WHAT TO EXPECT Daily activities can involve up to two miles of walking, and many walking tours will take place in older quarters and historic sites, where the terrain is often cobblestone or uneven. Many historic buildings do not have elevators and you'll encounter steps without handrails. While the ship has elevators that connect all passenger decks, participants should be capable of navigating stairs in rolling seas. Some shore excursions may require boarding a tender to go ashore. Staff and crew will be available to assist as needed.

GROUP SIZE This program is limited to 84 participants, including travelers from the Archaeological Institute of America, Princeton Journeys, Harvard Alumni Travels, and Princeton Theological Seminary.

TRAVEL INSURANCE Travel insurance for trip cancellation and interruption, medical problems, baggage loss and delay, etc., is highly recommended. Trip cancellation policies that apply to this travel program are included in this brochure. Information about travel insurance will be sent to confirmed participants.

A NOTE ABOUT RATES Tour rates are based upon current fuel prices, currency values, taxes, tariffs, and a minimum number of participants. While we will do everything possible to maintain the listed rates, they are subject to change. If there are significant changes, details and costs will be advised prior to departure.
