Archaeology-focused tours for the curious to the connoisseur

Archaeological Institute of America Lecturer and Host

Since 2002,
Stephen Harvey (Ph.D., U. of PA) has accompanied 25 AIA Tours
of Egypt, plus AIA Tours
land programs
in Jordan and

Sudan, and an AIA-sponsored cruise from Jordan to Cyprus via Egypt and Lebanon, all to excellent reviews.

Since 1993, Steve has been Director of the Ahmose and Tetisheri Project, which centers on excavation of the monumental complex of King Ahmose at Abydos, under the aegis of the Pennsylvania-Yale-Institute of Fine
Arts, NYU Expedition to Abydos.
Steve's fieldwork in and around the pyramid complex of Ahmose (ca. 1550-1525 B.C.) has provided important new insight into temple architecture and decoration at the outset of Egypt's New Kingdom. He has been working on archaeological projects in Egypt (including at Giza and Memphis) since 1987, and has also worked on projects in the U.S., Syria, and Turkey. Steve has been consulted on and interviewed for a number of television documentaries
for NOVA on PBS, the History Channel, National Geographic, and the Travel Channel (among others).
In 2013-14 and 2008-09, he lectured on the Archaeological Institute of America's national circuit. Steve has also been a lecturer on many study tours to Egypt sponsored by major U.S.
and UK institutions.

ARCHAEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE OF AMERICA TOURS

Dear traveler,

This itinerary is carefully crafted to provide discerning travelers with the finest Egypt tour available. Our 19-day program is the most in-depth exploration of ancient Egypt's greatest sites, combining all the best attributes of a small-group, all-inclusive, well-paced, luxury trip.

- Learn with a distinguished and engaging American scholar plus a wonderful local Egyptologist and an excellent tour manager. This trio has been receiving accolades for many years.
- Travel with a maximum of just 16 guests plus your trio of leaders.
- Enjoy the best accommodations, including 11 nights at luxurious, 5-star hotels in Cairo, Luxor, Aswan, and Giza; two nights at the historic 4-star Sofitel Winter Palace Luxor Hotel; and a four-night Nile cruise aboard a comfortable, eight-cabin dahabiya (traditional Nile sail boat).
- Meet with excavators and conservators, including behind-the-scenes visits, when possible.
- Discover the preeminent sites of the pharaohs from Cairo to Luxor, Aswan, and Abu Simbel:
 - Spend two full days exploring the Grand Egyptian Museum.
 - See the amazing Giza pyramids and Sphinx as well as Saqqara's Step Pyramid of Djoser and the closed-to-the-public Tomb of Wah Ti.
 - Explore the astounding temple complex of Karnak as well as Luxor Temple, plus spectacular royal mortuary temples and tombs in the Valley of the Kings.
 - Visit two remarkable, less-visited temples: the Temple of Hathor at Dendera and the Temple of Khnum at Esna. Both have exquisite columns and well-preserved, painted astronomical ceilings.
 - Cruise the Nile from Esna to Aswan aboard an eight-cabin sail boat, away from the convoys of large riverboats, so that we may visit remarkable temples without the typical crowds. From the spacious top deck, observe timeless pastoral scenes of feluccas, farmers, herders, and village life.
 - Fly to Abu Simbel to visit the stunning and enormous rock-cut temples of Ramesses II and Nefertari.

This is the most inclusive and fascinating introduction to Egypt available. It is limited to just 16 guests, so I urge you to reserve your space today.

