Archaeology-focused tours for the curious to the connoisseur

Archaeological Institute of America Lecturer and Host

Okasha El Daly (Ph.D., University College London) is an Egyptian historian specializing in the history, art, religion, and languages of Egypt. His research interests cover the history and cultural heritage of Egypt from the birth of its civilization to its contemporary history and current affairs. Dr. El Daly's main interest is exploring links and relationships between cultures, past and present, which was motivated by his extensive travel between ancient lands in Africa, Asia, Europe, and Latin America. He has taught in Egypt, the UK, and Qatar such subjects as History of Egyptian Art, History of Egyptian Archaeology, Egyptian Religion, and Historical Geography of the Nile Valley. Over the course of 12 years (1980-92) he served as Inspector of Antiquities in the Giza Pyramids Area, worked as a guide and lecturer in Egypt, and lectured on the AIA's national lecture circuit. He has also been Director of several international projects, including the Foundation for Science, Technology, and Civilisation in the UK; and the recent Qatar-Sudan Archaeological Project.

Dr. El Daly has authored, translated and edited several books and articles on ancient Egypt and the history of science. He has appeared in several documentaries for international TV channels, and is a public speaker on the cultural heritage of the Middle East and an invited keynote speaker at many international Egyptological circuits. University College London Press published his popular book, Egyptology: The Missing Millennium (2005). This book covers a thousand years of interest in ancient Egypt, from classical writers to modern Egyptology, showing that medieval scholars in Egypt and beyond were as keen as we are on exploring ancient Egyptian sciences and arts. Dr. El Daly has led two prior AIA Tours in Egypt, including this very program in 2023, and he looks forward to sharing Egypt through the Ages with you next year.

"This trip was just incredible, I enjoyed every site. It was wonderful to visit some excavation places that are not open to the public view and to talk to the specialists involved. It was also wonderful to have such knowledgeable archaeologists as Mahmoud and Dr. Okasha at our side." - Samuel, Mexico

Dear traveler,

This unique trip combines the very best of the ancient pharaonic sites with later Coptic (early Christian) and medieval Islamic sites. This is a luxurious, in-depth, small-group, all-inclusive, well-paced, 17-day trip.

- Learn with a distinguished and engaging Egyptian scholar plus one of Egypt's most experienced tour managers/guides.
- Travel with a maximum of just 16 guests plus your two leaders.
- Enjoy the best accommodations, including 11 nights at luxurious, 5-star hotels in Giza, Cairo, Luxor, and Aswan; and a three-night Nile cruise aboard a comfortable, eight-cabin dahabiya (traditional Nile sail boat).

Highlights include:

- Touring the amazing Giza pyramids and Sphinx as well as Saqqara's Step Pyramid of Djoser and recently discovered, closed-to-the-public, Tomb of Wah Ti.
- Exploring spectacular museum collections in Cairo: the Coptic Museum, the Museum of Islamic Art, and either the historic Egyptian Museum OR, if it is open, enjoy a full day at the new Grand Egyptian Museum (GEM) in Giza.
- Discovering with your experts one of the world's greatest cities— Cairo, the "City of 1,000 Minarets." See magnificent Islamic architecture spanning the Fatimid, Mameluke, Circassian, Ayyubid, and Ottoman periods.
- Exploring the astounding temple complex of Karnak as well as Luxor Temple, plus spectacular royal mortuary temples and tombs in the Valleys of the Kings and Queens, such as those of Seti I and Nefertari.
- Cruising the Nile from Esna to Aswan aboard an eight-cabin sail boat, away from the convoys of large riverboats, so that we visit remarkable temples without the typical crowds. From the spacious top deck, observe timeless pastoral scenes of feluccas, farmers, herders, and village life.
- Flying to Abu Simbel to visit the stunning and enormous rock-cut temples of Ramesses II and Nefertari.
- The option to extend your trip with the five-day, post-tour extension to Wadi El Natrun and Alexandria.

I hope that you will join our distinguished leaders to learn about "Egypt through the Ages."

