

2020 OU Archaeological Field School - Excavations at Spiro

Learn how to conduct archaeological investigations at the world famous site of Spiro* in eastern Oklahoma and earn eight credit hours!

What: Learn the basics of archaeological investigation and artifact analysis and participate in important research at the site of Spiro (AD 950-1450)*.

Who: The class is open to all undergraduates 18 or older. Students will enroll in ANTH 3930 (Five credit hours) and ANTH 3933 (Three credit hours).

When: The fieldwork will occur May 11 to June 12 and the lab work will take place in Norman June 15 to July 3. Class will take place M-F during all weeks and students will be free on the weekends.

For more information and an application visit

<http://patricklivingood.oucreate.com/fieldschool/> or contact Patrick Livingood at patrickl@ou.edu. Applications due by March 13.

Sponsored by the OU College of Arts and Sciences and OK Archaeological Survey.

* Work will be at the site of Spiro pending permit, or in the vicinity. Updates posted on the website.