Sincerely,

Lauren Cummings

ITINERARY

(B)= Breakfast, (L)= Lunch, (R)= Reception, (D)= Dinner

Tuesday, February 17, 2026: Depart home

Wednesday, February 18: Arrive Cairo, Egypt | Private transfer to hotel in Giza

You will be met upon arrival at Cairo International Airport (CAI) and transferred to Giza's historic Mena House, a palatial hotel set amid 40 acres of gardens, with magnificent views of the adjacent Great Pyramid of Khufu (Cheops). Gather for dinner at the hotel. Four nights at the 5-star Marriott Mena House hotel in Pyramid View rooms. (D)

Thursday, February 19: Giza: AM Giza Plateau, PM at leisure | Welcome reception & dinner

Spend the morning exploring the Giza Plateau, including the Great Pyramid of Khufu; Eastern Cemetery, with its vibrantly decorated mastaba of Meresankh III; mortuary temple of Khufu; timeless Sphinx; and nearby Valley Temple of Khafra. After lunch at a nearby restaurant we return to our hotel. This evening, gather for a welcome reception and dinner with our three expert trip leaders: AIA lecturer/host, Egyptology guide, and tour manager. (B,L,R,D)

Friday, February 20: Giza: Grand Egyptian Museum, Optional PM at leisure

The Grand Egyptian Museum (GEM), located less than two miles from our hotel, is the world's largest archaeological museum, spanning over 120 acres and showcasing over 100,000 artifacts from ancient Egypt. We will spend the morning with our expert AIA lecturer and Egyptology guide learning about stunning artifacts from various periods of ancient Egyptian history, including the complete Tutankhamen collection and the reconstructed Khufu solar boat. Exhibits are organized thematically across 12 galleries, covering society, kingship, and beliefs from 3100 B.C. to A.D. 400. The museum features a grand atrium with monumental statues such as that of Ramesses II. A staircase lined with pharaonic sculptures leads to a viewing platform offering vistas of the Giza pyramids. After lunch in the Museum, you have the option of returning to our hotel to relax and enjoy its luxurious amenities, or continue your visit of the Museum's galleries independently before returning to the Mena House for dinner. (B,L,D)

Saturday, February 21: Saqqara | Giza

This morning we visit the small Imhotep Museum at the entrance to the extraordinary necropolis at Saqqara, where we see the Step Pyramid of Djoser; the pyramid and causeway of Unas; the mastaba of the "two brothers," Nyankh Khnum and Khnumhotep; and (pending permission) the closed-to-the-public, 5th-dynasty Tomb of Wah Ti. We return to our hotel for some time to relax, attend a lecture, and enjoy dinner. (B,L,D)

Sunday, February 22: Giza: Grand Egyptian Museum, Optional PM at leisure | Fly to Luxor

This morning we return to view more of the GEM's extraordinary collections not seen on Friday. After lunch in the Museum, you have the option of returning to our hotel to relax or continue visiting more galleries independently. Later we all transfer to the airport for our evening flight to Luxor. Upon arrival, we check-in to our historic, colonial-era hotel located on the East Bank of the Nile, in the city center

"Extremely well organized. The team of Enass, our guide, Steve, the archeologist and Mahmoud, the organizer worked brilliantly with one another. Each contributed their skills to make the trip work flawlessly. The hotels were all spectacular."

- A., California

Above, from top: Temple of Isis at Philae; When possible, we see ongoing excavations and conservation work such as cleaning glyphs in the Temple of Khonsu at Karnak; Passageway at Dendera; Mortuary Temple of Hatshepsut at Deir el Bahari near Luxor Temple and the bazaar. We stay in the hotel's original wing that has hosted royalty and celebrities for over a century. Dinner is at the hotel. Two nights at the 4-star Sofitel Winter Palace Luxor Hotel (Old Wing). (B,L,D)

Monday, February 23: Luxor (East Bank): AM Karnak, PM at leisure, Luxor Temple

A short drive through town brings us to Karnak, the world's largest temple complex (built over the course of two thousand years), where a generous amount of time is scheduled for exploring this astounding and immense archaeological site. Our visit will include Karnak's Open-Air Museum, which has many newly reconstructed buildings on display. We return to our hotel to enjoy lunch and an afternoon at leisure. Before dinner we visit the iconic and well-preserved Luxor Temple, which is illuminated to striking effect and conveniently located adjacent to our hotel. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, February 24: Luxor (West Bank): Valley of the Kings, Deir el Bahari