Sincerely,

Lauren Cummings

Itinerary

(B)= Breakfast, (L)= Lunch, (R)= Reception, (D)= Dinner

Tuesday, January 16, 2024: Depart home

Wednesday, January 17: Arrive Cairo, Egypt | Private transfer to hotel in Giza

You will be met upon arrival at Cairo's airport and transferred to Giza's historic Mena House, a palatial hotel set amid 40 acres of gardens, with magnificent views of the adjacent Great Pyramid of Khufu (Cheops). Gather for dinner at our hotel. Overnight at the 5-star Marriott Mena House hotel (Pyramid View rooms) for six nights. (D)

Thursday, January 18: Giza Plateau | Welcome dinner

Spend the morning exploring the Giza Plateau, including the Great Pyramid of Khufu; Eastern Cemetery, with its vibrantly decorated mastaba of Meresankh III; mortuary temple of Khufu; timeless Sphinx; and nearby Valley Temple of Khafra. After lunch at a nearby restaurant we return to our hotel. This evening we gather for a welcome reception and dinner with our AIA lecturer/host and local tour manager/guide. (B,L,R,D)

Friday, January 19: Egyptian Museum or Grand Egyptian Museum (GEM) | Giza

We will spend a full day visiting the historic and renowned Egyptian Museum (formally known as the Museum of Egyptian Antiquities) to see treasures of the pharaohs, including magnificent artifacts from the royal tombs of Tanis. Alternatively, if the new Grand Egyptian Museum (GEM) is open, we will spend a full day there instead to see Tutankhamun's funerary collection, colossal statues of Ramesses the Great, and more. Gather this evening for dinner. (B,L,D)

Saturday, January 20: Saqqara | Ramses Wissa Wassef Arts Centre | Giza

Today we visit the extraordinary and vast necropolis at Saqqara, where we see the Step Pyramid of Djoser (the earliest colossal stone building in Egypt); the pyramid and causeway of Unas; the mastaba (rectangular tomb) of the "two brothers," Nyankhkhnum and Khnumhotep; and (pending permission) the recently discovered, closed-to-the-public, 5th-dynasty Tomb of Wah Ti. After an outdoor lunch at Saqqara Palm Club, we return to Saqqara and see other recent tomb excavations (pending permission). On our way back to the Mena House hotel, we will stop briefly at the Ramses Wissa Wassef Arts Centre, a series of vaulted and domed mud-brick structures containing weaving workshops, showrooms, and a pottery and sculpture museum. Gather for dinner at our hotel. (B,L,D)

Sunday, January 21: Medieval Cairo: Museum of Islamic Art, walking tour, Bayt Al-Suhaymi | Giza

This morning we visit the Museum of Islamic Art, which houses more than 100,000 artifacts ranging from textiles and carpets to ivory, ceramic, wood, metal, glass, and much more. Then we have a guided walking tour through the bustling streets of medieval Cairo ("the city of 1,000 minarets"), admiring magnificent Islamic architecture that is embellished with exquisite mashrabiya (woodwork) façades, painted mosaics, and decorative domes. Your AIA lecturer/host, Dr. El Daly, is an expert on the reuse of Pharaonic stonework in Christian and Islamic buildings, examples of which we will see. Over many centuries, Fatimid, Mameluke, Circassian, Ayyubid, and Ottoman rulers all enhanced the character of this historic center by building splendid mosques, sabils (water fountains), kuttabs (Qur'anic schools), madrassas (schools), houses, and wekalas (trade complexes). Enjoy lunch and browsing in Khan el-Khalili, the famous souq (bazaar), ending with a visit to Bayt Al-Suhaymi (House of Suhaymi), a superb example of a wealthy private residence dating back to 1648 and beautifully restored in the late 20th century. We return to our hotel before gathering for dinner. (B,L,D)

Monday, January 22: Medieval Cairo: Al-Fustat, Hanging Church, Coptic Museum, Sha'ar HaShamayim Synagogue | Giza

Start our day by visiting Al-Fustat, the oldest Islamic capital of Egypt. Next, we see the nearby Coptic Hanging Church, also called the Suspended Church or Al-Moallaqa.

