

THE MANGLISI ARCHAEOLOGICAL PROJECT

Bronze Age and Medieval Excavations

Do you want to join us on a journey of discovery? The Manglisi Project offers the unique and exciting chance to be involved in a brand-new international research initiative full of adventure, archaeology and of course world-famous Georgian wine. Whether you simply wish to excavate our medieval settlement, uncover the bones of your early ancestors or be responsible for discovering new ground-breaking sites, our archaeologically rich project is the ideal summer vacation for you. We welcome all students and keen non-students, wanting an archaeological experience of a lifetime. Feel welcome and valued whilst excavating a previously untouched historic Georgian landscape.

WHEN IS IT?

31st May to 27th June 2020 (four weeks)

28th June to 25th July 2020 (four weeks)

WHERE DO I STAY?

Stay in the beautiful surroundings of the Caucasus Mountains in our project houses. You will receive full board during your stay, including a delicious hot evening meal which will allow you to sample all the best that Georgian cuisine has to offer.

HOW MUCH WILL IT COST?

For a four-week block either June or July, the total inclusive cost is £3350 ($4400), or alternatively come for two weeks at £1700 ($2250)

Price includes educational and fieldwork activities, full-board accommodation, a welcome pack, skills passport, administrative costs, evening entertainment and excursions included and even some world-famous Georgian wine
