September 18-29, 2026 (12 days | 16 guests)
with archaeologist Patrick Hunt

ARCHAEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE OF AMERICA TOURS

Archaeology-focused tours for the curious to the connoisseur.

Archaeological Institute of America Lecturer and Host

Award-winning archaeologist, author, and National Geographic Explorer and grantee

Patrick Hunt earned his Ph.D. in Archaeology from the Institute of Archaeology, University College London, and has taught at Stanford University for more than 30 years. Patrick directed the Stanford Alpine Archaeology Project from 1994-2012, and has continued project-related fieldwork in the region in the years since. His Alps research has been sponsored by the National Geographic Society's Expeditions Council. Patrick frequently lectures for National Geographic and others on Hannibal and the European mummy nicknamed Ötzi the Iceman. He is a National Lecturer for the Archaeological Institute of America (AIA), including the prestigious AIA Norton Lectureship in 2022-23; an elected Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society; and an elected National Fellow of The Explorers Club.

Patrick is the author of 26 published books, including the best-seller Hannibal (Simon & Schuster, 2017), the Penguin best-seller Ten Discoveries That Rewrote History, and Alpine Archaeology. He is currently writing a book on Ötzi the Iceman. Patrick has published more than 100 articles, including more than a dozen for Encyclopedia Britannica, mostly on Hannibal. He has been featured in many National Geographic and NOVA documentaries, and has consulted for BBC and been featured in BBC radio interviews. Patrick has a lifelong love of the Alps, having lived annually for several months in the Alps since 1994 when not in the classroom or on the lecture circuit. He is Immediate Past President of the Stanford Chapter of the AIA and has been a member of the AIA since graduate school in 1984. A regular study leader on educational tours since the early 1990s, Patrick has led seven AIA tours in France and Italy since 2017. He has been in Spain and North Africa multiple times as an Explorer on behalf of National Geographic, and he publishes on the intersection of Persian and Islamic art and culture, including Moroccan motif origins.

Udaya Gate, Rabat, Morocco

Trace the layered history of the western Mediterranean on a journey through Morocco and Spain, where Roman, Islamic, and Christian civilizations shaped enduring cultural landscapes. From Morocco's Roman ruins and imperial cities to Andalusia's Moorish masterpieces and Spain's great art collections, this thoughtfully paced itinerary weaves together archaeology, architecture, and living traditions. Along the way, you will be treated to insightful discussions with your AIA lecturer/host, Patrick Hunt, whose deep field experience and engaging lectures will bring these countries' histories vividly to life.

Tour highlights:

- Explore Morocco's imperial cities of Rabat, Meknes, and Fes, including the medieval medinas of Fes el-Bali ("Old Fes")
- Walk through layers of history at Rabat's Chellah Fortress, where Phoenician, Roman, and Islamic remains converge
- Experience Andalusia's cultural crossroads in Seville, Córdoba, and Granada, featuring palaces, mosques, cathedrals, and historic quarters
- Visit exceptional Roman sites including Volubilis, Italica, and the soaring Roman aqueduct of Segovia
- Discover UNESCO World Heritage Sites such as the Alhambra, Mosque-Cathedral of Córdoba, Royal Alcázar of Seville, and historic city centers
- Delve into Spain's artistic legacy with a guided visit of Madrid's Prado Museum
- Savor regional cuisine through welcome and farewell dinners, select hosted meals, and opportunities to dine independently
- Stay in well-located 4- and 5-star hotels chosen for their quality, comfort, and proximity to key sites

This exclusive, small-group tour is limited to just 16 participants. Contact us to reserve your space.

ITINERARY

(B)= Breakfast, (L)= Lunch, (R)= Reception, (D)= Dinner

Friday, September 18, 2026: Depart home

Depart home for Casablanca, Morocco.

Saturday, September 19: Arrive Casablanca, Morocco | Transfer to Rabat | Welcome reception

Arrive today at Casablanca's Mohammed V International Airport (CMN), where you will be met and transferred as a group to our hotel in Rabat, approximately a 1 ½ hour drive. Depending on the time of arrival in Rabat, independent sightseeing may be undertaken this afternoon and the remainder of the day is free to relax after your journey. Gather this evening for a welcome meeting and reception with your AIA lecturer/host and local guide. Dinner is on your own. Two nights at the 5-star Hôtel la Tour Hassan Palace. (R)

Sunday, September 20: Rabat: Chellah Fortress, Archaeological Museum, Bank Al-Maghrib Museum, Kasbah of the Udayas, Hassan Tower | Welcome dinner