We check-out of the Winter Palace and drive across the Nile to the famous Valley of the Kings, where we explore several royal tombs, including the legendary Tomb of Tutankhamen and the spectacular Tomb of Seti I. Drive to the nearby, stunning mortuary temple of Hatshepsut at Deir el Bahari, including the Third Terrace Sanctuary of Amun with its beautifully preserved painted decoration and two newly opened sanctuaries featuring representations of Senen Mut, Hatshepsut's architect. Continue on to our beautiful hotel, like a desert oasis embellished with reclaimed materials from historic buildings, surrounded by more than 24 acres of palm groves and exotic gardens. Settle in and gather for dinner. Three nights at the 5-star Al Moudira Hotel. (B,L,D)

Wednesday, February 25: Luxor (West Bank): AM Dendera, PM at leisure

This morning we drive along the Nile's West Bank to the Temple of Hathor at Dendera. This is one of the most stunning temples in Egypt with a startlingly well-preserved painted astronomical ceiling and reliefs. We return to our hotel for lunch and a relaxing afternoon to enjoy the hotel's property and luxurious amenities. Gather this evening for dinner. (B,L,D)

Thursday, February 26: Luxor (West Bank): Howard Carter House, Deir el Medina, Tomb of Ramose

Today we begin with a visit to the Howard Carter House, former residence of British archaeologist Howard Carter, renowned for discovering the tomb of Pharaoh Tutankhamen in 1922. A dozen of the home's furnished rooms have been restored, including Carter's study, library, and photo lab, showcasing Carter's excavation tools, cameras, photographs, and personal belongings. We continue on to Deir el Medina, the ancient village of the workers who built the pharaohs' tombs, where we visit the beautifully preserved and decorated tombs of Sennedjem and Inherkhau. We then visit the Valley of the Nobles with the famous Tomb of Ramose—the highest official (vizier) to serve the pharaohs Amenhotep III and Akhenaten. Return to our hotel for dinner. (B,L,D)

Friday, February 27: Luxor (East Bank): Luxor Museum | Esna | Embarkation

This morning we drive back across the Nile and visit Luxor Museum, one of the best museums in Egypt. Continue driving to Esna to visit the recently restored Temple of Khnum, with its wonderful astronomical ceiling with previously unknown names of ancient Egyptian constellations. At Esna we embark our sailing vessels, traditional Nile sailboats called dahabiyas, which will be our homes-away-from-home for the next four nights. Our group will sail aboard two of these smaller-sized vessels that will travel together and avoid the crowds cruising in a convoy of much larger Nile riverboats. We enjoy a late lunch as we sail up the Nile. The afternoon is at leisure, viewing timeless scenes of Egyptian life along the Nile until we gather for dinner onboard. Four nights aboard an eight-cabin dahabiya. (B,L,D)

Saturday, February 28: El Kab | Edfu | Sailing the Nile

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast onboard before visiting El Kab, one of the oldest settlements of Upper Egypt and now a famous necropolis with remarkable tombs of nobles and army generals. Continue to the city of Edfu for a tour of the Ptolemaic Temple of Horus, Egypt's most complete and best-preserved temple. Return to our dahabiyas and relax as we sail up the Nile. This evening, enjoy an onboard dinner of Egyptian specialties presented with a performance of local music and dancing. (B,L,D)

Sunday, March 1: Nubian village | Gebel el-Silsila | Sailing the Nile

In the morning, we set out to visit a beautiful Nubian village island and experience the vibrant local culture. We return to our dahabiyas, where we will enjoy lunch while sailing. Next, we visit Gebel el-Silsila, located at the narrowest point along the entire length of the Nile. It was the location of a major New Kingdom sandstone quarry and workshop where artifacts and tombs were discovered. Spend the balance of the day sailing the Nile. (B,L,D)

Monday, March 2: Kom Ombo | Sailing the Nile

Sail onward to the twin Temples of Sobek and Horus at Kom Ombo, including a visit to the magnificent (though small), new Crocodile Museum. Continue sailing toward Aswan and partake in a final gala dinner onboard. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, March 3: Aswan: Disembarkation, Philae, PM at leisure

