kingdom (also known as Iberia). Visible are the remains of four palaces, an acropolis, and barracks. Return to our hotel for an evening at leisure. (B,L)

Sunday, October 22: Gadachrili Gora | Tbilisi | Georgian Table

Set out for a visit to Gadachrili Gora, considered to be the location of the earliest winemaking in the world. Tartaric acid found on pottery fragments unearthed here and in the nearby Shulaveri Gora ("gora" means mound or hill) indicates that Neolithic farmers were making wine here 8,000 years ago. Return to our hotel in Tbilisi, and then gather for a special dinner at a local restaurant. Enjoy a Georgian-Table-style meal of traditional dishes such as chicken in crushed walnut sauce, katchapouri (a savory cheese pie), puff pastries, little meat dumplings called khinkali, and marinated vegetables, just to name a few. (B,L,D)

Monday, October 23: Sevanavank Monastery, ARMENIA | Yerevan

After breakfast, check out of our hotel and depart for the Sadakhlo crossing at the Georgia/Armenia border. Proceed through customs formalities, switch to an Armenian motor coach, and drive to the small mountain resort town of Dilijan, where we will stop for lunch. Also make a stop at Sevanavank Monastery located on stunning Lake Sevan, one of the largest alpine lakes in the world. Continue driving to Yerevan, where we check-in to our hotel and gather for a late dinner. Overnight at the 4-star Tufenkian Historic Yerevan Hotel for four nights. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, October 24: Yerevan: Erebuni, History Museum of Armenia, Republic Square, Mother Armenia, Genocide Memorial

Today we will explore Yerevan, a city older than Rome, founded as “Erebuni” in 782 B.C. In the 4th century, Armenia became the first country in Europe to adopt Christianity as its official religion. Start the day with a visit to the ruins of the citadel of Erebuni, built on a hill on the outskirts of present-day Yerevan. Its 36-foot-high stacked stone walls enclose the foundations of temples, dwellings, ceremonial courtyards, and storehouses. An excellent site museum houses many of its treasures, including splendid metalwork, cuneiform tablets, and weaponry. Return to central Yerevan and visit the History Museum of Armenia. Located in the central Republic Square, it features ancient models of Yerevan, thousands of original photographs and documents that chronicle Armenia’s history, and archaeological collections from the Neolithic period, including the world’s oldest known shoe from the Areni-1 cave complex.

We will also take a stroll in Republic Square, built of the characteristic pinkish tuff for which the city is known. Visit the giant “Cascade” stairway that links central Yerevan to the Mother Armenia Statue in Victory Park. Ride the escalators toward the top of the stairway, and walk the rest of the way up until you reach the Mother Armenia statue, designed so that its interior resembles the iconic Hripsimeh Church at Echmiadzin (which we visit on October 26th). Lastly, visit the Armenian Genocide Memorial, a stirring site in a park at the top of Tsitsernakaberd (“Swallow Castle”). According to scholarly estimates, more than one million Armenians perished between 1914 and 1918 as a result of policies of the last Ottoman government. Return to our hotel with the balance of the evening at leisure. (B,L)

Wednesday, October 25: Areni-1 Cave | Areni Winery | Khor Virap Monastery | Yerevan

This morning we drive to the Areni-1 cave complex, best known for the discovery of the world’s oldest leather shoe, unearthed in 2010 by an international team. The cave is also the location of a 2007 discovery of an ancient winery, dating to around 4000 B.C. Continue on to the family-run Areni Winery for a tasting of red and white wines, flavored vodkas, and wines made from unusual fruits such as pomegranates. Afterward we visit Khor Virap, a small monastery set on a ridge above the flat Ararat Valley, behind which looms snow-covered Mt. Ararat, associated with the Biblical story of Noah’s Ark. We return to Yerevan where, this evening, you may choose to join your guide for an optional walking tour of the open-air Vernissage Market, an excellent opportunity for shopping for locally-produced crafts and for people watching. Dinner is on your own. (B,L)

Thursday, October 26: Echmiadzin:
Hripsimeh Church, Zvartnots Cathedral |
Armenian Wind Instrument Studio |
Farewell dinner

This morning we explore the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Echmiadzin, founded as Vagarsapat in A.D. 117 and once the capital of Armenia. Also once the center of an agricultural area renowned for its fruit and wine, it is better known as the spiritual center of Armenia and the seat of its Catholicos, or Patriarch. Its 7th-century Hripsimeh Church sits on the foundations of the 4th-century mausoleum of martyred St. Hripsimeh, and its fabulous church treasury includes a piece of wood from Mt. Ararat said to be from Noah's Ark. Also see the ruins of the 7th-century Zvartnots Cathedral, once the largest round church in the world and, today, jointly a UNESCO World Heritage Site with Echmiadzin. After lunch, enjoy tea or coffee in an Armenian wind instrument studio, where we listen to the double-reeded duduk, with a sound reminiscent of a clarinet, and other instruments. Return to our hotel and freshen up for our farewell dinner at a local restaurant with Armenian folk music. (B,L,D)

Friday, October 27: Fly home

Transfer to Zvartnots International Airport (EVN) for flights homeward. (B)

WHAT TO EXPECT

ACTIVE: Must be able to walk three or more miles per day on mostly uneven terrain, and up and down inclines and steps.