Start the morning with a stroll in the Chellah Fortress, which originated with the Phoenicians but was taken over by the Romans in the 1st century A.D. as Sala Colonia, and was an integral part of the Roman Empire's expansion into North Africa. The site was abandoned in 1154, but in the 14th century a Marinid sultan built a holy necropolis (chellah) on top of it, hence its modern name. Next, we visit the country's national archaeological museum, renowned for its prehistoric and Roman collections, followed by the Bank Al-Maghrib Museum, with a numismatic collection that traces the history of currency in Morocco from ancient times to the modern day, as well as an art collection featuring works by foreign artists (including 19th-century Orientalists) and prominent Moroccan painters. Enjoy a seafood lunch at Borj Eddar, overlooking the crashing waves of the Atlantic. After lunch, take a leisurely walk through Rabat's whitewashed Kasbah of the Udayas (a North African citadel), including the Andalusian Garden and the Udaya Gate, a fine example of Almohad dynasty architecture. We end the day with a visit to the Hassan Tower and the nearby Mausoleum of Mohammed V, iconic monuments of Rabat showcasing the city's historical and ceremonial importance. Enjoy a welcome dinner of Moroccan specialties in the medina. (B,L,D)

Monday, September 21: Volubilis | Meknes | Fes

Depart Rabat this morning for the ruins of Volubilis, a UNESCO World Heritage Site with well-preserved mosaics that was Rome's commercial hub for northwestern Africa until the 3rd century A.D. We will also tour a small, informative museum, which has recently been built on site. Continue to the Imperial City of Meknes, which 17th-century Sultan Moulay Ismaïl built as his capital, and is today a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Our first stop will be at Ismaïl’s mausoleum, one of only two religious sites in Morocco open to non-Muslims, and we will see the immense granary Ismaïl built to feed the city’s population and his 12,000 horses in the event of up to a year-long siege; as well as the classically decorated, 14th-century Bou Inania Medersa. After lunch around the corner at Riad Didi, a vast former mansion and now a boutique hotel, we will stop by the Mansour Gate, Morocco’s largest. Continue onward to the intellectual and spiritual capital, and UNESCO World Heritage Site, of Fes. Check-in to our hotel and gather for dinner this evening. Overnight at the 4-star Le Riad Maison Bleue. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, September 22: Fes: Walking and driving tours | Casablanca

Today we spend a full day exploring Fes. We begin our tour with a walk through the labyrinth of 9th-century Fes el-Bali (“Old Fes”), considered by scholars to be the last true example of a typical medieval Arab town. On our walking tour we will see the mausoleum of city founder Idriss II; the famed leather tannery; the bazaars around the world’s oldest functioning university, the Qaraouine; the recently restored 14th-century Al-Attarine Medersa, a jewel of Marinid-era interior art; and the 17th-century Nejjarine caravansary, now an exquisite Museum of Wooden Arts and Crafts. Lunch will be enjoyed within the medina at the unique Ruined Garden. Following lunch, continue the visit in Fes el-Bali at the 14th-century Bou Inania Medersa, regarded by many scholars as the highest achievement of Marinid architecture, and exit the medina through the famed Boujeloud “Blue” Gate. Then enjoy a driving tour of the city ramparts and visit a workshop beyond town for the city’s renowned pottery and zellige mosaic tile, a Fesi specialty. This afternoon we drive back to Casablanca and prepare for our morning flight to begin the Spain portion of our adventure. This evening and dinner are at leisure. Overnight at the 5-star Le Doge Hotel. (B,L)

Wednesday, September 23: Fly from Casablanca to Seville, Spain | Walking tour of Seville: Alcázar, Cathedral, Barrio de Santa Cruz

This morning, we transfer to Casablanca’s Mohammed V International Airport (CMN) for our morning flight to Seville. Upon arriving in Seville we transfer to our hotel, check-in, and gather for lunch. After lunch we meet our local guide for an afternoon tour of Andalusia’s capital. Visit two UNESCO World Heritage Sites and true emblems of the city. Begin at the Royal Alcázar of Seville, a historic royal palace built on the site of the former Islamic-era citadel. It is one of the purest and most outstanding examples of Mudéjar (Christian-Muslim) architecture, incorporating Moorish, Gothic, and Renaissance elements. Outside, it is surrounded by manicured gardens full of fragrant flowers and fountains. Next, we visit the magnificent Seville Cathedral, which stands on the site of the 12th-century Great Mosque. It was converted into a Christian church when the city was conquered by Ferdinand III of Castile in 1248. Today, the only remaining portions of the Mosque are the Patio de los Naranjos (orange tree courtyard) and the minaret, known as the Giralda. We end the day with a stroll through the Barrio de Santa Cruz, which was the old Jewish Quarter. Gather this evening for dinner at a local restaurant. Three nights at the 4-star Casa Romana Hotel. (B,L,D)