Disembark our dahabiyas this morning at Aswan and visit an ancient granite quarry with an unfinished obelisk. Set out on a short boat ride to the island of Philae for a visit of its Temple of Isis, which has been called Egypt's most beautiful temple. After lunch, enjoy a walk through Aswan's souq, the most charming and traditional of the markets in Egypt, where one can find interesting Nubian ethnographic items such as baskets, pottery, and scarves that are unique to the Aswan area. Check-in to our hotel on the Nile and enjoy the afternoon at leisure until we gather for dinner. Three nights at the 5-star Sofitel Legend Old Cataract Aswan hotel. (B,L,D)

Wednesday, March 4: Elephantine Island | PM at leisure in Aswan

Take a morning excursion aboard feluccas (small, traditional sailing vessels) to visit the archaeological site on Elephantine Island. Set out on a motorboat ride through the Nile cataract for lunch at a Nubian restaurant. We return to our hotel for time at leisure in Aswan and then gather this evening for dinner. (B,L,D)

Thursday, March 5: Aswan: AM Nubia Museum, PM at leisure | Farewell reception & dinner

This morning we visit Aswan's elegant Nubia Museum, which exhibits many of the more than 3,000 artifacts recovered during the excavations of Nubian sites that were threatened by the construction of the High Dam. After lunch, the balance of the afternoon is at leisure to relax at our luxurious hotel overlooking the famous cataracts of Aswan. This evening, we gather for a farewell reception and dinner at our hotel hosted by our trio of leaders. (B,L,R,D)

Friday, March 6: Fly to Abu Simbel | Fly to Cairo via Aswan

Transfer to the airport early this morning for a short flight to Abu Simbel, where we visit the two world-famous, rock-cut temples of Ramesses II (built to honor himself and his queen, Nefertari). Moved when the Aswan High Dam was built, they are a marvel of ancient and modern engineering. Transfer to the airport for a short flight to Aswan and a connecting flight to Cairo, where we check-in to our luxurious airport hotel featuring fully soundproofed rooms. Dinner is at our hotel. Overnight at the 5-star Le Méridien Cairo Airport hotel. (B,L,D)

Saturday, March 7: Fly home

Check out this morning and enter the airport (our hotel has direct access to Terminal 3 via footbridge, as well as a free shuttle to Terminal 2) to catch flights homeward. (B)

"Egypt far exceeded my expectations and was brought to life through our excellent leaders and the engagement of the participants."

Prices, itinerary, accommodations, and leaders are subject to change. Prices quoted are based on group participation and no refunds will be made for any part of the program in which you choose not to participate. It is understood that refunds cannot be made to participants who do not complete the tour for whatever reason.

Due to space limitations, this is abbreviated information. Complete terms and conditions will be sent upon confirmation or upon request, and can be viewed online at www.aiatours.org.

The AIA & the AIA Tours Program

The Archaeological Institute of America (AIA) is the oldest and largest archaeological organization in North America. The AIA seeks to educate people of all ages about the significance of archaeological discovery. For more than a century the AIA has been dedicated to the encouragement and support of archaeological research and publication, and to the protection of the world's archaeological resources and cultural heritage. By traveling on an AIA Tour you directly support the AIA while personally gaining the benefit of the AIA's network of scholars and worldwide contacts.

"Astounding experience...fabulous leaders."

What to Expect

MODERATE: Must be able to walk one to three miles per day on mostly flat, but often uneven, terrain.

You must be able to make long walks, unassisted, over uneven terrain and up and down steps.