This program is strenuous, and you must be in good physical health to participate due to the daily walking involved, steps at many of the sites, length of some bus rides, and overall infrastructure shortcomings. To reap the full rewards of this adventure, travelers must be able to walk at least several miles a day, keeping up with the group. All participants are expected to be physically active and not be an impediment to others on excursions. Participants who are not able to walk or stand unassisted for extended periods are kindly advised not to join this tour. All participants will be required to follow safety/sanitization protocols set forth by Sponsors/Operator, local staff, and host country laws. If the tour manager decides that a participant cannot visit a site safely or in a timely manner, their judgment will be final. Where possible, an alternate activity may be suggested, and additional costs may apply. If you have any questions about your ability to participate, we suggest that you visit your personal physician with this brochure in hand, and discuss whether or not the program is appropriate for you.

Our 4- and 5-star accommodations are chosen for their comfort and locations. It is important to keep in mind that some of the facilities in the South Caucasus are not up to the standards many North American travelers expect. Services are improving, although you may encounter issues with bureaucratic service, road conditions, unpaved sidewalks, uneven surfaces, and availability and quality of public restrooms. Flexibility, a sense of humor, enjoyment of group travel, and a willingness to accept cultural differences and local standards of amenities are essential components to the full appreciation of this trip.

In October, average daytime temperatures are in the 60s to low 70s F. Evening temperatures can dip down to the mid 40s F. There is a slight possibility of rain, albeit unlikely in October. Complete pre-departure details, including up-to-date COVID-related protocols, will be sent to participants.

Flights and Transfers

Airfare from/to home is not included in the tour price. Airport transfers on arrival at Baku Heydar Aliyev International Airport (GYD) and for departure from Zvartnots International Airport (EVN), on program dates, are included. Please contact MIR Corp. at 206-696-7052 or by email at dmitry@mircorp.com for assistance with making your flight arrangements. If you choose to arrange your flights independently, please check with AIA Tours before booking non-refundable airline tickets. Your flight itinerary must be provided to our office prior to departure. We do not accept liability for cancellation penalties related to domestic or international airline tickets.

Prices Do Not Include: Airfare from/to home; all airport fees and departure taxes; independent transfers; passport and visa fees; cost of personal, trip cancellation, and baggage insurance; medical or emergency evacuation costs; transportation of excess baggage; meals or beverages other than indicated; personal tips; items of a personal nature, such as laundry, taxi, telephone, and fax charges; optional excursions or deviations from scheduled tour; other items not expressly listed as included.

Payments: A deposit of $1,000 per person is required to reserve your space on the tour and is payable by Visa, MasterCard, American Express, or check made payable to "EOS-Passenger Account-AIA Caucasus10/23." Final payment is due 90 days prior to departure and must be by check, ACH transfer, or wire transfer only; credit cards are not accepted for final payment. By submitting your deposit, you are bound by the terms and conditions delineated throughout this brochure or elsewhere published.

Participant Cancellation Fees: All requests by participants for cancellations must be received in writing by AIA Tours. Cancellations received at least 180 days (April 15, 2023) prior to departure are fully refunded. Cancellations received from 179 days through 90 days (July 14, 2023) prior to departure are refunded less a cancellation fee of $250 per person. Cancellations received from 89 through 61 days prior to departure are subject to a cancellation fee equal to 50% of the tour cost. Cancellations received 60 days or less prior to departure are subject to a cancellation fee of 100% of the tour cost. For this and other reasons, participants are strongly encouraged to purchase trip cancellation insurance. Information will be provided with confirmation of receipt of your deposit.

Note: Prices are based on tariffs and exchange rates in effect at the time of publication and are subject to change prior to departure. Substantial changes in tariffs, exchange rates, and the price of fuel, services, and labor may increase the cost of arrangements significantly, and we reserve the right to alter our prices.

Prices, itinerary, guest experts, accommodations, and leader are subject to change. Prices quoted are based on group participation and no refunds will be made for any part of the program in which you choose not to participate nor to participants who do not complete the tour for whatever reason.

Due to space limitations, this is abbreviated information. Complete terms and conditions will be sent upon confirmation or upon request, and can be viewed online at www.aiatours.org.

Origins of Humans & Wine:

Azerbaijan, Georgia & Armenia

October 12-27, 2023 (16 days | 14 guests)
with paleoanthropologist Ian Tattersall

“Dr. T. was straight out of Central Casting - urbane, articulate, humorous, witty, gracious. His knowledge was vast and deep, without being showy. He had enchanting anecdotes up his sleeve for every occasion, and could explain any and everything with the charming turn of phrase and originality that is his hallmark.”