Thursday, September 24: Italica | Olive grove tour and olive oil tasting | Seville

Today we start the day with a visit to the Roman ruins of Italica, which have been declared a national monument. Located just 20 minutes outside of Seville, this strategic city played an important military, political, and economic role during the High Roman Empire. Walking along the ancient roads, you will see the remains of homes and various buildings, as well as artifacts, detailed mosaics, bath houses, and a theater. The amphitheater, with a capacity of 25,000 spectators, was one of the largest in the Roman Empire. This city was also the birthplace of the emperors Hadrian and Trajan. Continue to an olive grove located between the towns of El Viso del Alco and Carmona, where we will have lunch followed by a tour of the olive grove and a tasting of their extra virgin olive oil (AOVE). We travel back to Seville and enjoy an independent dinner. (B,L)

Friday, September 25: High-speed train to Córdoba | Córdoba: Mosque-Cathedral, Jewish Quarter, Almodóvar Gate | High-speed train to Seville

This morning, we travel as a group to the Seville train station and depart for Córdoba on the high-speed train (45-minute ride). We are met in Córdoba by our local guide and begin our visit at the incredible Mosque-Cathedral, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the most remarkable buildings in the world. See the impressive red and white arches in the prayer hall of the Mosque, as well as Gothic, Renaissance, and Baroque styles in the Cathedral. This unique space offers a glimpse into Córdoba's rich religious past and the coexistence of cultures that shaped the city. Continue through one of Spain's most significant Jewish quarters, located between the ancient city walls and the Mosque-Cathedral. Walk its narrow, winding streets and see the historic Almodóvar Gate. Stroll through iconic passages such as Calleja de las Flores, browse traditional crafts at the Zoco Municipal, and pause at the statue of Maimonides, a tribute to one of the city's most influential philosophers. After lunch at a local restaurant, we return to the train station and board the high-speed train back to Seville. Transfer to our hotel and enjoy an independent dinner. (B,L)

Saturday, September 26: Drive to Granada | Granada: Alhambra Complex, Generalife Gardens, Albaicín quarter

This morning, we check out of our hotel and head to Granada, approximately a 3-hour drive. Arrive in Granada, check-in to our hotel, and enjoy an independent lunch. After lunch we visit the stunning Alhambra complex, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and Spain's single biggest attraction. This hilltop fortress-palace of the Nasrid kings, the last Muslim rulers in Spain, is the most remarkable monument of Moorish art in the country. The Palace premises comprise beautiful rectangular courtyards and numerous fountains, as well as the Nasrid buildings that served as living quarters for the monarchs and their servants. The harem gardens of the Generalife, the summer palace of the Sultans, are filled with lush vegetation, vibrant flowers, and tranquil fountains, providing an oasis-like atmosphere. We end the day in the Albaicín quarter for a walking tour of this historic neighborhood with wonderful views of the Alhambra, followed by a tapas dinner with our guide before returning to our hotel. Overnight at the 4-star NH Collection Victoria. (B,D)

Sunday, September 27: Drive to Madrid | Madrid: Prado Museum

This morning, we depart early for Madrid, driving approximately 4 ½ hours with a stop along the way for a coffee in the village of Consuegra to see the famous windmills and its castle. Once we arrive in Madrid, check-in to our hotel, freshen up from our

What to Expect

ACTIVE: Must be able to walk three or more miles per day on mostly uneven terrain, and up and down inclines and steps.

This program involves extensive walking, often on uneven terrain or up and down stairs that may be steep and without handrails, with a couple of half-day excursions covering up to two or three miles apiece. All participants are expected to be physically active and not be an impediment to others on excursions, to enjoy traveling as part of a group, and to be ready to experience cultural differences. Participants who are not able to walk or stand unassisted for extended periods are kindly advised not to join this tour. If you have any questions about your ability to participate, we suggest that you visit your personal physician with this brochure in hand, and discuss whether or not the program is appropriate for you. All participants will be required to follow safety/sanitization protocols set forth by Sponsors/Operator, local staff, and host country laws. Any participant showing signs of illness will be asked to wear a mask while in close proximity to others. If the tour manager decides that a participant cannot visit a site safely or in a timely manner, their judgment will be final. Where possible, an alternate activity may be suggested; additional costs may apply.