Participants who are not able to walk or stand unassisted for extended periods are kindly advised not to join this tour. All participants are expected to be physically active and not be an impediment to others on excursions, to enjoy traveling as part of a group, and to be ready to experience cultural differences. Some sites require strenuous and/or brisk walking or climbing, sometimes with difficult footing. All participants will be required to follow safety/sanitization protocols set forth by Sponsors/Operator, local staff, and host country laws. Any participant showing signs of illness will be asked to wear a mask when in close proximity to others. If the tour manager decides that a participant cannot visit a site safely or in a timely manner, their judgment will be final. Where possible, an alternate activity may be suggested; additional costs may apply. If you have any questions about your ability to participate, we suggest that you visit your personal physician with this brochure in hand and discuss whether or not this program is appropriate for you. Hotels have been chosen for their excellent locations and generous comfort. At the time of year that we visit Egypt the weather is sunny and dry. Average daytime temperatures may range from the mid-60s to mid-70s F, and nighttime temperatures may dip into the high 40s F. Complete pre-departure details will be sent to participants.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS, RELEASE OF LIABILITY, ASSUMPTION OF RISK, AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION AGREEMENT

RESPONSIBILITY: The Archaeological Institute of America and its agent, Eos Study Tours, and its and their employees, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors or trustees, successors, and assigns (hereinafter "Sponsors"), and the tour operator and/or its agents (collectively "Sponsors/Operator") do not own or operate any entity which is to or does provide goods or services for your trip including, for example, lodging facilities; airline, vessel, or other transportation companies; guides or guide services; local ground operators; providers or organizers of optional excursions; food service or entertainment providers; etc. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, Sponsors/Operator are not liable for any negligent or willful act or failure to act of any such person or of any other third party. In addition and without limitation, Sponsors/Operator are not responsible for any injury, loss, death, inconvenience, delay, or damage to person or property in connection with the provision of any goods or services whether resulting from, but not limited to, acts of force majeure; acts of God; acts of government; acts of war or civil unrest, insurrection, or revolt; bites from or attacks by animals, insects, or pests; strikes or other labor activities; criminal or terrorist activities of any kind or the threat thereof; sickness, illness, epidemics, pandemics, or the threat thereof; the lack of availability of or access to medical attention or the quality thereof; overbooking or downgrading of accommodations; mechanical or other failure of airplanes, vessels, or other means of transportation; or for any failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart timely or safely. In addition, Sponsors/Operator are not liable for their own negligence, and participant assumes all risk thereof. CHANGES IN ITINERARY OR FEATURES: Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to change the itinerary or trip features at any time and for any reason, with or without notice, and Sponsors/Operator shall not be liable for any loss of any kind as a result of any such changes. Sponsors/Operator are not required to cancel any trip for any reason including, without limitation, United States Department of State, World Health Organization, or other Warnings or Advisories of any kind. Sponsors/Operator are not responsible for penalties assessed by air carriers resulting from operational and/or itinerary changes, even if Sponsors/Operator make the flight arrangements or cancel the trip. Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to substitute hotels or attractions of a similar category for those listed in this brochure. LUGGAGE: Luggage allowance policies are set by the airlines and may change without prior notice. PHYSICAL ACCESSIBILITY: All programs require physical independence and mobility. Any physical or mental condition that may require special medical attention or physical assistance must be reported in writing when you make your reservation. Participants must be able to embark or disembark transportation vehicles, stand for extended periods, climb stairs, and step over raised thresholds all without assistance. All participants will be required to follow safety/sanitization protocols set forth by Sponsors/Operator, local staff, and host country laws, and any participant who refuses to follow protocols may be asked to leave the program with no refunds provided. REFUNDS: Prices quoted are based on group participation. No refunds will be made for any part of the program in which a participant chooses not to participate. Refunds cannot be made to participants who do not complete the tour for any reason, nor to participants whose entry into any country or aboard any transportation vehicle, including airplanes and cruise ships, is delayed or denied. TOUR CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS: Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to cancel this tour prior to departure, in which case payment will be refunded without further obligation on our part unless trip