This unique church got its name from the fact that it was built over the southern gate of the Roman Fortress of Babylon, which became the church's foundation. Next, we visit the Coptic Museum to learn more about the history of Christianity in Egypt. After a lunch overlooking the Nile, we visit the only active synagogue in Egypt, Sha'ar Hashamayim. Return to our hotel and pack for tomorrow's early flight before gathering for dinner. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, January 23: Fly to Luxor | Karnak Temple | Luxor Temple

Transfer early this morning to the airport for our flight to Luxor. Once in Luxor we take a short drive through town to Karnak, the world's largest temple complex (built over the course of 2,000 years), where a generous amount of time is scheduled for exploring. Our visit will include Karnak's Open-Air Museum, which has on display many newly reconstructed buildings. Check-in to our elegant, historic hotel on the east bank of the Nile and enjoy lunch and some time at leisure to relax and enjoy the gardens and pool. Before dinner we visit the adjacent Luxor Temple, which is illuminated to striking effect. Overnight at the 5-star Sofitel Old Winter Palace hotel (Luxury Garden View rooms) for two nights. (B,L,D)

Wednesday, January 24: Valley of the Kings | Deir el Bahari | Luxor Museum

In the Valley of the Kings, our morning exploration includes several royal tombs, including the legendary Tomb of Tutankhamen and the spectacular Tomb of Seti I. Continue on to the stunning mortuary temple of Hatshepsut at Deir el Bahari, including the Third Terrace Sanctuary of Amun with its beautifully preserved painted decoration. After lunch we return to the east bank of the Nile and visit the small, but excellent, Luxor Museum. Return to our hotel and then gather for dinner. (B,L,D)

Thursday, January 25: Valley of the Queens | Deir el Medina | Esna | Embarkation

Spend the morning in the Valley of the Queens, where we gain access to the touching Tomb of Khaemwaset, a young son of Ramesses III; and the Tomb of Nefertari, often called the most beautiful tomb in Egypt. Continue on to Deir el Medina, the ancient village of the workers who built the pharaohs' tombs, where we visit the beautifully preserved Tomb of Sennedjem and the recently restored Ptolemaic Temple of Hathor. Our last visit on the west bank is the tomb of Ramose.

Drive to Esna and visit the recently restored temple of Khnum, with its wonderful astronomical ceiling and previously unknown names of ancient Egyptian constellations. Afterward, we embark our sailing vessels, traditional Nile sail boats called dahabiyas, which will be our homes-away-from-home for the next three nights. Our group will sail aboard two of these smaller-sized vessels that will travel together and avoid the crowds cruising in a convoy of large Nile riverboats. Enjoy a late lunch as we sail up the Nile. The afternoon is at leisure until we gather for dinner onboard. Overnight aboard an eight-cabin dahabiya for three nights. (B,L,D)

Friday, January 26: El Kab | Edfu | Sailing the Nile

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast onboard before visiting El Kab, one of the oldest settlements of Upper Egypt and a famous necropolis with remarkable tombs of nobles and army generals. Continue to the city of Edfu for a tour of the Ptolemaic Temple of Horus, Egypt's most complete and best-preserved temple. Return to our dahabiyas and relax as we sail up the Nile, stopping at a village community to learn about daily life and farming. This evening, enjoy an onboard dinner of Egyptian specialties presented with a performance of local music and dancing. (B,L,D)

Saturday, January 27: Gebel el-Silsila | Kom Ombo | Sailing the Nile

Set out this morning to visit Gebel el-Silsila, located at the narrowest point along the entire length of the Nile. It was the location of a major New Kingdom sandstone quarry and workshop, where artifacts and tombs have been discovered. Sail onward to the twin Temples of Sobek and Horus at Kom Ombo, including a visit to the magnificent (though small) Crocodile Museum. Continue cruising to Aswan, and partake in a final gala dinner onboard. (B,L,D)

Sunday, January 28: Aswan: Disembarkation, Philae, Souq

Disembark this morning at Aswan and visit the ancient granite quarry with its unfinished obelisk. Board a motor boat for a short ride to the island of Philae to visit the Temple of Isis, a UNESCO World Heritage Site that has been called Egypt's most beautiful temple. After lunch we check-in to our recently renovated hotel with stunning views of the Nile. Tonight, we take a walk through Aswan's souq (bazaar), the most charming and traditional in Egypt, featuring interesting Nubian ethnographic items such as baskets, pottery, and scarves that are unique to the Aswan area. We gather for dinner at the hotel. Overnight in the Nile wing of the 5-star Sofitel Legend Old Cataract Aswan hotel for two nights. (B,L,D)

Monday, January 29: Aswan: Felucca ride to Elephantine Island, Nubia Museum, boat ride through Nile's First Cataract, PM at leisure