At the time of our visit, you can expect pleasant, generally sunny and dry, weather. Daytime temperatures in Morocco will range from the mid-70s to the mid-80s F, and you may experience cooler evenings in the 50s and 60s F. In Spain, temperatures should be similar with slightly higher daytime temperatures possible. Sightseeing vehicles are air-conditioned, modern, and comfortable. Accommodations have been selected for their excellent locations and to offer the ultimate experience of true Moroccan and Spanish cultures, ambiance, and hospitality. Restaurants have been selected to showcase the local cuisine's excellence and complexity, along with the best of Continental options. Complete pre-departure details will be sent to participants.

morning drive, and enjoy lunch at the hotel. This afternoon we visit the Prado Museum, which houses one of the finest art collections in the world. Our tour will focus on the Spanish legends such as Velázquez, Murillo, Zurbarán, and Goya. The Museum also contains Flemish works collected by the Catholic monarchs; Italian paintings by Titian and Tintoretto; and masterpieces by great universal artists such as El Greco, Bosch, Van Dyck, and Rembrandt. Return to our hotel and enjoy an independent dinner. Two nights at the 5-star Villa Real Hotel. (B,L)

Monday, September 28: Segovia: Gothic Cathedral, Alcázar, Roman aqueduct | Madrid | Farewell dinner

Today we spend a full day exploring the medieval town of Segovia, once an important Roman military stronghold and today a city where history and legend are intertwined. As you walk through its ancient walled streets, you will discover Romanesque churches from the 11th and 12th centuries, Renaissance fortresses, elegant palaces, and noble residences. Visit Segovia's magnificent Gothic Cathedral, built of glowing golden stone during the reign of Charles V, and explore the 14th-century Alcázar—an extraordinary castle perched on a cliff. Our journey also takes us to the iconic 1st-century Roman aqueduct, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the best preserved in the world, which soars majestically over the city. Lunch will be at a favorite local restaurant to feast on local delicacies such as roast lamb or tender roast suckling pig. Return to our hotel and gather this evening for a festive farewell dinner. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, September 29: Fly home

Transfer this morning to Madrid-Barajas Airport (MAD) for flights homeward. (B)

The AIA and the AIA Tours Program

The Archaeological Institute of America (AIA) is the oldest and largest archaeological organization in North America. The AIA seeks to educate people of all ages about the significance of archaeological discovery. For more than a century the AIA has been dedicated to the encouragement and support of archaeological research and publication, and to the protection of the world's archaeological resources and cultural heritage. By traveling on an AIA Tour you directly support the AIA while personally gaining the benefit of the AIA's network of scholars and worldwide contacts.

AIA Tours is a proud member of Sustainable Travel International, a globally recognized organization dedicated to promoting sustainable tourism practices. This partnership highlights our commitment to responsible travel. Join us in our efforts by using our easy carbon footprint calculator to estimate your travel emissions and purchase carbon offsets. ## Flights & Transfers

Airfare from/to home is not included. Group transfers (times TBD) are included on your arrival at Casablanca's Mohammed V International Airport (CMN), and on your departure from Madrid-Barajas Airport (MAD). The group in-program flight will be booked for you and is included in the tour price (subject to change until ticketed). Once you have received your final payment invoice, you should book your flights from/to home. If you are considering booking non-refundable airline tickets before this time, please contact our office first. Valerie Wilson Travel, Inc. can assist with flight arrangements for this tour. You may contact them directly at 866-200-6172 or email studytours@vwti.com. Alternatively, you are welcome to book your flights independently or through your preferred travel agent. Your flight itinerary must be provided to our office prior to departure. We do not accept any liability for cancellation penalties related to domestic or international airline tickets.

Prices Do Not Include: Airfare from/to home; passport and visa fees; airport fees and departure taxes; individual airport transfers; cost of personal, trip cancellation, and baggage insurance; transportation of excess baggage; meals and beverages other than those indicated; personal tips; all items of a personal nature such as medical expenses, laundry, taxi, room service, telephone/fax/Wi-Fi charges; optional excursions or deviations from scheduled tour; other items not listed as included.