All participants will be required to follow safety/sanitization protocols set forth by Sponsors/Operator, local staff, and host country laws, and any participant who refuses to follow protocols may be asked to leave the program with no refunds provided. REFUNDS: Prices quoted are based on group participation. No refunds will be made for any part of the program in which a participant chooses not to participate. Refunds cannot be made to participants who do not complete the tour for any reason, nor to participants whose entry into any country or aboard any transportation vehicle, including airplanes and cruise ships, is delayed or denied. TOUR CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS: Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to cancel this tour prior to departure, in which case payment will be refunded without further obligation on our part unless trip cancellation, itinerary changes, and/or delays are mandated by causes beyond our control, in which case the participant shall have the option of accepting in lieu of the original tour such rescheduled tour or other substituted tour(s) as may be offered by Sponsors/Operator, or else receiving a refund of as much of such advance tour expenditures as Sponsors/Operator are able to recover on the participant's behalf from carriers, third-party tour vendors, etc. Sponsors/Operator, however, shall not have any obligation or liability to the participant beyond the foregoing. TRIP INSURANCE: Sponsors/Operator strongly recommend that participants purchase trip cancellation insurance. In the event that you must cancel your participation, trip cancellation insurance may be the only source of reimbursement. Trip cancellation insurance is available through Sponsors/Operator and others and covers certain expenses in conjunction with cancellation due to illness or accident and damaged or lost luggage. Sponsors/Operator will send participants an application upon receipt of their reservation. PRICES: Prices quoted are based on fares in effect at the time of publication and are subject to changes at any time. On all programs, even after full payment, Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to increase the tour price in the event of cost increases due to changes in supplier costs, tax increases, currency fluctuations, or fuel and energy surcharges, and all such increases are to be paid to Sponsors/Operator upon notice to the participant. FORUM AND METHODOLOGY FOR DISPUTE RESOLUTION: Any dispute or claim which refers or relates to this contract, any literature related to the trip, or the trip itself shall be litigated solely and exclusively in and for courts in Keene, New Hampshire, subject to substantive and procedural New Hampshire law, and for this limited purpose, the parties agree to exclusive venue and personal jurisdiction therein. At the participant's option, however, in lieu of litigation, Sponsors/Operator will agree to binding arbitration in Keene, New Hampshire, subject to substantive, but not procedural, New Hampshire law, pursuant to the then existing commercial rules of the American Arbitration Association. In any such arbitration, the arbitrator, and not any federal, state, or local court or agency, shall have exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the interpretation, applicability, enforceability, conscionability, or formation of this contract, including but not limited to any claim that all or any part of this contract is void or voidable. U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT & CENTERS FOR DISEASE CONTROL: Both the Centers for Disease Control and U.S. State Department publish and update important country-specific information for travelers. We strongly recommend that you review them. They can presently be found at: <https://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/notices> and <https://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/alertswarnings.html>. ASSUMPTION OF RISK: Participants agree to fully accept all known and unknown risks, including the potential risk of exposure to respiratory illnesses or other illnesses, viruses, diseases, or conditions. Participants understand and agree to hold Sponsors/Operator, their officers, vendors and suppliers harmless and not liable for any real or perceived symptoms of any disease, virus, illness, or condition, nor for exacerbating any existing symptoms of any illness, virus, disease or condition, quarantine requirements, disability, and other short-term and long-term health effects, including death. MISCELLANEOUS: Participants should not purchase airline tickets prior to receiving their final payment invoice so as to avoid airline cancellation penalties if a tour is canceled or otherwise modified subsequent to the participant's purchase of those tickets. Baggage and personal effects are at all times the sole responsibility of the participant. If, due to weather, flight schedules, or other uncontrollable factors, you are required to spend (an) additional night(s), you will be responsible for your own hotel, transfers, and meal costs. Baggage is entirely at owner's risk. Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to decline to accept or retain any participant at any time. The right is reserved to decline to accept as a participant, or remove from a trip, without refund, any person it judges to be incapable of meeting the rigors and requirements of participating in the activities, or who is abusive to other trip participants, leaders, or third parties, or who is determined to detract from the enjoyment of the trip by others. Specific room assignments are within the sole discretion of the hotel. APPEARING IN PHOTOS: Photos from AIA Tours' trips may be posted on photo-sharing web sites or on social networking sites. Your likeness may appear in some photos or videos, posted either by other travelers or tour lecturers/guides, and the circulation of the materials could be worldwide. Trip photos may also be selected to appear in future AIA Tours promotions; no compensation is available for appearing in a trip photo used for promotional purposes. ACCEPTANCE OF CONTRACT: By forwarding of deposit, the participant certifies that he/she agrees with these terms and conditions, and accepts the terms contained in these Terms and Conditions, Release of Liability, Assumption of Risk and Dispute Resolution Agreement. The participant affirms that he/she has not received or relied upon any oral representation of Sponsors/Operator as a basis for executing this Release.