After breakfast, we board a felucca (small, traditional sailing vessel) to visit the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Elephantine Island, where a 1st-dynasty fortress was built to defend Egypt's southern frontier, and which was the main cult center of the god Khnum, his wife, and his daughter. Visit Aswan's elegant Nubia Museum,

"This tour was outstanding in all respects: It provided a clear introduction to the historical, intellectual, and aesthetic contributions of Egyptian culture while also sharing how to look at the monuments and what questions to ask of them."

which exhibits many of the more than 3,000 artifacts recovered during the excavations of Nubian sites that were threatened by the construction of the High Dam, and then take a motor boat through the Nile’s First Cataract to have lunch at a Nubian restaurant. We return to our hotel for the rest of the afternoon at leisure, gathering again for dinner. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, January 30: Fly to Abu Simbel

Today we transfer to the airport for our flight to Abu Simbel, where we visit the two world-famous, rock-cut temples of Ramesses II, built to honor himself and his queen, Nefertari. Moved when the Aswan High Dam was built, they are a marvel of ancient and modern engineering. We will not be rushed or worry about crowds, as most tourists do not overnight here. This evening at Abu Simbel we will enjoy one of the best sound and light shows in Egypt. Overnight at the 4-star Seti Abu Simbel Lake Resort (or similar). (B,L,D)

Wednesday, January 31: Fly to Cairo | Farewell dinner

Transfer to the airport early this morning for a short flight to Aswan, connecting to our flight to Cairo. Upon arrival, check-in to our luxurious airport hotel, which features fully sound-proofed rooms. Gather tonight for a festive farewell reception and dinner at our hotel. Overnight at the 5-star Le Méridien Cairo Airport hotel. (B,L,R,D)

Thursday, February 1: Fly home OR continue on the optional extension

Check out this morning and enter the airport (our hotel has direct access to Terminal 3 via footbridge, as well as a free shuttle to Terminal 2) to catch flights homeward. Or, continue on to the Wadi El Natrun & Alexandria extension. (B)

What to Expect

MODERATE: Must be able to walk one to three miles per day on mostly flat, but often uneven, terrain.

You must be able to make long walks, unassisted, over uneven terrain and up and down steps. Participants who are not able to walk or stand unassisted for extended periods are kindly advised not to join this tour. All participants are expected to be physically active and not be an impediment to others on excursions, to enjoy traveling as part of a group, and to be ready to experience cultural differences. Some sites require strenuous and/or brisk walking or climbing, sometimes with difficult footing. All participants will be required to follow safety/sanitization protocols set forth by Sponsors/Operator, local staff, and host country laws. If the tour manager decides that a participant cannot visit a site safely or in a timely manner, their judgment will be final. Where possible, an alternate activity may be suggested; additional costs may apply. If you have any questions about your ability to participate, we suggest that you visit your personal physician with this brochure in hand and discuss whether or not this program is appropriate for you. Hotels have been chosen for their excellent locations and generous comfort. At the time of year that we visit Egypt the weather is sunny and dry. Average daytime temperatures may range from the mid-60s to the mid-70s F, and nighttime temperatures may dip into the high 40s F. Complete pre-departure details will be sent to participants.

ITINERARY

(B)= Breakfast, (L)= Lunch, (D)= Dinner

Thursday, February 1, 2024: Cairo | Wadi El Natrun monasteries | Alexandria

This morning we drive northwest of Cairo to Wadi El Natrun, located in the desert halfway between Cairo and Alexandria. This Wadi, with its 1,500-year-old monasteries, may be considered the historical center of Coptic Christianity and is on the Tentative List of UNESCO World Heritage Sites. After visiting one of the four active monasteries, we will enjoy a discussion with one of the monks, have lunch, and then continue driving to Alexandria. Check-in to our hotel and then gather for dinner. Overnight in the Nile wing of the 4-star Steigenberger Cecil Hotel for three nights. (L,D)

Friday, February 2: Alexandria: National Museum, Kom al-Dikka, Bibliotheca Alexandrina

This morning is dedicated to exploring some of the jewels of Alexandria beginning with the Alexandria National Museum, whose exhibits span the city's history from antiquity to the modern period. In recent years, many significant finds have been recovered from Alexandria's harbor through underwater archaeology, and we will see some of these portions of monumental sculpture and architecture at Kom al-Dikka, where we will also see the ruins of the Roman amphitheater (the only one in Egypt). This afternoon we visit the architecturally stunning Bibliotheca Alexandrina, a recently completed modern interpretation of the famous ancient library. Here, in addition to the innovative building, are extraordinary documents and artifacts, and an excellent museum that displays finds made during the construction of the Library, including a superb mosaic. Return to our hotel and gather for dinner. (B,L,D)