cancellation, itinerary changes, and/or delays are mandated by causes beyond our control, in which case the participant shall have the option of accepting in lieu of the original tour such rescheduled tour or other substituted tour(s) as may be offered by Sponsors/Operator, or else receiving a refund of as much of such advance tour expenditures as Sponsors/Operator are able to recover on the participant's behalf from carriers, third-party tour vendors, etc. Sponsors/Operator, however, shall not have any obligation or liability to the participant beyond the foregoing. TRIP INSURANCE: Sponsors/Operator strongly recommend that participants purchase trip cancellation insurance. In the event that you must cancel your participation, trip cancellation insurance may be the only source of reimbursement. Trip cancellation insurance is available through Sponsors/Operator and others and covers certain expenses in conjunction with cancellation due to illness or accident and damaged or lost luggage. Sponsors/Operator will send participants an application upon receipt of their reservation. PRICES: Prices quoted are based on fares in effect at the time of publication and are subject to changes at any time. On all programs, even after full payment, Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to increase the tour price in the event of cost increases due to changes in supplier costs, tax increases, currency fluctuations, or fuel and energy surcharges, and all such increases are to be paid to Sponsors/Operator upon notice to the participant. FORUM AND METHODOLOGY FOR DISPUTE RESOLUTION: Any dispute or claim which refers or relates to this contract, any literature related to the trip, or the trip itself shall be litigated solely and exclusively in and for courts in Keene, New Hampshire, subject to substantive and procedural New Hampshire law, and for this limited purpose, the parties agree to exclusive venue and personal jurisdiction therein. At the participant's option, however, in lieu of litigation, Sponsors/Operator will agree to binding arbitration in Keene, New Hampshire, subject to substantive, but not procedural, New Hampshire law, pursuant to the then existing commercial rules of the American Arbitration Association. In any such arbitration, the arbitrator, and not any federal, state, or local court or agency, shall have exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the interpretation, applicability, enforceability, conscionability, or formation of this contract, including but not limited to any claim that all or any part of this contract is void or voidable. U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT & CENTERS FOR DISEASE CONTROL: Both the Centers for Disease Control and U.S. State Department publish and update important country-specific information for travelers. We strongly recommend that you review them. They can presently be found at: <https://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/notices> and <https://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/alertswarnings.html>. ASSUMPTION OF RISK: Participants agree to fully accept all known and unknown risks, including the potential risk of exposure to respiratory illnesses or other illnesses, viruses, diseases, or conditions. Participants understand and agree to hold Sponsors/Operator, their officers, vendors and suppliers harmless and not liable for any real or perceived symptoms of any disease, virus, illness, or condition, nor for exacerbating any existing symptoms of any illness, virus, disease or condition, quarantine requirements, disability, and other short-term and long-term health effects, including death. MISCELLANEOUS: Participants should not purchase airline tickets prior to receiving their final payment invoice so as to avoid airline cancellation penalties if a tour is canceled or otherwise modified subsequent to the participant's purchase of those tickets. Baggage and personal effects are at all times the sole responsibility of the participant. If, due to weather, flight schedules, or other uncontrollable factors, you are required to spend (an) additional night(s), you will be responsible for your own hotel, transfers, and meal costs. Baggage is entirely at owner's risk. Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to decline to accept or retain any participant at any time. The right is reserved to decline to accept as a participant, or remove from a trip, without refund, any person it judges to be incapable of meeting the rigors and requirements of participating in the activities, or who is abusive to other trip participants, leaders, or third parties, or who is determined to detract from the enjoyment of the trip by others. Specific room assignments are within the sole discretion of the hotel. APPEARING IN PHOTOS: Photos from AIA Tours' trips may be posted on photo-sharing web sites or on social networking sites. Your likeness may appear in some photos or videos, posted either by other travelers or tour lecturers/guides, and the circulation of the materials could be worldwide. Trip photos may also be selected to appear in future AIA Tours promotions; no compensation is available for appearing in a trip photo used for promotional purposes. ACCEPTANCE OF CONTRACT: By forwarding of deposit, the participant certifies that he/she agrees with these terms and conditions, and accepts the terms contained in these Terms and Conditions, Release of Liability, Assumption of Risk and Dispute Resolution Agreement. The participant affirms that he/she has not received or relied upon any oral representation of Sponsors/Operator as a basis for executing this Release.