Payments: A deposit of $2,000 per person is required to reserve your space and is payable by Visa, MasterCard, American Express, or check made payable to "Eos AIA-MoroccoSpain9/26." Final payment is due 120 days (May 21, 2026) prior to departure and must be by check, ACH transfer, or wire transfer only; credit cards are not accepted for final payment. By submitting your deposit you are bound by the terms and conditions delineated throughout this brochure and elsewhere published.

Participant Cancellation Fees: All requests by participants for cancellations must be received in writing by AIA Tours. The following cancellation terms will apply based on when the cancellation is received:

- On or before March 22, 2026: Deposit is refunded less a cancellation fee of $1,000 per person.
- March 23 - May 20, 2026: Forfeit the full deposit of $2,000 per person.
- May 21 - June 10, 2026: Cancellation fee equal to 50% of the tour cost.
- On or after June 11, 2026: No refund.

For this and other reasons, participants are strongly encouraged to purchase trip cancellation insurance. Information will be provided with confirmation of receipt of your deposit.

Note: Prices are based on tariffs and exchange rates in effect at the time of publication and are subject to change prior to departure. Substantial changes in tariffs, exchange rates, and the price of fuel, services, and labor may increase the cost of arrangements significantly, and we reserve the right to alter our prices.

Prices, itinerary, accommodations, and leader are subject to change. Prices quoted are based on group participation and no refunds will be made for any part of the program in which you choose not to participate. It is understood that refunds cannot be made to participants who do not complete the tour for whatever reason.

Due to space limitations, this is abbreviated information. Complete terms and conditions are available upon confirmation or upon request and can be viewed online at www.aiatours.org.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS, RELEASE OF LIABILITY, ASSUMPTION OF RISK, AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION AGREEMENT