Saturday, February 3: Alexandria: Catacombs, Pompey's Pillar

This morning we tour the impressive, 2nd-century A.D. catacombs of Kom Ash Shuqqafa (also Kom el Shoqafa), the largest-known Roman burial site in Egypt. Its three tiers of underground tombs and chambers, accessed via spiral staircase, reflect Pharaonic, Hellenistic, and Roman architectural elements and painting styles. Continue on to see Pompey's Pillar, a 3rd-century, pink granite triumphal column set amid the remains of the acropolis of the Serapeum. Return to our hotel and gather for dinner. (B,L,D)

Sunday, February 4: Alexandria | Cairo

Today we drive to Cairo and check-in to our luxurious airport hotel, which features fully sound-proofed rooms, direct access to Terminal 3 via footbridge, as well as a free shuttle to Terminal 2. Dinner is at the hotel. Overnight at the 5-star Le Méridien Cairo Airport hotel. (B,L,D)

TERMS AND CONDITIONS, RELEASE OF LIABILITY, ASSUMPTION OF RISK, AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION AGREEMENT

RESPONSIBILITY: The Archaeological Institute of America and its agent, Eos Study Tours, and its and their employees, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors or trustees, successors, and assigns (hereinafter "Sponsors"), and the tour operator and/or its agents (collectively "Sponsors/Operator") do not own or operate any entity which is to or does provide goods or services for your trip including, for example, lodging facilities; airline, vessel, or other transportation companies; guides or guide services; local ground operators; providers or organizers of optional excursions; food service or entertainment providers; etc. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, Sponsors/Operator are not liable for any negligent or willful act or failure to act of any such person or of any other third party. In addition and without limitation, Sponsors/Operator are not responsible for any injury, loss, death, inconvenience, delay, or damage to person or property in connection with the provision of any goods or services whether resulting from, but not limited to, acts of force majeure; acts of God; acts of government; acts of war or civil unrest, insurrection, or revolt; bites from or attacks by animals, insects, or pests; strikes or other labor activities; criminal or terrorist activities of any kind or the threat thereof; sickness, illness, epidemics, pandemics, or the threat thereof; the lack of availability of or access to medical attention or the quality thereof; overbooking or downgrading of accommodations; mechanical or other failure of airplanes, vessels, or other means of transportation; or for any failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart timely or safely. In addition, Sponsors/Operator are not liable for their own negligence, and participant assumes all risk thereof. CHANGES IN ITINERARY OR FEATURES: Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to change the itinerary or trip features at any time and for any reason, with or without notice, and Sponsors/Operator shall not be liable for any loss of any kind as a result of any such changes. Sponsors/Operator are not required to cancel any trip for any reason including, without limitation, United States Department of State, World Health Organization, or other Warnings or Advisories of any kind. Sponsors/Operator are not responsible for penalties assessed by air carriers resulting from operational and/or itinerary changes, even if Sponsors/Operator make the flight arrangements or cancel the trip. Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to substitute hotels or attractions of a similar category for those listed in this brochure. LUGGAGE: Luggage allowance policies are set by the airlines and may change without prior notice. PHYSICAL ACCESSIBILITY: All programs require physical independence and mobility. Any physical or mental condition that may require special medical attention or physical assistance must be reported in writing when you make your reservation. Participants must be able to embark or disembark transportation vehicles, stand for extended periods, climb stairs, and step over raised thresholds all without assistance. All participants will be required to follow safety/sanitization protocols set forth by Sponsors/Operator, local staff, and host country laws, and any participant who refuses to follow protocols may be asked to leave the program with no refunds provided. REFUNDS: Prices quoted are based on group participation. No refunds will be made for any part of the program in which a participant chooses not to participate. Refunds cannot be made to participants who do not complete the tour for any reason, nor to participants whose entry into any country or aboard any transportation vehicle, including airplanes and cruise ships, is delayed or denied. TOUR CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS: Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to cancel this tour prior to departure, in which case payment will be refunded without further obligation on our part unless trip cancellation, itinerary changes, and/or delays are mandated by causes beyond our control, in which case the participant shall have the option of accepting in lieu of the original tour such rescheduled tour or other substituted tour(s) as may be offered by Sponsors/Operator, or else receiving a refund of as much of such advance tour expenditures as Sponsors/Operator are able to recover on the participant's behalf from carriers, third-party tour vendors, etc. Sponsors/Operator, however, shall not have any obligation or liability to the participant beyond the foregoing. TRIP INSURANCE: Sponsors/Operator strongly recommend that participants purchase trip cancellation insurance. In the event that you must cancel your participation, trip cancellation insurance may be the only source of reimbursement. Trip cancellation insurance is available through Sponsors/Operator and others and covers certain expenses in conjunction with cancellation due to illness or accident and damaged or lost luggage. Sponsors/Operator will send participants an application upon receipt of their reservation. PRICES: Prices quoted are based on fares in effect at the time of publication and are subject to changes at any time. On all programs, even after full payment, Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to increase the tour price in the event of cost increases due to changes in supplier costs, tax increases, currency fluctuations, or fuel and energy surcharges, and all such increases are to be paid to Sponsors/Operator upon notice to the participant. FORUM AND METHODOLOGY FOR DISPUTE RESOLUTION: Any dispute or claim which refers or relates to this contract, any literature related to the trip, or the trip itself shall be litigated solely and exclusively in and for courts in Keene, New Hampshire, subject to substantive and procedural New Hampshire law, and for this limited purpose, the parties agree to exclusive venue and personal jurisdiction therein. At the participant's option, however, in lieu of litigation, Sponsors/Operator will agree to binding arbitration in Keene, New Hampshire, subject to substantive, but not procedural, New Hampshire law, pursuant to the then existing commercial rules of the American Arbitration Association. In any such arbitration, the arbitrator, and not any federal, state, or local court or agency, shall have exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the interpretation, applicability, enforceability, conscionability, or formation of this contract, including but not limited to any claim that all or any part of this contract is void or voidable. U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT & CENTERS FOR DISEASE CONTROL: Both the Centers for Disease Control and U.S. State Department publish and update important country-specific information for travelers. We strongly recommend that you review them. They can presently be found at: <https://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/notices> and <https://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/alertswarnings.html>. ASSUMPTION OF RISK: Participants agree to fully accept all known and unknown risks, including the potential risk of exposure to respiratory illnesses or other illnesses, viruses, diseases, or conditions. Participants understand and agree to hold Sponsors/Operator, their officers, vendors and suppliers harmless and not liable for any real or perceived symptoms of any disease, virus, illness, or condition, nor for exacerbating any existing symptoms of any illness, virus, disease or condition, quarantine requirements, disability, and other short-term and long-term health effects, including death. MISCELLANEOUS: Participants should not purchase airline tickets prior to receiving their final payment invoice so as to avoid airline cancellation penalties if a tour is canceled or otherwise modified subsequent to the participant's purchase of those tickets. Baggage and personal effects are at all times the sole responsibility of the participant. If, due to weather, flight schedules, or other uncontrollable factors, you are required to spend (an) additional night(s), you will be responsible for your own hotel, transfers, and meal costs. Baggage is entirely at owner's risk. Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to decline to accept or retain any participant at any time. The right is reserved to decline to accept as a participant, or remove from a trip, without refund, any person it judges to be incapable of meeting the rigors and requirements of participating in the activities, or who is abusive to other trip participants, leaders, or third parties, or who is determined to detract from the enjoyment of the trip by others. Specific room assignments are within the sole discretion of the hotel. APPEARING IN PHOTOS: Photos from AIA Tours' trips may be posted on photo-sharing web sites or on social networking sites. Your likeness may appear in some photos or videos, posted either by other travelers or tour lecturers/guides, and the circulation of the materials could be worldwide. Trip photos may also be selected to appear in future AIA Tours promotions; no compensation is available for appearing in a trip photo used for promotional purposes. ACCEPTANCE OF CONTRACT: By forwarding of deposit, the participant certifies that he/she agrees with these terms and conditions, and accepts the terms contained in these Terms and Conditions, Release of Liability, Assumption of Risk and Dispute Resolution Agreement. The participant affirms that he/she has not received or relied upon any oral representation of Sponsors/Operator as a basis for executing this Release.