RESPONSIBILITY: The Archaeological Institute of America and its agent, Eos Study Tours, and its and their employees, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors or trustees, successors, and assigns (hereinafter "Sponsors"), and the tour operator and/or its agents (collectively "Sponsors/Operator") do not own or operate any entity which is to or does provide goods or services for your trip including, for example, lodging facilities; airline, vessel, or other transportation companies; guides or guide services; local ground operators; providers or organizers of optional excursions; food service or entertainment providers; etc. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, Sponsors/Operator are not liable for any negligent or willful act or failure to act of any such person or of any other third party. In addition and without limitation, Sponsors/Operator are not responsible for any injury, loss, death, inconvenience, delay, or damage to person or property in connection with the provision of any goods or services whether resulting from, but not limited to, acts of force majeure; acts of God; acts of government; acts of war or civil unrest, insurrection, or revolt; bites from or attacks by animals, insects, or pests; strikes or other labor activities; criminal or terrorist activities of any kind or the threat thereof; sickness, illness, epidemics, pandemics, or the threat thereof; the lack of availability of or access to medical attention or the quality thereof; overbooking or downgrading of accommodations; mechanical or other failure of airplanes, vessels, or other means of transportation; or for any failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart timely or safely. In addition, Sponsors/Operator are not liable for their own negligence, and participant assumes all risk thereof. CHANGES IN ITINERARY OR FEATURES: Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to change the itinerary or trip features at any time and for any reason, with or without notice, and Sponsors/Operator shall not be liable for any loss of any kind as a result of any such changes. Sponsors/Operator are not required to cancel any trip for any reason including, without limitation, United States Department of State, World Health Organization, or other Warnings or Advisories of any kind. Sponsors/Operator are not responsible for penalties assessed by air carriers resulting from operational and/or itinerary changes, even if Sponsors/Operator make the flight arrangements or cancel the trip. Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to substitute hotels or attractions of a similar category for those listed in this brochure. LUGGAGE: Luggage allowance policies are set by the airlines and may change without prior notice. PHYSICAL ACCESSIBILITY: All programs require physical independence and mobility. Any physical or mental condition that may require special medical attention or physical assistance must be reported in writing when you make your reservation. Participants must be able to embark or disembark transportation vehicles, stand for extended periods, climb stairs, and step over raised thresholds all without assistance. All participants will be required to follow safety/sanitization protocols set forth by Sponsors/Operator, local staff, and host country laws, and any participant who refuses to follow protocols may be asked to leave the program with no refunds provided. REFUNDS: Prices quoted are based on group participation. No refunds will be made for any part of the program in which a participant chooses not to participate. Refunds cannot be made to participants who do not complete the tour for any reason, nor to participants whose entry into any country or aboard any transportation vehicle, including airplanes and cruise ships, is delayed or denied. TOUR CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS: Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to cancel this tour prior to departure, in which case payment will be refunded without further obligation on our part unless trip cancellation, itinerary changes, and/or delays are mandated by causes beyond our control, in which case the participant shall have the option of accepting in lieu of the original tour such rescheduled tour or other substituted tour(s) as may be offered by Sponsors/Operator, or else receiving a refund of as much of such advance tour expenditures as Sponsors/Operator are able to recover on the participant's behalf from carriers, third-party tour vendors, etc. Sponsors/Operator, however, shall not have any obligation or liability to the participant beyond the foregoing. TRIP INSURANCE: Sponsors/Operator strongly recommend that participants purchase trip cancellation insurance. In the event that you must cancel your participation, trip cancellation insurance may be the only source of reimbursement. Trip cancellation insurance is available through Sponsors/Operator and others and covers certain expenses in conjunction with cancellation due to illness or accident and damaged or lost luggage. Sponsors/Operator will send participants an application upon receipt of their reservation. PRICES: Prices quoted are based on fares in effect at the time of publication and are subject to changes at any time. On all programs, even after full payment, Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to increase the tour price in the event of cost increases due to changes in supplier costs, tax increases, currency fluctuations, or fuel and energy surcharges, and all such increases are to be paid to Sponsors/Operator upon notice to the participant. FORUM AND METHODOLOGY FOR DISPUTE RESOLUTION: Any dispute or claim which refers or relates to this contract, any literature related to the trip, or the trip itself shall be litigated solely and exclusively in and for courts in Keene, New Hampshire, subject to substantive and procedural New Hampshire law, and for this limited purpose, the parties agree to exclusive venue and personal jurisdiction therein. At the participant's option, however, in lieu of litigation, Sponsors/Operator will agree to binding arbitration in Keene, New Hampshire, subject to substantive, but not procedural, New Hampshire law, pursuant to the then existing commercial rules of the American Arbitration Association. In any such arbitration, the arbitrator, and not any federal, state, or local court or agency, shall have exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the interpretation, applicability, enforceability, conscionability, or formation of this contract, including but not limited to any claim that all or any part of this contract is void or voidable. U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT & CENTERS FOR DISEASE CONTROL: Both the Centers for Disease Control and U.S. State Department publish and update important country-specific information for travelers. We strongly recommend that you review them. They can presently be found at: <https://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/notices> and <https://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/alertswarnings.html>. ASSUMPTION OF RISK: Participants agree to fully accept all known and unknown risks, including the potential risk of exposure to respiratory illnesses or other illnesses, viruses, diseases, or conditions. Participants understand and agree to hold Sponsors/Operator, their officers, vendors and suppliers harmless and not liable for any real or perceived symptoms of any disease, virus, illness, or condition, nor for exacerbating any existing symptoms of any illness, virus, disease or condition, quarantine requirements, disability, and other short-term and long-term health effects, including death. MISCELLANEOUS: Participants should not purchase airline tickets prior to receiving their final payment invoice so as to avoid airline cancellation penalties if a tour is canceled or otherwise modified subsequent to the participant's purchase of those tickets. Baggage and personal effects are at all times the sole responsibility of the participant. If weather, flight schedules, or other uncontrollable factors, such as those related to customs and immigration, require you to spend (an) additional night(s), you will be responsible for your own hotel, transfer, and meal costs. Sponsors/Operator reserve the right to decline to accept or retain any participant at any time. The right is reserved to decline to accept as a participant, or remove from a trip, without refund, any person it judges to be incapable of meeting the rigors and requirements of participating in the activities, or who is abusive to other trip participants, leaders, or third parties, or who is determined to detract from the enjoyment of the trip by others. Specific room assignments are within the sole discretion of the hotel. APPEARING IN PHOTOS: Photos from AIA Tours' trips may be posted on photo-sharing web sites or on social networking sites. Your likeness may appear in some photos or videos, posted either by other travelers or tour lecturers/guides, and the circulation of the materials could be worldwide. Trip photos may also be selected to appear in future AIA Tours promotions; no compensation is available for appearing in a trip photo used for promotional purposes. ACCEPTANCE OF CONTRACT: By forwarding of deposit, the participant certifies that he/she agrees with these terms and conditions, and accepts the terms contained in these Terms and Conditions, Release of Liability, Assumption of Risk and Dispute Resolution Agreement. The participant affirms that he/she has not received or relied upon any oral representation of Sponsors/Operator as a basis for executing this Release.
